Dutch lunch at the Brewery Saloon.

A. M. Hardisty was in town Tuesday from Crooked Creek.

Bert Lapham was over from the Barnes valley country Monday.

Born. At Crooked Creek, Lake County, Oregon, June 11, 1906, to the wife of A. M. Hardisty, a girl.

The report circulated last week that A. Amick had sold his residence property in Pine Creek is said to be a mistake.

Mrs. J. C. Hall and son of Medford, sister-in-law and nephew of Dr. and Miss Hall of this place, are here on a visit. Dr. Hall went to Bly Monday to meet them, returning here Tuesday evening.

F. M. Duke returned Monday evening from Madeline, where he went with T. E. Bernard after a car load of buggies for J. E. Bernard & Son. Only half the carload was at Madeline so they had to come back with a part of a load.

Messrs. McClary & Shauer made a deal with E. C. Stickle Monday for the construction of a fine brick building in New Pine Creek. Other brick buildings will follow, and ere long our near neighbor town will loom up among cities.

L. G. Thomas finished shearing his sheep Tuesday at the Mulkey corrals, and the crew commenced on Pete Grob's sheep yesterday. There are seventeen shearers at work at these pens. They are said to be the best outfit of shearers ever in the country. Mr. Thomas says the feed is fine out there.

T. E. Bernard and F. M. Duke, who returned from the railroad Monday, both say that rapid progress is being made on the N. C. O. extension North from Madeline. Over a mile and a half is now ready for the rails. Mr. Bernard says it won't be but 3 or 4 months till trains are running to Likely.

The Lakeview base ball team will go to Paisley Saturday to take part in the ball tournament there on Sunday. The Silver Lake team will be there and good games are looked for. It would be nice to get up a big crowd and visit our neighbor, and it would prove to them our appreciation of their visits here.

Dr. Anna Shaw, the exponent of woman suffrage, at a meeting in Portland the other night, just before starting for her Eastern home after a hard fought and unsuccessful battle with the voters of Oregon, in her words of encouragement to the Oregon colleagues, uttered as a parting metaphor "Do not lose faith in humanity and hope for the ultimate civilization of men."

R. D. Maplesden has finished his canvass of the county and those who wish to order fruit trees from the Oregon Nursery Co., can send their order to Mr. Maplesden at 123 Linda Ave., Oakland, California, and their order will receive the same prompt attention that Mr. Maplesden would give it were he here to take the order. Mr. Maplesden announces that he has done an exceptionally good business in this county this spring and will bring in the finest lot of nursery stock this fall ever brought to the county.

Shaniko has been well represented the past few days by prominent sheep buyers who have made extensive purchases in this sheep belt and are now here waiting for the time to receive the sheep. The buyers who are now in the city are J. W. Blake, W. J. Marsh and A. C. Kitching of Wyoming, and J. F. Asher of Wheeler county, Oregon. These gentlemen have probably purchased in the neighborhood of 100,000 head of sheep this spring in Wasco, Crook and Wheeler counties. The most of these sheep were yearlings, bringing prices ranging from $2.75 to $3.20 per head.—Shaniko Republican.

Love Men After All.

Quite a different atmosphere prevailed at a woman's meeting held in St. Paul the next day after the election in Oregon showing woman's suffrage to that which has heretofore characterized such meetings. Following is a brief account of the meeting, as published in the Oregonian:

"After seven days of jests at man's expense, seven days of ironic epigrams, patronizing quips, satiric paradoxes and scathing denunciations, a profession of affection was made today at the convention of Federated Women's Clubs, which is in session in this city. Man has been rebuked for his monopoly of the ballot, laughed at for his frivolous instincts, rebuked for his impotent legislation. Gentle bits of innuendo have even hinted that he ought to be classed with the lower animals. But at last the truth has leaked out in spite of everything—the clubwomen really dote upon man.

The revelation occurred at a conference upon legislation held this afternoon and Mrs. Alice Bradford Arles, of Chicago provoked the touching scene. She arose in some indignation to protest against caustic words applied to masculinity by several rampant suffragists and in a moment the meeting was stamped.

