POLITICS IN OREGON.

The Oregonian of the 7th scores Oregon politics. Politics in Oregon have, no doubt been in a pitiable condition, but to right a wrong by one sweep of the oand has never been in the power of man to accomplish. Steadily but surely the evils of factionalism are being rooted out and one by one the counties are laying aside the detestable practise of using the franchise for selfish and personal interests. Lake county has proudly shown its disgust for factional politics by electing a straight ticket. It is disagreeably true that, though strongly Republican, this county gave Chamberlain a plurality, nevertheless. The reasons are too deep to fathom. The voters have shown their disapproval of Chamberlain's policy by voting strongly to approve of the appropriation bill for the liquidation of the State's honest debts, and no sane and reasonable people with a thorough understanding of the measure could be expected to do otherwise, knowing that the State's institutions had a legitimate dependency upon the state, and without legal abolitionism are entitled to support. The new primary law has had its effect in this county, and it is presumed that before another election every particle of factionalism will be wiped out and forgotten, and he who has been chosen by the people as their candidate may safely count upon the support of the party to which he belongs.

We can say with every assurance that not one of the newly elected officers in this county is permeated with factionalism.

It may be said that our Judge is a Democrat; nevertheless, he was nominated by the Republican party and accepted the nomination, thereby qualifying as a Republican candidate.

Some may say and have said, that many Democrats voted the Republican ticket and many Republicans voted the Democratic ticket, but such assertions may easily be traced to a motive of self vindication and resorted to as a manner of consolation.

The insurance companies are not pursuing the liberal course toward burned out San Francisco that was announced they would immediately after the earthquake and fire. Many cases of Shylockism is coming to light. People have gone to the agents for settlement of their claims and have been intimidated with statements that at least a year would be required to adjust matters and as the company had many large claims to pay it was likely that the smaller claims would never be paid, for lack of funds, but if the party was in a hurry, it was possible that settlement could be arranged in this particular case if the claimant was willing to settle for half, or possibly two-thirds. In many cases where applicants were timid, women very often accepted the terms offered, and were thus robbed out of half their just dues. State Insurance Commissioner Wolf has set his foot down on the companies and it is likely that they will have to come to time and rush settlements. The California Legislature in extra session passed an emergency law which practically makes California a receiver of all insurance companies doing business in that state failing to comply with the provisions of the state insurance law.

Although it is a little early to name presidential candidates for 1908, Democrat all over the country are rallying around W. J. Bryan for standard bearer. It is believed that enough states will have proclaimed for Bryan before the time of the National convention to make him the only available candidate, and thereby leaving nothing for the convention to do but ratify the choice, as was the case with Roosevelt at the last national convention. Prominent Democrats, however, have devolved a duty upon the national convention that will no doubt create misgivings in the camps of Bryanites. They insert this clause in the program of the convention, "and to arrange a platform." Mr. Bryan is known to have acted as his own architect, contractor and builder in all his platforms, and now to delegate this most important detail to any of his inferiors will not strike Mr. Bryan as consistent.

The very emphatic approval of the appropriation bill given by the people of Lake county as shown by their recent vote, must not be taken as an indication of their belief that all the normal schools now maintained by the State are useful and should be continued; but, more as an expression of their disapproval of the Governor's method of disestablishing them, or some of them, by starvation. It is now in order for the people to determine whether or not the interests of normal education in the State will be better promoted by disestablishing some of these institutions in a legal or regular way. This we believe the new legislature should do.

The Local Option question was submitted to a number of Oregon counties as a county measure at the recent election. Those counties voting "dry" are Linn, Lane, Yamhill, Tillamook, Wallowa and Benton. About 200 saloons in the state are effected by the local option election in the state. Long drawn out litigation is apt to follow the result of the elimination of saloons in the various counties, as the losses sustained by liquor dealers will aggregate $700,000, a sum sufficient to cause those interested to balk at quietly submitting. The brewers throughout the "dry" portions of the state are said to be more effected than the whiskey dealers.

