

"QUALITY" RULES IN OUR STORE.

The Best and nothing but the Best, at lower prices than others charge for inferior goods. That tells the story and that is why Bieber's Cash Store is gaining new customers every day.

GROCERIES

12 lbs fruit Sugar $1.00
Shillings Economy Roast Coffee.....25c
Breakfast Delight 5 pound package.....50c
A valuable prize in each package.
3 pa's Challenge Mush 50c
Karo Syrup $1.00 a gal.
Star Chocolate 30c a pound.
Shilling's Soda 10c a pound
Mica Axle Grease 10c a can
3 pounds Pale Savon Soap.....25c

DRY GOODS

We are now ready with a fascinating array of fall styles. How pretty they all are! You should see them. Remember the new things are always here first
El Dorado Flannels 10c yd
Oyama Flannelettes " " " "
Leonea Vicuna Flannels.....12 1/2c yd
New Plaid Dress Goods.....20c yd
Toile Du Nord Dress Goods.....15c yd
1 1/4 Cotton Sheet Blankets.....$1.25
Ladies Dress Patterns.....$2.50 each up.

Premium Crockery Coupons Free with each 25c Cash purchase at Retail. Ask for them.

Bieber's

CASH STORE

DRIVE IT

Into The Dealer's Head That It's

You Want

Demand The Brand!

FEED AND LIVERY STABLE
SOUTH LAKEVIEW.
C. S. LOVELESS, PROPRIETOR.

I propose to offer the public a stopping place where their horses will be fed and cared for as they would be cared for at home.

I will also keep a team and rig to hire.

S. V. Rehart expects to start for Mexico in a few days to investigate The Rubber Plantation. Mr. Rehart believes his investment is a good one and intends to make a thorough investigation before returning. He received his stock certificates last week.

L. O. Enquist spent several days in town the past week. Mr. Enquist will put in the winter in North Warner.
Prof. J. L. Smith, the Life Insurance man, returned a few days ago from a trip in the northern part of the county.

Lakeview And Vicinity

Gib Collier was in town Monday. Family liquors at Post & Kings. If Geo. Fitzgerald was in town Monday.

L. L. Russell was here first of the week.

Gus Schlagel returned from the mines.

People continue to locate mining claims.

J. W. Vinyard was over from Warner Sunday.

S. P. Moss came down from Che-waucan Sunday.

Quite a lot of grain is being hauled to town these days.

J. C. Oliver, the West Side farmer, was in town Monday.

S. T. Colvin was down from Crooked Creek first of the week.

B. Reynolds is having a large sign painted on the north side of his store.

Thos. Cloud has finished up and painted his house, which looks very neat.

You can't beat Patch's prices on vegetables. Buy your winter supply of him.

Geo. Ranney, the Summer Laker, who had a long sick spell, recently is able to be up.

Miss Myrtle Smith began a term of school Monday at the Union school house on the West Side.

Dick Kingsley came to town Monday. He has been working on a threshing machine all fall.

Geo. Wilson and Wm. Routson, the Warner valley woolgrowers, were in Lakeview this week.

John Briles, the Davis Creek farmer, was up Monday to deliver a load of fruit. It was all engaged.

One day last week while J. W. Tucker was working about the house he received a severe cut on the eye.

We want to show you our line of Coats, Suits, Skirts, Waists, Wrappers, in fact, everything that women wear. ANNA M. NELSON & Co.

If The Examiner isn't the best newspaper in Eastern Oregon, there are a whole lot of fellows that are guilty of subornation of perjury.

E. F. Cheney is having a porch built on his residence opposite the Mammoth Stables, which improves the looks of the residence wonderfully.

Winter is coming on, you had better lay in your winter's vegetables. E. R. Patch, the commission merchant will supply you at reasonable prices.

County Superintendent J. Q. Willits went to Paisley and Silver Lake this week to visit the schools in the northern part of the county. Prof. Willits will teach at Pine Creek this winter.

Mrs. E. R. Jackson, mother of Mrs. E. R. Patch, arrived here last Friday on a visit with her daughter. She lives in Indian Territory and came west to see the Portland fair. Mrs. Jackson started home Tuesday.

C. S. Loveless invites the public to share their patronage with him at the South Lakeview Feed and Livery Stable. He guarantees good treatment to all stock left in his care, and proposes to feed good hay and plenty of it.

Jack McDonald has returned from Portland. As soon as he was freed from "the hog" he came home. Mrs. McDonald went to Santa Cruse, Calif., where she will spend the winter for her health. Jack drove the stage down from Paisley last Friday.

O. W. Jacobs the Guano sheep raiser, was in Lakeview first of the week after a load of lime and sulphur for dipping his sheep. Ol. takes The Examiner and came to the office Monday and left a few "bouquets." Thanks, if he ever runs a newspaper we'll surely return the compliment.

Storkman cigars are the best. *

E. Caschier was here from Bly this week.

C. W. Withers was here first of the week looking for more sheep.

J. T. Flook was in from Rock creek, east of Warner Sunday.

Attend the Saturday night dances if you want to have a good time. *

J. C. Oliver wants stock to pasture and winter at $1 per month. 40-41

Bert Gerking of the ZX ranch, was registered at Hotel Lakeview Sunday.

Frank Paxton is in town this week. Joe Ambrose was in town yesterday.

