

JOSH BILLINGS

SAID "I love a rooster for two things—for his crow and for his spurs to back it up with."

Yes, somebody has let the secret out; told their friends about our facilities for securing the newest and best of merchandise and how reasonably it is priced—and now our business has assumed enormous proportions.

Possibly you have wondered why we have been so careful to thoroughly please you and why we have insisted that everything be just right before it leaves the store—but come and see the way our store is crowded and you can easily guess the answer.

Just because our business has largely increased don't think we have laid aside our "spurs"—for we haven't. No matter whether you come only to look or to buy you will receive the same care and attention.

The new fall stock is now opened, the newest and smartest things are on show—now.

May we expect a visit from you soon?

Read what Portland Telegram says about the Behnke-Walker Business College

AS SECOND PRIZES THE TELEGRAM OFFERS SIX MONTHS SCHOLARSHIPS IN THE BEHNKE-WALKER BUSINESS COLLEGE OF PORTLAND. These scholarships were selected after considering many colleges, and were selected because the Telegram believes that the Behnke-Walker College offers the best opportunity to secure a business education of any college of its kind in the West. These scholarships are transferable, and may be used, given away, or sold to any one in your district. ALL THE PRIZES OFFERED ARE TRANSFERABLE.

The above was clipped bodily from a two-column announcement by The Evening Telegram of a $5000 prize contest it has just instituted to obtain new subscribers. This sweeping tribute was absolutely unsolicited. ALL the business colleges of Portland are advertising columns of The Telegram, the Behnke-Walker College being by no means the largest advertiser—the sweeping nature of this indorsement came as a great surprise. It was in no sense a paid advertisement, but was the verdict of that great evening daily—its fair and impartial judgment after having investigated best business colleges in the west. Come to Portland—take advantage of this "best opportunity to secure a business education of any college of its kind in the West."

The Ladies' Outfitters,

Auna M. Neilon & Co., will make for you any garment for women or children, and will make it as well as it can be made. Will make it to please you in every particular. We will do the work promptly, and never allow you to be dis-satisfied with any business you may do with us. Every garment shall fit, look well on the wearer, and produce a sense of comfort.

Good Goods, and prices not in any in-stance, more than we would be willing to pay if you were selling and we were buying, are the principles upon which we expect to succeed.

Our goods are as well worth the mon-ey we ask for them, as goods you buy from any catalogue house in San Fran-cisco are. We are ready to prove this, and anxious to meet you for this purpose. We were a month buying our stock. We searched the city to get exactly what we wanted and would take nothing else. The price had to be right, and we got the full benefit of cash payments. We can, and will treat you as well as you can be treated in buying ANY WHERE. If

W. A. Salsbury, who owns the Granger sawmill, met with a fright-ful accident yesterday evening. He was running the edger-saw and by some accident let the saw catch his hand, which was cut entirely off just above the fingers. He was brought to town and Dr. Meredith, assisted by Dr. Kistler, amputated the re-malder of the hand at the wrist joint. Mr. Salsbury was removed to the Coffman Hotel about mid-night, and is resting easily this morn-ing.—Cedarville Record.