The people of Lake county did their part toward maintaining the reputation of the state of Oregon by voting to pay the states legitimate bills for the maintaining the public institutions, which appropriation was held up by Governor Chamberlain at the last session of the legislature. Although this county gave Chamberlain a small majority, the voters showed their disapproval of his policy of starving out the state institutions by voting to approve the bill.

Chicago and other Eastern cities are experiencing the annual period of torrid temperature. Many deaths have already occurred and no immediate relief from the oppressive heat is prophesied by the weather bureau officials. Here in Lake county a good warm bed is quite comfortable, and even a fire during the morning and evening can be comfortably tolerated.

The woman suffragists have held a meeting since the election and declare that they are not beaten, but that enfranchisement of women has only been delayed two years. The last time woman suffrage was up for vote by the people the measure was defeated by 2000. This time it was defeated by over 10,000, not a very encouraging outlook for future achievement.

S. A. D. Puter, the notorious Oregon land thief, is again in Multnomah county jail awaiting the action of the federal courts. A move is said to be on foot to have Puter released on bail. Knowing Puter's cunningness and his fee-like ability to get away, the federal authorities would do a very unwise act to release him on bail again.

After many weeks through which the Republicans of the country have been whetting their appetites for Wm. H. Taft for president in 1908, Mr. Taft has announced that he will not be a candidate, preferring to remain at the head of the war department, or he may accept the place offered him on the Supreme Bench.

If Oregon had a few more W. S. U'Rens, and give them the free and unlimited use of the Initiative and Referendum law, there would be no need of a state legislature—unless it would be, in the end, to swoop the whole conglomeration of statutes into the Willamette.

Mr. Bryan ought to come home at once and abandon his tour of the world until after the election of 1908. He could enjoy over two years of happy expectations.

The trial of Binger Hermann has been postponed until next winter. Mr. Hermann may yet manage to serve out his term as congressman.

Henry Watterson, the great politician and publisher of the Courier-Journal of Louisville, Ky. has declared flat footedly for Bryan.

Dr. Withycombe.

The Oregonian has the following to say editorially concerning the defeat of Dr. Withycombe:

"Mr. Withycombe was defeated for Governor, but in defeat appears the real dignity and innate worth of the man. He makes no complaints. He congratulates the victor. He writes cheerful and cordial letters to his fellow Republican candidates who were more successful than he. He warmly thanks all who supported him, and he makes it apparent to the campaign managers that he is perfectly satisfied that everything possible was done for him by them. There are no sore spots with him. He accepts the result gracefully and in the best possible spirit. If there were any who doubted that this man had the right stuff in him to be Governor of Oregon, they cannot doubt it now. He will continue his useful work at the State Agricultural College with the good will of the whole state and with the unreserved confidence of the entire student body of that institution."

Mrs. Mabel Duckworth.

A happy home was broken up last Friday evening when all that was mortal of Mrs. Mabel Duckworth departed from this world to meet its Heavenly Guardian. A fond husband's brightest hopes were shattered in one short moment as the life of one that was most near and dear to him took its flight from the earthly being of his wife, and a little babe three weeks old was left motherless to struggle through life without the fond caresses of a mother to soothe and comfort in times when no other can do as well.

Sad were the hearts of the many friends of John P. Duckworth when they heard of the final summons of his life partner, and in nearly every case the outward expression told the feelings within, and from every lip came the words of sympathy for the bereaved husband and infant babe. "Too bad, indeed, they were a happy couple," was the remark often heard.

Mabel Young was married to John P. Duckworth July 9th, 1904. She was a kind hearted and charming natured girl and a fond and loving wife. Last winter Mrs. Duckworth was baptised into the Baptist Church and was a true christian. About three weeks ago a little girl babe was born to the couple, and Mrs. Duckworth never left her bed. She was 22 years and 23 days old at the time of death. Deceased leaves to mourn their loss, a husband, and infant babe, besides a sister, Mrs. J. W. Kingry, who is now living at Lakeport and a father. Her mother died about a year ago near Willow Ranch, a brother at Willow Ranch and a sister Mrs. Geo. Holmes of Virginia City, Nev., who was present at the funeral.

