Create An Emergency First.

Senator John M. Gearin spoke his own views, diplomatically, if not personally, and voiced the sentiments of all Portland, when he stated that the Columbia river appropriation was Oregon's greatest need. Since Portland has proclaimed itself the endowed home of United States Senators this statement will fall upon welcome ears, but is certainly incongruous with the pretended efforts to wean Eastern and Southern Oregon from San Francisco.

There are matters of far greater importance to the portion of the state that is now finding its market in another state. Eastern Oregon's greatest needs are of such a character that legislation at the National capital is its direct source of assistance. The millions of acres of unfilled soil—the best in the state—the millions of acres of valuable agricultural lands tied up in forest reserves that should be thrown open to settlement, and would be, if the best interests of the country were consulted, all tend to keep out railroads, and the absence of adequate transportation facilities is directly charged with the crime, of diverting the vast trade of Eastern and Southern Oregon to San Francisco. Imagine the ten million acres of land in the Lakeview land district and nearly as much in the Burns district that is tributary to San Francisco, owing to conditions that exist to-day, sparsely settled and tied up in useless forest reserves of vast areas being made free to the homeseekers and attractive as well, by deserved attention. How quick would the necessary railroads be built to take the trade of this inland empire to the coast on the Columbia river—say Portland if you please? And how great then would the need be to open that waterway to the sea, and how quick would the Federal government grasp the situation and make such appropriations as were needed to meet the demands of a semi-inland port?

Create an emergency for the opening of the Columbia river and the money will be forthcoming.

State Mineralogist L. E. Aubrey of California, says that the timber land frauds exposed in Oregon and Washington are petty compared with similar frauds now being carried on in California. Hundreds of thousands of acres of timber lands and richest mineral lands in the state are being by the timber grabbers, says Mr. Aubrey. If it is exempt from entry as timber lands, they file mineral location notices on it, take out a patent later and thus forever shut out the prospector and miner. When it is open to entry they file timber locations and swear the land is non-mineral, even where it is known to be rich in minerals, and where there are stamp mills crushing gold ore in the vicinity.

We acknowledge, among our exchanges, the receipt of Vol. 1, No. 1, of the Courier, a new College Journal published by the students of the Monmouth Normal. It is a clean, well edited college journal, and each department is a manifestation of the true school spirit. We predict that it will prove to be an inspiration to concentrated effort and an exponent of high ideals for the guidance of our future pedagogues.

Walter L. Tooze, candidate for congress, has announced in the Oregonian the platform upon which he will stand during the coming campaign.

Christmas at School.

The Christmas exercises at the school Friday afternoon were greatly enjoyed by a large crowd of visitors. The program by Miss Blough's and Miss Snelling's pupils which began promptly at 1 o'clock consisted of recitations, instrumental and vocal music, drills, etc. was well rendered, and shows considerable talent among our young people.

The drill by Miss Snelling's pupils was very pretty and the rollicking song accompaniment added much to the enjoyable features of the afternoon.

The pantomime "Nearer my God to Thee" by three girls in Miss Blough's room was very beautiful, and one of the best numbers on the program.

After the exercises in this room were over the visitors, teachers and pupils descended to Mrs. Cloud's room, where two beautiful Christmas trees were prepared by Miss Hall and Mrs. Cloud to delight the eyes of their little pupils. The teachers put forth every effort to make the afternoon a happy one for their little pupils, and were more than successful, as witnessed by the bright eyes and happy faces of the children, as they marched into the room and beheld the gorgeous trees resplendent in all the fruits of Christmas time.

After a short program which was highly enjoyed by all, "Santa" made his appearance and was greeted by the little ones with the song "Santa has come," after which he proceeded to distribute the gifts to the satisfaction of all, taking care to see that all were treated bountifully, no one slighted in the least.

In all, the school children feel that the teachers have taken great pains to please and give them a happy ending to the first part of the term. The Professors room enjoyed a vacation for the day.

Torture of a Preacher.

The story of the torture of Rev. O. D. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church, of Harpersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough, resulting from the grip. I had to sleep sitting up in bed. I tried many remedies, without relief, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption Coughs and Colds, which entirely cured my cough, and saved me from consumption." A grand cure for diseased conditions of Throat and Lungs. At Lee Beall's, druggist; price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Froze His Hands.

John Mulkey came in from Chandler's sheep ranch in Drews Valley first of the week to have something done for his hands. While out with the sheep a week ago Monday he froze his hands pretty badly, but did not think it amounted to much till the skin began to come off and the hands get raw and painful. John is friendly enough but he don't shake hands with people.