Rev. Mary Andrews, of Omaha, also sprang to her feet to proclaim from the housetops a penchant for the opposite sex, and many others would have hastened to the confessional if the chairman had not adjourned the meeting.

This sentimental climax was provoked by a debate upon woman's right to vote. The conference was crowded with exponents of the suffragist cause and the meeting suddenly jumped the track of corrective legislation to plow through the ditch of political equality. Discussion of Susan B. Anthony's creed ran high and the injustice of man's monopoly of the polls was pointed out vigorously.

It was the word "selfishness," used by Rev. Mary G. Andrews in commenting upon the dower laws of her state, that caused Mrs. Arles to assert herself.

"I wish to object to the description of men as selfish," she declared firmly. "It is a fact of world-wide recognition that American men are the most unselfish in the world. They are good and kind and generous. In my opinion they are more unselfish than the women. The property rights in my own state, Illinois, are much more fair to the wife than they are to the husband. We have also placed laws safeguarding our girls, which cause me to have some misgivings about the dangers to which they subject our boys. All the matters we are discussing will be remedied in one way or another, according to local conditions, and woman's suffrage will not make so very much difference."

When the applause and commotion died away, Rev. Mary G. Andrews was demanding the floor.

"I throw slurs at men? Never," she declared. "I adore men, I dote upon men. We could not get along without them."

After these two outbursts the suffragists subsided.

Card of Thanks.

For the many acts of sincere kindness which I have received at the hands of my friends during my sad misfortune I wish to express my heartfelt appreciation in the strongest terms words can convey. Those friends who so tenderly and lovingly administered to the sufferings of my wife and little babe have endeared themselves to me and shown that a "friend in need is a friend indeed."

Not only do I thank those dear friends from the bottom of my heart for their acts of true kindness in the last hours and after death toward my wife, but I shall ever pray for the almighty to reward them with blessings beyond my power to bestow.

New Books Arrive.

Lakeview has much to be proud of as an interior town, but her proudest boast is the Lakeview Library and Public Reading Room.

There isn't a town anywhere the size of Lakeview that can show such a laudable institution, well equipped and well managed. The people of the town have learned to fully appreciate this and patronize it liberally. During the past year sixty Library cards were sold. This year many more should be taken as many books have been added. The Library now contains four hundred volumes. The following list of books have just been received:

Simple Life, The Better Way, Around the World With Grant, How Marcus Whitman Saved Oregon, Boys of other Countries, We Two Alone in Europe, Paul B. DuChailu Works, 2 Vol., Studies in the South and West, Travels in the East, Little Journeys to Every Land, Pole Baker, Unleavened Bread, Undercurrent, Thaddeus of Warsaw, Childs Garden of Versus, The Silent Places, The Blasted Trail, Rollo in London, Rollo in Holland, Rollo on the Rhine, Rollo on the Atlantic, Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch, Sandy, The Pit, The Octopus, The Daughter of an Empress, Jan of the Windmill, Greek Heroes, Prince of the House of David, Swiss Family Robinson, The Spenders, The Castaway, In the Country God Forgot, Fredrick the Great, Four Chautauqu Girls, Chautauqu Girls at Home, Polly Oliver's Problem, The Leopard's Spots, Soldiers of Fortune, Hon. Peter Sterling, Evolution of Dodd, Excelsior Edition, Standard 5 vol., The Prisoner of Zenda, Rupert of Hentzen, American Teachers, S. S. Bible.

Ayer's Hair Vigor
Sometimes the hair is not properly nourished. It suffers for food, starves. Then it falls out, turns prematurely gray. Ayer's Hair Vigor is a hair food. It feeds, nourishes. The hair stops falling, grows long and heavy, and all dandruff disappears.
"My hair was coming out terribly. I was almost afraid to comb it. But Ayer's Hair Vigor promptly stopped the falling, and also restored the natural color."