The remains were held for the arrival of relatives until yesterday, when interment took place in the I. O. O. F. cemetery in the presence of a large circle of friends.

Rev. Smith preached the funeral at the Baptist church at 2 o'clock, which was largely attended.

Harold Everett Moore.

Sad were the friends and distracted were the parents of little Harold Everett Moore when his life was plucked from the tenement of clay to which the Giver had bequeathed it such a short time ago. The Supreme Master has ever overruled the will of man and chosen indiscriminately from the hosts without regard for human feelings. He must know best, else the calling of dear ones from happy homes at what seems most unprepared moments could not be understood as being the will of a just and loving God.

Friends of the bereaved parents sympathize with them in their time of sorrow, and wept with them as they laid their little boy away to rest and sleep and wait their coming.

Rev. Snyder preached the funeral last Friday at the M. E. Church and the remains were put away in the I. O. O. F. cemetery at 2 o'clock.

Card of Thanks.

To the dear and sympathetic friends, who so kindly and untiringly aided us during the sickness and death of our little boy, we wish to extend our heart felt thanks. Words fail to express our appreciation of the love and sympathy which prompted your action in doing all that human hands could do for our darling boy while living, and in making it possible to surround his last resting place with the beautiful flowers, which he so dearly loved.

May this service of love and sympathy soften and tender each heart, and the better prepare us to enjoy the never fading flowers that are blooming in "Yonder World," where we hope to meet our darling boy again.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Moore.

NO TWO MEN ARE ALIKE

There may be a hundred men in this city who have arms the same length as yours—but there is not one other man in the whole county who is the same as yourself in all other proportions.

It is simply an impossibility to get a perfect fitting suit by buying ready-to-wear clothes.

We will make a suit to your measure for $20.

You pay that much, or nearly that much for every hand-me-down suit you buy.

Custom-made clothes—store clothes—are turned out by the thousands. They are cut and sewed by machinery.

This is why you have bought suits heretofore that did not fit you because they were made for you, and not for you.

We guarantee the cloth to be an all-wool cloth—the cloth is new and vigorous—just off the loom—latest patterns—hand-picked—every seam hand-sewed with silk—lined with imported Venetian cloth.

We have selected several patterns, any of which we will make up to your measure for $20. Unless you express some preference we will mail you a sample of a late English overline pattern. This pattern is so new that it will be sold by tailors next year as the "latest."

The background of the pattern is a deep gray, with an almost imperceptible overline of check. The color of this fabric does not show dirt easily, does not wrinkle and has taken the dye so well that the garment looks like new until it is all worn out. The wool used in weaving this garment was selected with unusual care. There is no short wool in the fabric and no shoddy. The cloth has so fine a weave that it presents a fairly hard surface, and at the same time is soft and pliable. It will not scuff up or get shaggy. This cloth cannot be bought from the mill for less than $3.50 a yard, no matter if you bought five thousand yards. We are the Pacific Coast representatives of a syndicate of the largest woolen mills in the world. Just enable us to make this unprecedented offer of a suit to your measure for $20. Send for a sample—pull it to pieces—see how long and even the wool strands are—note how well the dye has set.

Fill out this coupon and mail to us and we will send you a sample of the cloth. We guarantee that the sample is actually cut from the very bolt of cloth from which we make the suit. When you visit Portland, come in and verify this or any assertion we make. If you wish, ask some Portland friend to tell you about the reputation and standing of the Columbia Woolen Mills Co.

It is the simplest thing in the world to have some friend take your measure. We will send you a tape measure free, and instructions how to take a measure for a suit of clothes.

Be sure and send for this sample. If you get a suit from this offer, you will be wearing a garment the pattern of which local dealers cannot possibly get in stock before another year. The pattern of our $20 suit will be sold next year as the latest (by other tailors).
