TIMBER LAND NOTICE.

United States Land Office, Lakeview, Oregon, Oct. 18, 1905. Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the Act of June 3, 1878, entitled "An Act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, the following persons have this day filed in this office their sworn statements, to wit:

Edward A. McCulley, of McCloud, county of Siskiyou, state of Calif. Sworn statement No. 3017, for the purchase of SW 1/4 NE 1/4, SE 1/4 NW 1/4, NE 1/4 SW 1/4, NW 1/4 SE 1/4, Sec. 30, Tp. 34 S., R. 18 E. W. M.

Arnold G. Wagner, of Klamath Falls, county of Klamath, state of Oregon. Sworn statement No. 3022, for the purchase of the E 1/2 NW 1/4 and W 1/2 NE 1/4 Sec. 29, Tp. 34 S., R. 18 E. W. M.

That they will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes and to establish their claim to said land before Geo. Chastain, clerk of Klamath county, Oregon, at his office at Klamath Falls, Ore., on Friday the 29th day of December, 1905.

They name as witnesses: Chas. H. McCumber of Dairy, Oregon; Frank Hail H. P. Crammer and J. C. Smith of Klamath Falls, Oregon; Edward A. McCulley, John E. Hiller of McCloud, Calif. and Charley Mesner of Klamath Falls, Ore.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 29th day of Dec. 1905.

J. N. Watson, Register.

Son Lost Mother.

"Consumption runs in our family and through it I lost my Mother," writes E. B. Reid, of Harmony, Me. "For the past five years, however, on the slightest sign of a Cough or Cold, I have taken Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which has saved me from serious lung trouble." His mother's death was a sad loss for Mr. Reid, but he learned that lung trouble must not be neglected, and how to cure it. Quickest relief and cure for coughs and colds. Price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed at Lee Beall's drugstore. Trial bottle free.

The Ladies' Outfitters,

Anna M. Neilson & Co., will make for you any garment for women or children, and will make it as well as it can be made. Will make it to please you in every particular. We will do the work promptly, and never allow you to be dissatisfied with any business you may do with us. Every garment shall fit, look well on the wearer, and produce a sense of comfort.

Good Goods, and prices not in any instance, more than we would be willing to pay if you were selling and we were buying, are the principles upon which we expect to succeed.

Our goods are as well worth the money we ask for them, as goods you buy from any catalogue house in San Francisco are. We are ready to prove this, and anxious to meet you for this purpose.

We were a month buying our stock. We searched the city to get exactly what we wanted and would take nothing else. The price had to be right, and we got the full benefit of cash payments. We can, and will treat you as well as you can be treated in buying ANY WHERE. It

We understand that Mr. and Mrs. Kee, late of Ireland, who came here a few weeks ago to accept their share of the McElhinney estate, Mrs. Kee being a sister of the late John McElhinney, expect to return to Ireland and bring their children and move to Lake county to reside. They will live on one of the McElhinney ranches known as the Dutton place.
