

MOTHERS

With children to clothe will do well to come here now—Many desirable bargains are now offered to close out several lines of Outing Flannels—Gingham—Vicuna—Calicoes—Dress goods Etc. at much below the regular prices.

Permanent Customers always receives the benefit of our special offerings. New Customers will find sufficient inducement here to become permanent.

This is strictly a Clean Up Sale during which profit is not asked, with little money you can lay in your Needs for the Coming Year.

Bieber's
CASH STORE

PREMIUM CROCKERY COUPONS FREE WITH EACH 25 CENT CASH PURCHASE AT RETAIL.

We Wish to Announce to the TRAVELER

That he can be as well accommodated at the MAMMOTH LIVERY STABLES in Lakeview as he can at any stable in the State. It is our intention to always have on hand a good supply of the best hay and grain to be bought in the market. We also keep a force of experienced hostlers and careful drivers, who will always be ready to wait on our customers.

HERYFORD & DYKEMAN

FEED AND LIVERY STABLE SOUTH LAKEVIEW. C. S. LOVELESS, PROPRIETOR.

I propose to offer the public a stopping place where their horses will be fed and cared for as they would be cared for at home.

I will also keep a team and rig to hire.

AT THE OLD STAND

Our new stock of goods have arrived and is complete in everything usually found in a first-class Drug Store; consisting of Fancy Stationery, Writing Tablets, Spelling Blanks, Pens and Pencils, Ink and Mucilage, Fancy Soaps and Toilet articles, Tooth Brushes, etc.

A. L. THORNTON & CO.
Successor to
LEE BEALL

Lakeview And Vicinity

Dutch lunch at the Brewery Saloon.

Thos. Cloud has been papering his house the past week.

J. P. Duckworth will buy hides. Call on or address him at Lakeview Oregon.

Henry Funk and Dr. W. R. Boyd took a spin down the valley last Sunday in a sleigh.

Ladies' Misses and children's capes, coats and jackets sold at a reduction of 25 per cent at L. M. Co.

Mrs. J. W. Maxwell last week had the misfortune to slip on the ice and fall, badly spraining her wrist.

FOR SALE.—Pure-bred Poland China pigs. Inquire of Chas. Oliver of New Pine Creek, Oregon.

CLOSING OUT
Children's Juliets 85c pair at

Something new every day, on our bargain counter. The very best seasonable goods. Anna M. Nelson & Co.

Alex Fitzpatrick foreman for the Chewaucan Land & Cattle Co., returned from a business trip to San Francisco last week.

Special land agent W. W. Scott, registered at the Hotel Merrill Tuesday and will be in this neighborhood several days.—Merrill Record.

Mrs. T. J. Offield had the misfortune to fall from the steps at the rear of her home last Saturday and dislocate the knee joint.—Merrill Record

Frank Reid, one of the Paisley-Lakeview stage drivers, informs us that there is three feet of snow on the mountain between here and Paisley.

Blanks for final proofs, Desert proofs, timber land final proofs and blank affidavits for applications for readvertisements, blank witness affidavits, etc. at The Examiner office.

The south wind first of last week melted the snow in the roads till sleighing was spoiled, but Saturday night's snow fall put the roads in fine shape again for sleighing.

The Lakeview Examiner last week entered upon its 27th year of usefulness. The Examiner is a good paper and we wish it many years of continued success.—Alturas New Era.

Editor West, of the Silver Lake Oregonian, says, "quite a number of country editors have recently married school teachers." That's a hint to some schoolmarm to follow the fad.

CLOSING OUT
Ladies' $1.25 Kimonos for 75 cent at

The Lakeview Examiner now has its new type setting machine installed, and finds that the matter of setting up type is a small one. We congratulate Bro. Metzker on his push and enterprise.—Alturas New Era.

The Lakeview Examiner is one of the liveliest and most progressive papers of southern Oregon. In conjunction with other first-class machinery, the office is now equipped with a Simplex type setter. The Examiner is worthy of its success.—Alturas Republican.

Dutch lunch at the Brewery Saloon.

The children of Prof. J. L. Smith have been quite sick with whooping cough.

The gentleman who was here a few days ago taking orders for a new map of Oregon and Washington, delivered the goods last week.

The meetings at the Baptist church are still in progress. There has been considerable interest manifested, and several conversions.

Arthur Floreene arrived here Tuesday on the Western stage. Mr. Floreene is traveling for the S. & W. wholesale house of San Francisco.

Wm. Alford moved from Plush last week. Mr. Alford was recently married, and says he is going to buy a ranch and go to work for himself.

Mr. H. E. Barker, stage contractor, who was here last week collecting, said "times must be pretty good in Lakeview. Not a single man has stood me off for his freight bill this time."

CLOSING OUT
Ladies' $2.50 Gowns for $1.25 at

Prof. Jackson, principal of the Silver Lake school, has resigned his position. He has had several nervous spells recently, caused by overwork, and is now confined to his bed with a severe attack.

