CHAMPIONED PAUL JONES.

MRS. DOLLY MCLEAN FIGHTS BURIAL OF DAVE McLEAN AT ASHLAND.

A resolution on Paul Jones, the former Governor of the Oregon Territory, was taken up by Mrs. Dolley McLean who proposed to have his remains returned to Asland.

In 1851, Mrs. McLean was born in London, England, and came to the United States when a girl of fourteen years of age. She was married to Mr. McLean, who was a noted abolitionist and worked for the freedom of the negroes. He died in 1865, and Mrs. McLean has been a resident of Asland ever since.

She is the only survivor of the old pioneer families of Asland. She is still active and vigorous, and her energy and enthusiasm are an inspiration to all who know her.

She is now seventy years of age, and she still takes an active part in the affairs of the community.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY.

ALMOST COMPLETE DESTRUCTION OF THE SAINT FRANCIS COLLEGE CAMPUS TO BE ANNOUNCED.

One of the most serious results of the Pacific coast earthquake disaster was the almost complete destruction of the Saint Francis College campus at Stanford, California.

The buildings were all destroyed, and the campus was left in ruins. The only thing that remained was the main building, which was still standing.

Governor Whitney of California, who visited the campus after the earthquake, said that the only thing that remained was the main building, which was still standing.

He expressed the hope that the campus would be renewed.

FIRE VERSUS DYNAMITE.

TIPS OF THE EXPLOSIVE TRICKS AT SAN FRANCISCO TO PREVENT FIRE.

Three men of San Francisco, who are known as the "Fire Fighters," have devised a new method of fighting fires which is said to be effective.

They use a small explosive charge which is placed in the fire and set off with a detonator. The blast is said to be effective in extinguishing the fire.

The men are now giving demonstrations of their method to the public.
