WEEKLY WEATHER REPORT.
Below we give a report of the weather as recorded by the Government weather bureau station at The Examiner Office. This report is changed each week, and if our readers wish to keep a yearly record of weather conditions for future reference, cut out the report along the black line and paste it in a scrap book one week after another. This record will be taken on Tuesday to end each week and begin on Wednesday for the next week.

Needs It in Their Business.
The following letter is one of the many counts upon which we are convinced that The Examiner is meeting with approval wherever it goes:
PAISLEY. — (EXAMINER.) Please send us a copy of last week's Examiner, as we failed to get ours and we cannot get along without The Examiner; we feel lost without it.
Yours Truly,
H. E. REED.

A Bargain.
Sawmill, located near the Summer Lake road, eleven miles from Paisley, consisting of double circular mill, 50-inch and 26-inch saws; large boiler and 12-in. by 12-in. engine; new friction log-turner and log-haul; edger and cut-off saws; fine heavy planer; shingle mill; lathe and pocket saw; wood lathe; shafting, belting, etc., nearly new; blacksmith tools; log truck, chains, dogs, etc., all complete. Price $2,200. Or, will sell a part, if desired. This offer will not be open long. Call at the mill, or address, C. S. BENTLEY, Paisley, Oregon, if.

Booth Kelly Sells Land.
It has been reported here that a big land deal has been made whereby the Booth-Kelly Lumber Company will part with the Oregon Central military wagon-road grant, which comprises in the neighborhood of 1,000,000 acres and extends from the Willamette Valley to the eastern borders of the state. The local officers of the company do not deny that such a sale is being negotiated, but say that no sale has been made. The names of the prospective purchasers are not given out, but it is known that they are heavy capitalists in New York. Mr. Booth, manager of the company, is now in New York on business connected with the deal.

The Ladies' Outfitters.
Anna M. Nelson & Co., will make for you any garment for women or children, and will make it as well as it can be made. Will make it to please you in every particular. We will do the work promptly, and never allow you to be dissatisfied with any business you may do with us. Every garment shall fit, look well on the wearer, and produce a sense of comfort.
Good Goods, and prices not in any instance, more than we would be willing to pay if you were selling and we were buying, are the principles upon which we expect to succeed.

Our goods are as well worth the money we ask for them, as goods you buy from any catalogue houses in San Francisco are. We are ready to prove this, and anxious to meet you for this purpose. We were a month buying our stock, we searched the city to get exactly what we wanted and would take nothing else. The price had to be right, and we got the full benefit of cash payments. We can, and will treat you as well as you can be treated in buying ANY WHERE, if

FOR SALE. One good work team; price reasonable. Address C. L. Converse, Lakeview, Oregon. 43-4.

Geo. P. Boone returned from Warner first of the week, where he has been riding for T. B. Wakefield.

Harry Roberts, the 7T foreman, spent a couple of days in Lakeview last week, and took in the "shin-dig."

Mr. Thos. Fogerty and Miss Lulu Hill were married at the home of the bride's parents near Alturas Sunday, Nov. 26th.

Felix Allen, one of the proprietors of the Alturas Republican, has sold his interest in the paper to his partner, A. F. Shattell.

Marvin Boone has been under the weather for several days past. He was breaking horses for W. M. Harvey when he took the grippe.

W. H. Shirk says that Frank Light ought to be notified of any approach of a railroad to Lakeview so that he could prepare for its coming. "so, too."

Our bargain counter contains splendid values in seasonable goods. It is our expression of good-will to our friends, on the approval of the holiday season.

ANNA M. NELSON & Co.
The Lakeview Examiner comes to us this week in the form of a 12 page, 6 column paper. The Examiner is progressive, and is one of the best weekly papers in Oregon.—Bieber Gazette.

Mr. John Roush, of Clover Flat, who has been sick for three weeks past, was in town Monday, barely able to move about. Mr. Roush has not been strong for several years, and as age creeps on he feels his afflictions the more.

