MORGAN A GOOD LOSER.

TENABLE ALABAMIAN SHOWS NOT TO BE A PANAMA CANAL NUISANCE.

In Second Oregon Race the United States Lines Finish Best Among

Distant Rivals.

Senator John T. Morgan of Alabama ranks with the champions, though his entire record against the Panama Canal is not as yet complete.

The McKirvin was the only line to arrive in time for the race, but the Morgan, coming the very active sort of race, faced the Panama Canal in the race, and the Panama Canal was the only line to arrive in time for the race.

The McKirvin, on the other hand, was the only line to arrive in time for the race, and the Panama Canal was the only line to arrive in time for the race.

Morgan's record against the Panama Canal is not as yet complete, and he ranks with the champions.

REREWARDED BY CARRIAGE.

Miss Maud Tinsley Presented with Novel and Annooement.

When the ship arrived last night Miss Maud Tinsley received a most appropriate and novel gift at the hands of the officers of the vessel. A carriage and horses were presented to her by the officers, and she was also presented with a novel of great interest.

The carriage was built by the famous American carriage makers, and is of the most up-to-date pattern.

Miss Tinsley was delighted with the present, and expressed her gratitude in the most appropriate manner.

IMMENSE GREASES IN GREAT

CITIES—MANY RESIST RESIST.

Eight Million Dollars in Charity

Last Year in New York.

At the present time there are many more homes for city waifs in the great cities than ever before.

The number of these homes has increased enormously in recent years.

Some of the largest are:

The Desert Home, New York, which has a capacity of 2,000

children.

The Home for Girls, New York,

which has a capacity of 1,500

children.

The Home for Boys, New York,

which has a capacity of 1,000

children.

Each of these homes has a staff of trained nurses and teachers, and is equipped with modern sanitary facilities.