F. P. Light and J. W. Tucker went to Paisley last week to install the officers of the Paisley Lodge, I. O. O. F. They stopped over a day at the 70 ranch in Chewaucan on account of the storm, on their way home.

The Silver Lake Oregonian reports the killing of a number of sheep from Claud McCall's band by cougars that were driven out of the mountains by the recent storms. Claud McCall and his father killed two of the cougars.

Messrs. E. D. Lutz and S. G. Hadley started north by private conveyance Monday morning. Mr. Lutz will visit his folks in Bellingham, Wash., for a month or more and the "Senator" returns to his home near Earl.—Silver Lake Oregonian.

CLOSING OUT
Children's $1.25 Fur Hats for 65 cents at

Mr. A. H. Barnum came in from the desert last week. He informed us that he recently found a saddle, maccarty and saddle blankets somewhere on the desert. The saddle was a round rig with tapaderos, and from the hair on the blanket he judged had laid been on a black horse.

P. J. Wilson, who was in Lakeview a couple of weeks installing The Examiner's typesetter, spent several days in Alturas on his return to San Francisco. It was thought when he was here that Alturas had great attractions for Mr. Wilson. The turn of events have made it possible that his friends here will get to see him again.

The Alturas New Era and the Republican are having a spat at each other over an article published in the New Era a few weeks ago, which the Republican claims contained numerous mistakes. Now boys, quit your quarrelling; don't you both know that mistakes are liable to creep into the best of newspapers occasionally?

CLOSING OUT
Children's leggings 50c pair at

A. P. Ross, who was in Lakeview several weeks last summer gathering data for the history of seven Oregon counties, including Lake, to be issued by the Western Historical Publishing Co., has finished his labors for that company and purchased the Stevens County (Wash.) Reville and is now engaged in that paper's publication.

A youngster about 7 or 8 years old stepped into The Examiner office one day last week, covered with snow from head to foot and looked like he was half froze. After looking around a minute he said: "I see you have a new typewriter." Are you going to school?" the youngster was asked. "Nop," he replied. "Too stormy to go to school these days, dad won't let me go."

Harry Cannon, agent for the Chico Marble Works arrived here from that place last week. Mr. Cannon tells us he will make his future home in Lakeview, and that his wife is soon to arrive here from Chico. Mr. Cannon says the Sacramento valley is very dry, there having been no rains there this winter up to the time he left there, a month ago.

DEMAND THE BRAND
BOSS OF THE ROAD
OVERALLS
UNION MADE
Newsteadler Bros.
Fuller Center, Oregon

Dutch lunch at the Brewery Saloon.

J. I. Melek came over from Vistillis Tuesday.

A. M. Smith was up from Pine Creek last Thursday.

Frank Wilson was down from Crooked Creek Monday.

Bargains.—Many bargains to be found at Ahlstrom Bros.

Many things sold at half price at Ahlstrom Bros. this week.

W. R. Bernard has leased his West Side ranch to John Noble for three years.

Monday's Southern Stage from Alturas reached Lakeview at 2 o'clock Tuesday morning.

The heavy snow Monday and the rain Monday night broke J. S. Fields butcher shop down.

Quite a deep snow fell at the 70 ranch in Chewaucan Monday, but nearly all went off Monday night with a warm rain.

Born.—In Portland, Jan. 10, 1900, to the wife of Fred D. Jacks a girl, Oregonian. (Mrs. Jacks was formerly Lena Waters.)

W. M. Harvey, who took a bunch of horses to California a few weeks ago, returned last week. Mr. Harvey sold all his horses, but says the market is a little dull.

Bert Lee has bought the wood sawing machine from E. Burke for $175. Mr. Lee will take the machine to his wood ranch in Camas Prairie next summer.

About fifteen inches of snow fell here the first of the week. With the snow that was already on the ground, there was close to two feet, when the rain came and settled it down.

The disease at Davis Creek, thought at first to be diphtheria, but later decided by the physicians at Alturas, after careful examination, to be tonsillitis, is being stamped out.

Geo. Hanan arrived in Lakeview Tuesday, from Sprague river, where he has been gathering horses for Innes Bros. He brought twelve head in and went to Chewaucan with them yesterday.

CLOSING OUT
All dress goods at reduced prices

The Western stage, due here at 8 o'clock in the morning arrived at 3 in the afternoon Tuesday on account of the deep snow. It is said that there is about three feet between here and Bly.

It is said that about two feet of snow fell in Surprise valley last week. About eight inches fell in Lakeview. Paisley was visited by a snowstorm last Friday night which, left about 4 inches of the beautiful on the ground.

J. B. Blair, when he passed through Bend recently on his way to Montana, stated to the Bulletin that he would visit his father in Pendleton, and spend New Year's with the old gentleman, who would be 101 years old on that day.

President Roosevelt sent the nomination of Eph. Miller for postmaster for Lakeview on the 8th, vice Dick J. Wilcox whose term expired some month ago. Mr. Miller has been assistant Post master for three or four years, and will make a good postmaster.

