

IT'S UP TO YOU....

Are you going to profit by the opportunity to investigate and satisfy yourself of the advantage? We want you to judge, and believe you will appreciate the goodness of what we are showing this season. You ought to come in anyway and compare the quality and prices, and we will give you full particulars regarding our new lines of Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Groceries, etc.

We are showing a special line of beautiful goods at figures to suit everybody's purse.

BY THE WAY: We have added a complete line of Shelf Hardware to our stock--Another money saver for you.

PREMIUM CROCK-ERY COUPONS FREE WITH EACH 25 CENT CASH PURCHASE AT RETAIL.

FEED AND LIVERY STABLE SOUTH LAKEVIEW. C. S. LOVELESS, PROPRIETOR.

I propose to offer the public a stopping place where their horses will be fed and cared for as they would be cared for at home.

I will also keep a team and rig to hire.

We Wish to Announce to the TRAVELER

That he can be as well accommodated at the MAMMOTH LIVERY STABLES in Lakeview as he can at any stable in the State. It is our intention to always have on hand a good supply of the best hay and grain to be bought in the market. We also keep a force of experienced hostlers and careful drivers, who will always be ready to wait on our customers.

Wm. H. Benedel came over from Bidwell last week. He expects to be about Lakeview for a few weeks.
J. W. Loftus was over from Adel last week. Mr. Loftus has a fine Jack and a bunch of good mares for sale.
Quite a number of the residents are cleaning up the rubbish accumulated about their places during the winter. A good scheme.
Rev. Simmons, new pastor of the Lakeview Baptist church, arrived here recently and has taken up the work in his new field.
The grass on the hills and in the fields is springing up these warm days, and the valley looks good in its new dress of velvety green.
Tom Frowley, the Alturas butcher, was up to Pine Creek first of the week looking for beef. We understand that he bought several small bunches.
E. C. Ahlstrom returned from the railroad Monday night with a four-horse load of merchandise for the Monogram. George Chandler accompanied him.
Geo. Storkman has gone on a trip through Surprise valley and neighboring towns taking orders for Lakeview cigars. The Storkman cigars find ready sale wherever they are placed on the market.
We understand that Mr. Allen, who clerked for J. E. Bernard & son, has gone to Ashland on matrimonial business. He expects to return to Lakeview soon, where he will make his home in the future.
We understand that W. W. Arthur has leased the land formerly held under lease by W. M. Harvey and will run a pasture. Mr. Harvey has decided to devote his attention to buying and shipping horses.
Superintendent J. Q. Willits informs us that the Attorney-General has decided that Friday, April 20th, the day of the primary election is a legal holiday, thus should be observed by business houses and schools.
"Just plain Billie Clarke, printer, that is all," is the way everyone speaks of Wm. J. Clarke, candidate for State Printer on the Republican ticket and whose name heads the list of State Printer candidates to be voted for on primary day, April 20th.
C. E. Campbell, the Paisley sheepman, came down to Lakeview Sunday. Mr. Campbell has bought about 400 head of sheep from J. A. Barham, paying $4.05 per head for them. He says his sheep wintered well and that his loss will be comparatively light.
Mr. H. A. Shampaign, the Roseburg sheep buyer came over from Merrill last week, where he spent most of the winter. He says it is too early to buy sheep, but he expects to buy up some sheep pelts. He informed us that a man from Baker City was now in Warner buying hides. Mr. Shampaign says that all the hay was fed out at Merrill last winter.
Rev. J. H. Howard and family moved to Pine Creek Monday, where he will begin work in the new field. Mr. Howard says he was never treated better than he has been treated in Lakeview, and that his work here has been a source of great pleasure to him. Rev. Howard is a successful man in his chosen pursuit and he has a fine family, and while he is no stranger at Pine Creek, he is sure to draw the people of the State Line town nearer to him as he becomes better acquainted.

Jim Barker, the timber cruiser, went out west last week. He took along snow shoes and was prepared for work in the snow.
A mining man arrived here last week and expects to do considerable prospecting in the hills adjacent to Lakeview the coming spring and summer.
Mark Hartlerode, Clyde Hartlerode and wife and J. E. Harper and wife of Paisley, passed through Lakeview last Saturday on their way to Davis Creek, where Mr. Hartlerode is seriously ill.
Barney Gruman was in from Crooked Creek this week. He informs us that C. A. Rehart is on his way home and is expected in this week. He says Mr. Rehart writes that he had a very serious time of it the past winter.
The stock certificates for the Bunting Telephone & Telegraph Co. were received Tuesday. They are a beautiful design and up to date in every particular. They were ordered from the famous Myself-Rollins Co. through the Examiner.
Jack McDonald and wife have gone to California to live. Mrs. W. M. Marsters accompanied them to Reno where she will meet her husband, who is working there in a railroad shop. Jack went on the southern stage one day ahead of the ladies.
Lee Beall and Dan Malloy came home from Warner last Saturday. Lee says he has been mixing work with pleasure over in Warner. He was on a campaigning tour and helped brand a band of cattle. We do not know which he regarded as the work and which the pleasure.
The Farmers' Mutual Telephone Co., will hold a meeting in Lakeview the 18th of this month for the purpose of completing arrangements for the extension of their telephone system from the S. P. Moss ranch, the present terminus of the line, to Lakeview. Work on the extension will commence at once.
It has always been the purpose of The Examiner to expose graft whenever and wherever it existed. We were reliably informed Tuesday that considerable grafting has been indulged in in Lakeview the past few days. Mr. E. H. Snyder is the perpetrator and unless his operations cease every fruit tree in the town will be a victim of his grafting knife.

WEEKLY WEATHER REPORT.

Below we give a report of the weather as recorded by the Government weather bureau station at the Examiner Office. This report is changed each week, and if our readers wish to keep a yearly record of weather conditions for future reference, cut out the report along the black line and paste it in a scrap book one week after another. This record will be taken on Tuesday to end each week and begin on Wednesday for the next week.

The Ladies' Outfitters.

Anna M. Neilson & Co., will make for you any garment for women or children, and will make it as well as it can be made. Will make it to please you in every particular. We will do the work promptly, and never allow you to be dissatisfied with any business you may do with us. Every garment shall fit, look well on the wearer, and produce a sense of comfort.
Good Goods, and prices not in any instance, more than we would be willing to pay if you were selling and we were buying, are the principles upon which we expect to succeed.
Our goods are as well worth the money we ask for them, as goods you buy from any catalogue house in San Francisco are. We are ready to prove this, and anxious to meet you for this purpose.
We were a month buying our stock. We searched the city to get exactly what we wanted and would take nothing else. The price had to be right, and we got the full benefit of cash payments. We can, and will treat you as well as you can be treated in buying ANY WHERE. If

Read the program for the big race meet to be held in Lakeview during Fourth of July week, when $1450 will be distributed in purses. There will be five days racing. This with the ball games and the big celebration will, no doubt attract many people to Lakeview. As many Eastern people contemplate coming here this summer for an outing and to look at the country, an effort will be made to induce these people to visit Lakeview at that time and learn the ways of Lake county people as well as to see the country. Large posters will be printed for distribution in a few days and a system of advertising will be carried out which insures a success of the occasion.