Willard Duncan was in town first of the week.

J. C. Oliver wants stock to pasture and winter at $1 per month. 40-11.

Joe Dengo, who has been buying sheep in Southern Oregon all fall, has been in Lakeview several days.

The stages coming into Lakeview run on sleighs for two or three days last week, but the snow soon wore out in the roads, and wagons were resumed.

Jim Young, for many years foreman at the Cottonwood sawmill for W. A. Wilshire, has resigned his position and will turn his attention to farming. Mr. Young owns a ranch on the West Side.

Wm. Carter was in town from the West Side Monday. He says the rabbits damaged his alfalfa this winter by digging under the plant and eating it off just below the surface of the ground.

District Attorney W. J. Moore, arrived in the city Sunday from Lakeview to attend the December term of the Circuit Court. After the closing of Court, he will join his wife in Ashland for the winter.—Klamath Republican.

The big ice pond built this fall by Bayley and Stripin above town, is taking on a nice coat of ice. The boys cut the first lot as it was not first-class, before it was very thick, in order to give it a start for better ice. They will get about 50 tons the first cutting.

Mrs. Frank P. Lane gave a delicious Thanksgiving Dinner last Thursday to a number of the relatives of the family. Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Steele and Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Snelling, were those present.

Lost. Binding chain, about 12 feet long, common size, wired together in one place, large lap-rings on one end, hook on the other end, between Lakeview and Mendell's wood camp, about the middle of November. Finder will please return to Marvin Boone, or leave at this office.

W. F. Reed passed through town Tuesday on his way to Medford. Mr. Reed leased his hotel at Bly last summer and moved his family to Medford for the winter. He returned and has been at Paisley and Bly the past two weeks settling up some business matters.—Klamath Republican.

Frank Rogers, who went to the railroad with a band of sheep several months ago, has returned.

Jeff Parrish is said to be creating considerable excitement at Plush over his having suddenly developed into a graceful dancer.

Blanks for final proofs, Desert proofs, timber land final proofs and blank affidavits for applications for readjustments, blank witness affidavits, etc. at The Examiner office.

There was a large crowd ate Thanksgiving dinner at Hotel Lakeview last Thursday, and every one we heard remark about the dinner said it was "simply grand."

Joe Bush and wife, of Paisley, took their departure for Burns last week, where Mr. Bush formerly resided before coming to Paisley about three years ago. Joe and his whistle will be greatly missed from Paisley town.

Every man owes it to himself and his family to master a trade or profession. Read the display advertisement of the six Morse Schools of Telegraphy, in this issue and learn how easily a young man or lady may learn telegraphy and be assured a position. aug 3-4m

Mrs. Geo. W. Johnson and children started below yesterday. Geo. took them as far as Madeline in a private rig, where they will take the train. They will remain in Reno several days visiting Mrs. Johnson's folks, W. D. Woodcock and family, before going to Long Beach, Calif., to spend the winter.

Geo. Ranney brought five head of horses down from the Summer Lake ranch last Friday and delivered them to W. M. Harvey, who bought them a few days before. Mr. Ranney remained in town till Sunday afternoon, when he started for home, going as far as the Rehart ranch in Crooked Creek that evening.

Last Friday Mrs. J. N. Watson and Miss Hall were sleigh riding in Mrs. Watson's cutter, when the black horse became frightened and jumped sideways, running the sleigh into the fence near the Chandler residence on South Water street. Both ladies were thrown out and the horse ran away, and was caught down on Main street. Fortunately, no serious injury resulted from the accident.

The Thanksgiving ball is said to have been a grand social affair, not so very largely attended, but there was enough to have a good time. The music was fine, and it is said by all who partook of the supper at Hotel Lakeview, that it was the best ever spread before a lot of hungry merry-makers in Lakeview. That is saying considerable, too, for there have been some fine suppers spread in this town.