California is to have an electric light and power plant on Feather river which will out-do the Niagara Falls power plant 3 to 1. It is proposed to generate 400,000 horse power at the new plant, and the power will be transmitted all over Sacramento valley and to San Francisco.

In telling about how Claud McCall and his father killed a cougar, the Silver Lake Oregonian gets Mr. McCall in a sort of William Tell episode. The editor says Hayes McCall held the cougar by the tail while Claud shot the beast between the eyes with a 30-30.

Snow began falling early Monday morning and continued all day. The snow was very wet and heavy and piled up on the porches in front of the business houses to such depth that it was feared they would collapse. However, snow shovels were brought into play and the situation was soon relieved.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Schminck returned Saturday evening from a month's visit to Mr. Schminck's parents in Calistoga, Calif. Dolph says his mother's health is better than it has been in years, and Mr. Schminck enjoying good health. He says California looks pretty dry. No rains there until right recently. Mr. and Mrs. Schminck had an enjoyable trip.

Mrs. Perney Taylor left by private conveyance last Monday morning for Portland, where she goes to meet her daughter, a famous New York actress, who will fill a week's engagement at the Marquam Grand theatre the latter part of this month. Mrs. Taylor herself was at one time an actress of note doing roles in many of the plays in vogue, a few years ago in eastern cities and her daughter adopted the mother's calling and has developed into a first-class artist.—Silver Lake Oregonian.

WEEKLY WEATHER REPORT.

Below we give a report of the weather as recorded by the Government weather bureau station at The Examiner Office. This report is changed each week, and if our readers wish to keep a yearly record of weather conditions for future reference, cut out the report along the black line and paste it in a scrap book one week after another. This record will be taken on Tuesday to end each week and begin on Wednesday for the next week. Government Weather Bureau Station at Lakeview, Oregon, C. O. METZKER, Cooperative Observer.

Week ending Tuesday, Jan. 16, 1906

Day	max	min.	precip	sn'w	character of day
wed.	40	36	0.00	00	cloudy
thur.	42	38	0.00	00	"
frid'y	40	39	0.48	4	"
sat'y	42	36	0.50	5	"
sun.	43	34	0.12	1	"
mon.	43	33	0.72	6	"
tues.	39	25	0.76	2	ptcl'dy

The Ladies' Outfitters,

Anna M. Nelson & Co., will make for you any garment for women or children, and will make it as well as it can be made. Will make it to please you in every particular. We will do the work promptly, and never allow you to be dissatisfied with any business you may do with us. Every garment shall fit, look well on the wearer, and produce a sense of comfort.

Good Goods, and prices not in any instance, more than we would be willing to pay if you were selling and we were buying, are the principles upon which we expect to succeed.

Our goods are as well worth the money we ask for them, as goods you buy from any catalogue house in San Francisco are. We are ready to prove this, and anxious to meet you for this purpose.

We were a month buying our stock. We searched the city to get exactly what we wanted and would take nothing else. The price had to be right, and we got the full benefit of cash payments. We can, and will treat you as well as you can be treated in buying ANY WHERE. If

Paisley Pointers.

During the last 24 hours upwards of 6 inches of snow has fallen in Paisley, and it is reported that upwards of 2 feet has fallen at the sawmill. Wont that make the farmers smile. An abundance of water is assured thereby for irrigation.

R. L. Sprague arrived in Paisley Wednesday last to enter partnership with Ainsworth & Withers in the merchandise business. Mr. Sprague is an experienced man in such business. He is a grandson of the late General Sprague of Tacoma.

David Woodward met with a severe injury to his left hand some three weeks ago, while turning the rotary saw in his father's shop, his hand slipped and one finger was badly crushed in the cogwheels. We understand that the wounds are healing rapidly.

Mr. Bert Wirt has been in Paisley for the past ten days for medical treatment.

The events of the week, were the installing of officers in the Masonic, Oddfellows and Woodmen lodges.

The Woodmen installed their officers on Thursday evening the 11th inst. After the installation supper was provided by the ladies of the circle of Woodcraft and dancing was indulged in till a late hour. The officers for the ensuing term are: P. C. C. L. A. Moss, C. C. A. A. Witham, Advisor, F. W. Weidley; Banker, J. J. Moore, Clerk, C. L. Withers, Escort, Jason Elder, Watchman, L. C. Hartlerode Sentry, A. F. Pike, Managers, E. C. Stickle, C. S. Benefield, W. Y. Miller.

D. D. Grand Master F. P. Light and J. W. Tucker came up from Lakeview Thursday, and on Saturday evening installed the following officers in the Oddfellows lodge. N. G. Martin Lauritzen, V. G. C. L. Withers, Secy. A. A. Witham, Treas., M. C. Currier, Warden, F. W. Weidley, Conductor, L. S. Ainsworth, R. S. N. G. Wm. Holder, the balance of the names we did not get.

The installation was public and was made very impressive by D. D. G. M. Light. Supper was served at the hotel Paisley and the occasion was one of great interest and merry making. A dance being in progress in the Farrow hall many of the Oddfellows participated in it.

LEVI STRAUSS & CO'S OVERALLS for men who toil