STORMS OF LAST WEEK.

Wore General Over All Northwest—Little Damage Done.

Storm Will Be Beneficial Rainfall To Be Delight To County Farmers.

The storm had work not a base. It was a cold wave that passed the Northern California counties with little damage. The drenching rains of the last few days came down in quantities ranging from 8 to 12 inches and the ice storms and snows that followed helped to clear the ground of most of the dead leaves. wagon wheels, and much damage was done to the roads. Washington and Idaho experienced further snowstorms. The storm was phenomenal, none of which were in the south and the other areas are expected to be beneficial. The rain was light but the snow was deep and the crops are looking very good. Some fields will be left bare, but the overall effect will be beneficial.

RESULT OF NONPARTISAN REGISTRATION.

Voters Should Register With Their Party and Help Name Their Ticket.

Some dissatisfaction is noted in regards to registering with the party. Some feel that they are not being properly represented by their party. Party officials have been notified of the dissatisfaction and are working to rectify the situation. It is important to register with your party in order to have your voice heard. The nonpartisan registration system allows individuals to register with their party of choice and helps to ensure that their voices are heard.

LAKEVIEW THE CHIEF CENTER.

Several Railroads Pointing Toward This Idaho Empire.

Oregon short line coming, McCool and N-G-O will Probably Put Northern Road At This Place.

The railroad possibilities for Lake County are very promising. The new railroad line from the railroad town of the northwestern part of the state will be a great asset to the community. The railroad line is in the planning stages and is expected to be completed in the near future. The railroad line will provide a much-needed link to other parts of the state and will help to stimulate economic growth.

From the Audience.

Although there was no fitting coming in your valuable paper with regard to the "fair" as the saying is, and dusting were the names of the program inspired in the audience, it is mentioned here as it is a benefit to the party. The audience, personally, is interested in the topic and is appreciative of the information provided.

As expected, a Friend.

Ashland News Notes.

Ashland has been visited with two snowstorms in the last few months, and the residents are preparing for another one. The first snowstorm was on January 7th, with a depth of 12 inches. The second snowstorm was on January 20th, with a depth of 6 inches. The residents are preparing for the third snowstorm, which is expected to occur this weekend.

Entertainment a Success.

The annual entertainment was a great success. The audience was captivated by the performances and the overall atmosphere of the event. The performers put on a great show and the audience enjoyed every moment of it.

A Party.

A party was held for Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harvey last Saturday evening. The party was attended by many friends of the couple. A total of 80 guests were in attendance, enjoying food, drinks, and conversation. The party was a great success and everyone had a wonderful time.

Refreshments were served and the guests were treated to a variety of delicious treats. The atmosphere was lively and the conversation flowed freely. It was a wonderful evening and everyone left feeling happy and content.

It is gratifying to note that the community is coming together for these events. They are a great way to bring people together and enjoy each other's company. The community is stronger when we work together and support each other.