The little child of Geo. Wise has been dangerously sick with whooping cough.

Eb. Follett and family of Richmond, Calif., are visiting relatives at Pine Creek.

J. M. Batchelder met his wife at the railroad on her way home. They arrived Monday.

Both Commissioner Currier and Dent attended the special term of county court last week.

Speaking of rubber, Dan'l. Boone, of Lakeview is something of a bouncer, himself.—S. L. Oregonian.

W. A. Gowat is looking for his family to arrive from Burns, where they have been visiting for two months.

We planned to have an opening, but we are too busy for that; come and see us. ANNA M. NELSON & Co.

R. C. Foster, wife and son, came down from their Summer Lake stock ranch this week and remained several days.

F. T. Gunther, the watchmaker, has moved to the hotel. Parties wanting work can find him at that place.

A gentleman and his family are here from Virginia to make their home. They are living at the S. T. Colvin ranch.

We carry six different styles in the Warner corset, ranging in price from 50 cents to $1.00. We fit our corsets to you. ANNA M. NELSON & Co. 1

F. O. Bunting spent several days in town from Drews valley this week. Frank sold while he was at Portland recently about the most familiar thing he run across was a 70 steak.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Simmons, who are living at the "White house," on the ZX ranch, is seriously ill with whooping cough.

The finest lot of plush buggy robes and winter horse blankets ever in Lakeview now on sale at Cheney's Harness & Saddle shop. All designs. Call and see them. 39-41

The whooping cough has taken a serious turn since the cool weather set in and is mixing with grippe and pneumonia, which makes a dangerous complication.

When you smoke an Eagle or Mountain Rose cigar, you needn't be ashamed to blow your smoke in any man's face. Storkman, the Lakeview cigar maker sells them. *

D. B. Conrad and Geo. Conn, two Paisley gentlemen, spent a couple of days in the county seat last week. Mr. Conrad was making a purchase of part of the Bagley farm adjoining Paisley, from the estate.

Dr. and Mrs. Dewey, who have been in Lakeview since last June, left yesterday for Bidwell, where they will be located for a while. A team from the Mammoth Stables with Joe Fuller as driver, moved them over.

Walter Dent has moved his family to town. They occupy their residence on Main street, recently vacated by Geo. Ayres and family, who moved to their own home on Water street, recently purchased from J. W. Tucker.

R. Random and family, and Mrs. Random's mother came down from Paisley first of the week. Mrs. Random and children and "Grandma" Bagley left for Edgewood, California Monday, where they expect to reside.

WEEKLY WEATHER REPORT.

Below we give a report of the weather as recorded by the Government weather bureau station at The Examiner Office. This report is changed each week, and if our readers wish to keep a yearly record of weather conditions for future reference, cut out the report along the black line and paste it in a scrap book one week after another. This record will be taken on Tuesday to end each week and begin on Wednesday for the next week. Government Weather Bureau Station at Lakeview, Oregon.
C. O. METZGER, Cooperative Observer.

Week ending Tuesday, Oct. 3, 1906

Day	max	min.	precipitation	in's fall	character of day
wed.	70	36	0.00	00	cloudy
thur.	51	27	0.00	00	"
frid'y	56	32	0.00	00	"
sat'y	59	38	0.00	00	"
sun.	75	28	0.00	00	"
mon.	73	30	0.00	00	"
tues.	78	36	0.00	00	pt c'd'y

The Ladies' Outfitters.

Anna M. Nelson & Co., will make for you any garment for women or children, and will make it as well as it can be made. Will make it to please you in every particular. We will do the work promptly, and never allow you to be dissatisfied with any business you may do with us. Every garment shall fit, look well on the wearer, and produce a sense of comfort.

Good Goods, and prices not in any instance, more than we would be willing to pay if you were selling and we were buying, are the principles upon which we expect to succeed.

Our goods are as well worth the money we ask for them, as goods you buy from any catalogue house in San Francisco are. We are ready to prove this, and anxious to meet you for this purpose.

We were a month buying our stock. We searched the city to get exactly what we wanted and would take nothing else. The price had to be right, and we got the full benefit of cash payments. We can, and will treat you as well as you can be treated in buying ANY WHERE, if

Our heating stoves are moving out come and make your choice while the assortment is complete.

Mr. Virgil Conn of Paisley, who has been in San Francisco the past month, returned last week on his way home. Mr. Conn says he had a very nice trip and enjoyed his stay in the city very much. He remained in Lakeview a couple of days before going on to Paisley.

Thos. Hutton of Egli, came to Lakeview first of the week. He was here to buy sheep, but said the price was too high. He sold all his sheep last spring. Mr. Hutton says the range was pretty dry out his way this fall. He made The Examiner office a pleasant call.

C. C. Harris, the Summer Lake farmer and stock raiser, came down first of the week after a load of flour. Clarence says he usually goes to Merrill after flour, but thought he would try Lakeview this fall. He says the fruit crop on the Harris ranch was good this year, but all the fruit is spoken for by people up north as far as Bend and Silver Creek.

Wood.

We will deliver you a load of wood of any length, any day, at any place in Lakeview you desire it.

Our price is $5 per cord, with discount of ten per cent if ten cords or more are taken and paid for.

BOONE & MULKBY.

for men who toil
LEVI STRAUSS & CO'S OVERALLS