LAKEVIEW, OREGON, APR. 22, 1906.

Tomorrow is primary election day. Candidates are as anxious today as participants in a lottery drawing, who of them have opposition for the nominations they aspire to. Many results will be known before some of the readers of The Examiner get to read this issue. We are making no guesses, and have been impartial throughout the campaign leading up to the nominating election, having so absolute faith in the verdict of the voters that little anxiety exists with us as to the results. We are perfectly well satisfied with the manner in which the new law has had its initial trial and hope that all nominations will be a popular voice of the people. The Examiner is ready now to announce that it is willing to stand by the nominees of the Republican party in Lake county and we hope and trust that every Republican in the county feels the same way. Let the majority rule.

We could not name a single nominee, but in advance of the verdict of the Republican voters we are willing to say that every man they will select for the offices are the ones the entire party should be willing to vote for, because a majority of the party has said they are the party's choice by majority.

The Federal grand jury at Portland adjourned on the 10th till after the primary election. They will convene on the 23d and take up the work where they left off. All the indictments and bench warrants were hid in the bible or some place where they are not likely to be found during the recess. No disclosures of the names of parties who have been indicted have been made but it is believed that several prominent men have been caught in the drag-net.

A Washington dispatch to the Oregonian states that a resolution providing for the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people has been favorably acted on by the House committee on elections. The resolution introduced by Mr. Morris of Nebraska, makes the term of Representatives in congress four years instead of two. Both propositions are to be accomplished by amendments to the constitution.

A letter from a former employee of the Oregonian, who is now in Calcutta, India, says that Horace McKinley the escaped land thief, is in Europe enjoying $10,000 that he won at poker while enroute from San Francisco to Hongkong. "Little Egypt" the "chip" that accompanied him, shared in his winnings while they were together. That's the kind of land thieves Mr. Heney lets run at large.

Judge Hunt of Montana who tried the Williamson-Geener-Biggs land fraud cases and who was in Portland several days during the present session of the Federal court has set June 1 as the expiration of the time for the above parties to amend the bill of exceptions which was prepared by A. S. Bennett which Judge Hunt refused to sign.

A bill passed the Senate recently introduced by Senator Fulton giving to Oregon Morton Island, in Snake river for a fish hatchery.

JONATHAN BOURNE, JR.

Republican Candidate for United States Senator.
Champion of Statement One.

Jonathan Bourne, Jr. candidate before the Republican primaries for the nomination of United States Senator in Congress, for the long term commencing March 4, 1907, was born in New Bedford, Mass., February 23 1855; was a member of the class of 1877 at Harvard University; came to Portland May 16, 1878, was a Republican member of the Oregon Legislature in the session of 1885 and the extra session of 1886; was one of Oregon's delegates to the Republican National Convention of 1888, and Oregon's member of the Republican National Committee from 1888 to 1892 and a delegate to the Republican National Convention of 1892, and was elected as a Mitchell Republican to the Oregon Legislature in 1896.

Mr. Bourne has been more prominently identified with the development of the mineral resources of Oregon than any other man in the state, having expended in the last 20 years over $1,000,000 of his own money in the acquisition and development of Oregon mines.

While Mr. Bourne has had his residence and main office at Portland since 1878, he has had another office at New Bedford, Mass., and has carried on the business of his father's estate since 1889, which makes him familiar with many of the large interests and leading men in the East. These qualifications, in conjunction with his tremendous energy, originality, executive ability and experience in business and political affairs pre-eminently qualify him for making an able and influential Senator for the State of Oregon.

Mr. Bourne has always favored extending the direct power of the people over their government as far as possible. He was one of the leading spirits in the Initiative and Referendum movement from 1896 until it was approved by the voters at the June election in 1902. In 1904 he was a member of the executive committee of the Direct Primary Nominations League, and holds the same position with the People's Power League at this time. In all these movements he has been one of the few to guarantee the necessary expense of preparing and proposing their measures to the people.

He says that the choice of United States Senator should be by direct vote of the people, and that the Legislature should be compelled to elect the man the people select. To accomplish this result, he is championing Statement No. 1 of the primary elections law as the only method by which public opinion may be crystallized and made effective upon the Legislature.

In his petition for nomination he says:
"If I am nominated and elected I will, during my term of office, favor:

- Republican Politics.
- Amending National Constitution for People's election of United States Senators.
- Publicity Political Campaign Expenses.
- National Control of corporations in Interstate commerce.
- Rigid Exclusion of Asiatic Coolie Labor; Good Wages Make Good Citizens.
- Legal limitation labor hours for safety on railroads.
- Parcels Post, including rural delivery.
- Pure Food laws. Liberal appropriations for Panama Canal, Coast Defenses, River and Harbor improvements, including Columbia and Willamette rivers, Coos, Yaquina and other Oregon harbors, Celilo canal, Government canal at Oregon City. Fair share of Irrigation fund for Oregon.
- Loyal support of successful candidates. Rigid enforcement Statement One. Roosevelt for second elective term.

I desire that the following statement be printed after my name on the nominating ballot:
"I WILL SUPPORT PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S DETERMINATION THAT JUSTICE BE DONE ALL MEN."

NO TWO MEN ARE ALIKE

There may be a hundred men in this city who have arms the same length as yours—but there is not one other man in the whole county who is the same as yourself in all other proportions.

It is simply an impossibility to get a perfect fitting suit by buying ready-to-wear clothes.

We will make a suit to your measure for $20. You pay that much, or nearly that much for every hand-me-down suit you buy.

Custom-made clothes—store clothes—are turned out by the thousand. They are cut and sewed by machinery.

That is why you have bought suits heretofore that lost their look of newness before you had worn them half a day.

We will make a suit to your measure—for your exclusive wear—that will fit you because it was built for you, and no one else—for $20. We guarantee the cloth to be an all-wool cloth—the cloth is new and vigorous—just off the loom—latest patterns—hand-padded—every seam hand-sewed with silk-lined with imported Venetian cloth.

We have selected several patterns, any of which we will make up to your measure for $20. Unless you express some preference we will mail you a sample of a late English overline pattern. This pattern is so new that it will be sold by tailors next year as the "latest."

The background of the pattern is a deep gray, with an almost imperceptible overline or check. The color of this fabric does not show dirt easily, does not wrinkle and has taken the dye so well that the garment looks like new until it is all worn out. The wool used in weaving this garment was selected with unusual care. There is no short wool in the fabric and no shoddy. The cloth has so fine a weave that it presents a fairly hard surface, and at the same time is soft and pliable. It will not wear up or get shabby. This cloth cannot be bought from the mill for less than $3.50 a yard, no matter if you bought five thousand yards. We are the Pacific Coast representatives of a syndicate of the largest woolen mills in the world. That enables us to make this unprecedented offer of a suit to your measure for $20. Send for a sample—pull it to pieces—see how long and even the wool strands are—note how well the "eye" has set.

Fill out this coupon and mail to us and we will send you a sample of the cloth. We guarantee that the sample is actually cut from the very bolt of cloth from which we make the suit. When you visit Portland, come in and verify this or any assertion we make. If you wish, ask some Portland friend to tell you about the reputation and standing of the Columbia Woolen Mills Co.

It is the simplest thing in the world to have some friend take your measure. We will send you a tape measure free, and instructions how to take a measure for a suit of clothes.

Be sure and send for this sample. If you get a suit from this offer, you will be wearing a garment the pattern of which local dealers cannot possibly get in stock before another year. The pattern of our $20 suit will be sold next year as the latest (by other tailors).
