WEEKLY WEATHER REPORT
Below we give a report of the weather as recorded by the Government weather bureau station at The Examiner Office. This report is changed each week, and if our readers wish to keep a yearly record of weather conditions for future reference, cut out the report along the black line and paste it in a scrap book one week after another. This record will be taken on Tuesday to end each week and begin on Wednesday for the next week.

The Ladies' Outfitters,

Anna M. Neilson & Co., will make for you any garment for women or children, and will make it as well as it can be made. Will make it to please you in every particular. We will do the work promptly, and never allow you to be dissatisfied with any business you may do with us. Every garment shall fit, look well on the wearer, and produce a sense of comfort.

Good Goods, and prices not in any instance, more than we would be willing to pay if you were selling and we were buying, are the principles upon which we expect to succeed.

Our goods are as well worth the money we ask for them, as goods you buy from any catalogue house in San Francisco are. We are ready to prove this, and anxious to meet you for this purpose.

We were a month buying our stock. We searched the city to get exactly what we wanted and would take nothing else. The price had to be right, and we got the full benefit of cash payments. We can, and will treat you as well as you can be treated in buying ANY WHERE, if

Good Farm Sold.

Last Saturday L. G. Thomas, a sheepman, purchased the S. J. Studley ranch 9 miles south of Lakeview, the price being $12,000. The Studley ranch is one of the oldest ranches in the valley, being settled on about 1869 by one of the Cogswells. S. J. Studley has owned the place for several years and has made it one of the best in Lake county. For grain, hay and fruit the place cannot be beat.

Mr. Studley intends to take a trip and if he finds a place that suits him better than Lake county he will sell his stock and other property here and move. Readers of The Examiner may expect to see an item some time in the near future, say probably a year hence, reading something like this: "Mr. S. J. Studley, who sold his ranch near Lakeview some months ago and went to seek a new home in some other locality, has returned to Lakeview, after traveling to his satisfaction, and says he has come back to stay, as he is unable to find any place like Lake county."

Out in 13th Round.

Bob Fitzsimmons, ugly, lank, gladiator "Ruby" Fitz, went down and out in the 13th round in a hard-fought battle with "Philadelphia" Jack O'Brien in San Francisco on the night of December 20th. O'Brien's right name is Joseph P. Hogen, a real estate dealer of Philadelphia.

Wet Again.

After several annual defeats the saloon advocates have won a victory in Ashland. At the recent election in that town the anti-license people failed to elect their mayor and council. It is said that the cause of the defeat of the anti-license is their failure to suppress the "blind pigs."

S. J. Studley was up from the ranch Saturday.

F. M. Duke was up town Saturday from the ranch "looking on."

S. P. Vernon trotted up town Monday and took home a cow to winter.

J. P. Duckworth will buy hides. Call on or address him at Lakeview Oregon.

Don't fail to attend the free lecture at the Opera House tomorrow (Friday) evening.

Isaac Deter was up town Saturday and swelled our bank account a couple of dollars.

Bert and Ralph Tatro started for San Francisco Tuesday morning to spend the winter.

E. K. Henderson and Mr. Stewart of Silver Lake, were in Lakeview a few days last week.

FOR SALE.—Pure-bred Poland China pigs. Inquire of Chas. Oliver of New Pine Creek, Oregon.

Joe Am... was in town last Saturday and subscribed for The Examiner to be sent to his brother in California.

All are invited to attend the free lecture tomorrow (Friday) evening at the Opera House.

Mr. H. E. Durkee of Klamath Falls and Mrs. Thema Coonse of Pine Creek were married in Lakeview last night by Rev. S. Snyder.

Mr. Ralph Feeney will deliver a lecture at the Opera House tomorrow, Friday evening, in the interest of the A. O. U. W.

Bert Harbor, who is to be editor of the "Plush Screamer,"—when it starts—came to town last Sunday to spend Christmas.

J. H. Taunehill has gone to his ranch on the West Side, and will do some carpenter work for the people of that neighborhood while doing homestead duty.

Frank Romer, the 70 ranch foreman, came to town last Friday to spend Christmas. Frank is a good fellow, and no one begrudges him a good time once a year.

