

Whitney's Emoluments.

A mistaken idea prevails to some extent as to the emoluments of the State Printer and the practical workings of the office. It is not the big "fat" office it is accused of being.

In the first place the appropriation for "printing" conveys a wrong impression. The biennial appropriation is not for printing alone, but includes also the cost of paper, ruling election supplies and many smaller items, amounting for the biennial period to about $23,000. The last report of the Secretary of State to the Legislature will show these figures to be correct. Then the State Printer must provide his own printing plant and pay all running expenses of the office. The pay rolls alone for the two years exceed $25,000. The Salem Typographical Union can bear out the accuracy of this statement. The cost of material, a limited amount of work done in outside Union offices during a rush in the State Printing Office, rent, power, inks, and a hundred other expenses, adds fully $10,000 more. This makes $58,000 of expenses which the State Printer does not get.

Thus it will be readily seen that when the cost of production of the printing is taken into consideration, the State Printing Office is not all profit. It is just like any other printing business. It costs something to run it.

Criticism has for years been directed at the State Printing Office and it seems that it still continues. The present State Printer has been accused of graft, of dividing the profits of the office with political bosses, and of a further division for the use of the state printing plant. There is absolutely no truth in these statements. I pay $100 per month rental for the plant and no more, which is considered a reasonable rental. I have a lease duly signed to this effect and there has been no division of the office with any person.

The fees paid the State Printer are fixed by law, and every item printed is measured by an expert printer, appointed by the Governor, whose duty it is to measure the printing and affix the amount due as provided by law. Governor Chamberlain appointed to this position Mr. Albert Tozier, a democrat, a practical printer, and secretary of the Oregon Press Association, whose integrity is unquestioned and who has measured all printing done and approved all bills therefor in strict accordance with law. Every bill for printing is also carefully audited by the Secretary of State. Mr. Dunbar is acknowledged to be one of the best officers the state has ever had, and his auditing stamp of approval is sufficient guarantee of honest accounting.

The State Printing Office is a target of attack without just reason. The heavy cost of printing in past years has been chiefly due to the large number of copies printed. This has been reduced by law, and the price now paid by the State for most of the public printing is not above that charged by the printing firms of Portland, and some of it is considerably less. For some classes of work, especially where a large number of copies are required to be printed, the price should be reduced somewhat.

I have given this subject careful study, and believe there are two methods by which the cost of printing could be kept down to minimum. One is to limit the volume of printing and revise the schedule of prices upon an up-to-date basis, the same as that of commercial printing generally. The other is for the State to own and operate its own printing plant, and to pay the State Printer a reasonable flat, fixed salary. Either of these plans or similar plans along these lines, which the Legislature might adopt for the betterment of the service might adopt would meet my hearty support.

My Republicanism will be attested by the people of Linn County, where I formerly edited the Daily and Weekly Herald for twenty years. As a native Oregonian and a printer of twenty-five years' experience, I have endeavored to conduct the State Printing Office in a clean, business-like manner, and as a candidate for a second term, I am willing to stand upon my record. The books of the office are open for inspection.

Willis S. Duniway

For State Printer.

"I hereby pledge the people of Oregon a great reduction of the enormous cost of the office, if elected, and I declare upon my honor that I shall seek neither to perpetuate old abuses of the office nor engage in new schemes to loot the treasury."

Willis S. Duniway.

"Willis S. Duniway is a man of sterling integrity and thorough knowledge of the printing business."—Portland Labor Press.

It is my purpose to be a candidate for nomination as State Printer in the Republican primaries next spring (April 1906). I solicit the support of Republicans generally, and especially do I ask the help of all who want reform in the State printing Office. At present it is the means of extracting large sums of money from the treasury for which the people of Oregon get no equivalent benefit.

If elected, I hereby pledge myself to a great reduction in the enormous cost of the office, and declare upon my honor that I shall seek neither to perpetuate the old abuses of the office nor engage in new schemes to loot the treasury. (And the public may rest assured, if I am elected State Printer, that those who oppose me will take pleasure in helping me keep this pledge.)

The following questions, it seems to me, are proper to ask about a candidate who seeks a Republican nomination:

1. Is he an honest man?
2. Has he the necessary qualifications?
3. Is he a Republican in fact as well as in name?
4. Has he given such service to his party's principles and standard-bearers as to deserve his party's recognition?

Unless the candidate's record will command affirmative answers to these questions, he ought not reasonably to expect favors of the party.

Knowing that I am qualified by years of experience to fill the office of State Printer, and trusting that my personal record will be found satisfactory, I respectfully ask your aid in the coming contest.

Truly Yours,
W. S. Duniway.

For State Treasurer.

I hereby announce myself to the Republican voters of Lake County, Oregon, as a candidate for the nomination for the office of State Treasurer, at the primary election to be held April 20th.

Examine my record as a private citizen, a public official and as an honest and successful business man, and if you can find no good reasons for opposing me, I earnestly solicit your support.

Candidate for Republican Nomination as State Treasurer

JUDGE THOMAS F. RYAN
Of Oregon City.

Born in Rhode Island 46 years ago, Judge Ryan came to Oregon in his 21st year and entered the employ of the Brownsville Woolen Mills Co. at its factory in Brownsville. The following year he went to Oregon City, where he has since resided. He has been elected as Mayor, City Recorder and School Director and Clerk of Oregon City, and for the last seven years has been the County Judge of Clackamas County, in which position he has proven himself to be an exceptional business man, paying off an indebtedness of over $200,000 and at the same time constructing each year many miles of good, improved modern roads, and decreasing the tax levy each year.

In an interview Judge Ryan says: "Being neither President, Cashier or Stockholder in any bank or Agent nor Employee of any Money Lending Institution, I pledge myself to use and guard the funds of the State in a strict conformity to the laws of the State and for the interests of all of the people and not discriminate in favor of any institution or person. As a man of the people, independent of any clique, faction or corporation, I request the support of all Republicans in securing this nomination, and if elected I promise to perform every duty required of the State Treasurer in an efficient and economical manner."

The State Printing Office.

There is, perhaps, no office to be filled at the coming election which is so important to the state from a financial point of view as that of State Printer. The average voter never gives the office a thought, and yet it is the one office of all the state offices where thousands of dollars may be squandered or saved to the taste according to the desire of the incumbent of that office.

The present incumbent, Mr. Whitney, in conducting his campaign for a renomination, justifies his record by saying that he has taken no more than the law allows, and has printed nothing except such as was ordered printed by the Legislature. This looks plausible upon its face, but to those who know the inner workings of the office and the lobbying that has been done to induce the Legislature to order large quantities of work which is of no value to the state, simply to fatten the emoluments of the State Printer, it is known to be a sham and evasive plea, set up to fool the people.

Mr. Whitney does not promise any reform in methods should he receive the nomination and election, and it is fair to presume that he will continue to "take all the law allows," and to see that the law allows everything possible in the way of printing. That is what he conceives to be his right and privilege—that is what he is there for—and he promises no change for the future.

That being the case, it becomes the part of wisdom for the people of the state to see that a man who will promise reform in those methods which have cost the state so much shall be nominated and elected. They have the chance and probably will take advantage of it. Mr. Willis Duniway, a printer of unquestioned ability, a Republican whose party fealty has never wavered, a man whose integrity is above reproach, is asking the people for the nomination for the office of State Printer. He promises that no jobs shall be worked through the Legislature to fatten the fees of his office. He promises a new deal and a square deal to the people, and he should be and probably will be given a chance to show the difference between "all the law allows" and an economical administration of this important office.—The Chronicle. it