WANTED: 10 men in each state to travel, post signs, advertise and leave samples of our goods. Salary $75.00 per month. $3.00 per day for expenses. ROYAL SUPPLY CO.; Dept. W, Atlas Block, Chicago.

Dutch lunch at the Brewery Saloon.

Cedarville is to be incorporated, and put on city airs.

From the flash of "solitaires" about town cupid has been very busy of late.

James Negley of Alturas has been appointed postmaster for that place. He has sold out his blacksmith business.

Something new every day, on our bargain counter. The very best seasonable goods. Anna M. Neilson & Co.

There will be no charge for admission nor collection taken up at the lecture tomorrow evening. It is free for everybody.

S. B. Chandler and C. A. Rehg started for California Tuesday morning, where they will remain several weeks. George Chandler took them to Madeline in a private rig.

Blanks for final proofs, Desert proofs, timber land final proofs and blank affidavits for applications for readvertisements, blank witness' affidavits, etc. at The Examiner office.

L. G. Thomas bought himself a fine, new gold watch for Christmas. He lost a very valuable gold watch in Lakeview last summer, and never heard of it.

S. P. Moss, who fell heir to the Herald plant after the demise of that paper will move the plant on his own lot at his residence and store it away until he gets a chance to dispose of it.

L. B. Moss came to town first of the week to spend Christmas. Lute received a picture of his son, Johnny, who is foreman on a big cattle ranch in Nevada. Lute thinks Johnny is all right; and he is.

The Klamath Falls Express came out last week in a Christmas-Number form, with a beautiful colored cover. It was brilliant, indeed, and shows a desire on the part of Mr. Taylor to serve the people in the most elaborate way.

Alice Roosevelt has received her presents from the customs house, which were presented to her while abroad, and paid the duty on them out of her own money. The duty did not amount to $50,000, as was talked when she returned, but was $1206.

J. I. Melick met with a painful accident recently while handling stock at the ranch. He roped a calf and in some manner, he hardly knew how the little finger of his right hand was caught between the horn of the saddle and the rope and pulled off at the first joint. Mr. Melick came to town to have the hand dressed.

Dutch lunch at the Brewery Saloon.

The steamer Mariposa, which arrived in San Francisco from Tahiti recently brought the news that a rumor is current throughout Tahiti that the United States Government has offered France $4,000,000 for the island.

L. A. Carriker and J. C. Oliver were over from the West Side last Saturday. Mr. Oliver remaining till Sunday. He said he was trying to get out of town to go home, but the man was perfectly sober then, and we could see no reason why an effort to get out of town would result in success.

Post & King received a fine, new piano a few days ago for their saloon. It has an electric attachment which manipulates the instrument, and as soon as some extras that were missing can be shipped from San Francisco their patrons will be treated to some fine music. Post & King are always up to date in the matter of entertainment.

Amos Light has not yet got out of the slang phrases of Lakeview and gets things backwards sometimes. Of course he is young yet, only three. A few days ago when he tried on a new suit of clothes for the first time he was told to go and tell his papa that he was "all swelled up." He tried it, but said: "Oh papa, I am up all swelled."

Some of the inviting features of the Delineator for January, 1906, are, an attractive cover and a display of all that is new in the fashion world; Dr. Grace P. Murray's article on the question of school hours; "Safe Foods and how to get them," by Mary Hinman Abel; Post Master General Cortelyou writing on "Women in the Postal Service."

After the examination at school last week one little 5-year-old was congratulating himself to his mother. He told her that the next examination he would get a hundred. Of course the fond mother was anxious and asked him to explain how he knew, and he said, "well, I got 50 this time, and if I got 50 next time, that will be a hundred, won't it?" and he went away to play, happy.

A. C. Lowell, the pioneer merchant of Fort Bidwell has written an article on Modoc county, which was published in the Alturas Plaindealer last week. Mr. Lowell's article is neither flowery or poetical, but as the Plaindealer man puts it, it is "the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth," which gives it far more value than all the eloquence that could be added to a review of the resources and a general history of a county.
