THE GLORY OF TEXAS.

CELEBRATION OF HER SEVEN-TIETH ANNIVERSARY OF INDEPENDENCE.

Every Defender of the Alamo was Slain Characteristic Messago of Old General Houston to Mexican General Santa Ana.

The State of Texas, born some sixty rears too late to assist in the revoludonary events of '76, has its own Independence day in addition to the national Fourth of July, which it shares, however, with its sister states. This patriotic state celebration occurred on April 21, the seventieth anniversary of the fight at the San Jacinto, where 800 Texans gave double their number of Mexicans one of the completest drubbings in military history.

Every schoolboy knows the story of San Jacinto as told in the books. But there is in the Southwest a fire-side tale about it which deserves to be better known. It is that the night before the battle, the Mexican general, Santa Ana, sent a flag of truce to the Texau camp with a summons to surrende and an offer of pardon. Grim old Sam Houston, the "father" of Texas, heard the message and said to one of his

"Tell him to go to hell! Put that into Spanish." And the aid, trans-lating the answer into the language of Spanish military diplomacy, made or ation as it appears in the books:

"General Houston prays that you compliments to General Santa Ana, inform him that General Houston regrets to be constrained to reply that if General Santa Ana desires our com-pany it will be necessary for him to condescend to give himself the trouble of coming and getting us."

The biggest celebration of San Jacinto day was at San Antonio, for there is the Alamo, and there was the fight which came before San Jacinto and turned the blood of every Texan engaged to fire and his nerves to cold

The defenders of the Alamo, though bound by no law like those of Thermopylae, disdained to surrender. They knew too well, from the fate of Nolan and his hunters a generation before | began to work for himself. Despite his prisoners, the character of their foes.

For twelve days they held their post against thirty times their number and How they died-how Travis fell across the cannon-how Davie Crockett lay in the courtyard in a ring of foes-how the intropld Bowle, the in-venter of the terrible bowle knife, fought to the end on the bed from which he could not rise how not one man, by the testimony of their enemies, even tried to escape-how the half dozen that were overpowered and disarmed were then cut down-is a tale with which the world still rings and will ring so long as dauntless courage

It was a deed from which no man among its Texan doers came to tell the tale. It is a tale whose truth is assured by the fact that it could be told only by the victors whose shame it was, and not by the vanquished whose glory it was. It ranks above Ther-mopylae in the annals of manly fortitude. As has been well said: "Ther-then they died, still fighting.

ORDERED BY GOVERNMENT. have concealed it, but with a woman's skill she extracted it from him. Then

Little Italy has two mysteries cleared up, and breathes more freely. One is why Angelino Pascalini worked so hard and spent so little, and the other is why Angelino Pascalini always insisted on seeing the papers that are printed in English, which ian-guage everybody knew Angelino could not read. Angelino is now married and the two mysteries deal with this marriage.

In order that it may be known who Angelino is, let it be stated that he hailed from Genoa, in Big Italy—from Genoa where the sun shines brightly and the sky is tinted blue and red; where men work slowly and live easily, the money was a support that the state of the sky is the state of the sky is tinted blue and red; the money is very scarce. In the course of the eighteen years which had rolled over Angelino's head before a far-seeing padrone packed him into the steerage of a very uncertain ship and sent him sailing over the hilly water to America, it may be coubted if Angelino had seen altogether of his own as much money as the equivalent of five dollars. Nevertheless, he had been happy in Genoa until he met Nina-Nina, whose mother came from

After he met Nina, by his own acount, Angelino was no longer happy. He realized then how very poor he was, and how far away was marriage with Nina. He worked as hard as he could, and ate even more sparingly than was the wont of his countrymen of the black bread and garile, and drank less of the bitter red wine. Nevertheless, his hoard increased but slowly, and Angelino grew desperate. He sought Nina, and told her of the padrone. He would go to America. "General Houston prays that you She looked at him wonderingly with will have the kindness to present his her big black eyes, and promised to > Angelino, having made his adieus and stuck one last candle under the portrait of his patron saint, went away to America.

His welcome in this country dis pleased Angelia. He liked ice and snow little, but the jeers of the people He liked ice and he liked even less. True, the land was discovered by one of his countrymen, named Columbus, four hundred years before. But Angelino did not know this, and it would not have made much difference if he had. Those who had profited by Columbus' discovery disliked Columbus' countrymen, and Angelino was made to suffer their dis-

However, he work u on railroads, and in other way, until his debt to the padrone was paid, and then he grew rich but slowly. Twice a year he wrote to Nina, bidding her wait. He had at length secured a bootblack stand of his own, and was a free man. But Nina, in far-away Genoa, had no desire to wait. She had already waited too long, by her own calculation, and wanted to come to America and wed her Angelino. She wrote to Filadelphia, as the name is spelled in Genoa, and told Angelino that life was short, and that it was wise to make the most of it while it lasted. There is no real way to lengthen it out, though Nina didn't say so in those words: probably that is how she left.

words: probably that is how she left. At all events, Nina, who had become a ady's maid in Genoa, eventually had the opportunity to come to America with her patroness; and so she came,

Angelino hadn't expected her, and when she arrived he had $49 in the place of employment, while Angelino

See that-that's Binnick-old Bin-

Angelino knew old Binnick. " He got Angelino asked no more. Here was fresh complication. What if his him anxiety. Nevertheless he knew the Government was omnipotent, and that if it ordered him to marry, marry its uncertain yellow light over the rear wall; but, poor as the light was Nina observed, when Angelino entered, that his swarthy countenance was wer than she had ever known it since the day he embarked for America. And she then knev he h... read the lis What if he had learned her perfidy? What if after all he was not deceived? Nina realized now, for the first time, that she had wagered everything on a single cast of the die, and might lose, and went to meet her Angelino. She smiled and held out her arms. Angel-ino looked at her soberly and kissed her almost fearfully; but even as he bent forward she saw the white Eng-lish newspaper in his pocket.

matrimony.

They sat on the bench on the back dlent and anxious.

paper from his pocket. "Do not blame me, Nina," he almost sobbed, "but—it has come!"
"You babe," cried Nina: "blame you, courage. Perhaps the Government, she suggested, did not even know of their existence. There were so many people in the great city, and how people in the great city, and how could the authoritie; keep track of them all, she said. Angelino took hops and went back to his work.

levery day he sought the paper and read the list of marriage licenses, breathing freely when he found his name was not among them.

But Nina, whose mother came from Spain, thought of the list, too. Only, at the City Hail. Nina asked no more received the ornate document author-

"Be brave."

What can it mean?"
"Can you bear it, knowing we have so little money?" cried Angelino in torment. "It means that the Governnent has ordered us to marry." Nina was silent. Then she arose, and, turning her eyes upon Angelino, looked into his eyes with the light of a conscious courage. "It is the will of he Heavenly Father,' she cried. "We nust submit." It was still early the next day when lina hastened to the church and handed the paper with the gorgeous print to the reverend father. And that very month, after the bans had all been said. Angelino and Nina were married, Heir to Russian Throne.

though they had far less than $100, and now have even less than they had

But they are happy .- Philadel-

A portrait of the son and heir of the was to save up his earnings. When the latter should have grown to $100 it was determined they should marr Czar of Russia recently made public seems to belie the statements issued from abroad that the infant Czarevitch -not before. She, too, saved her wages, and Angelino blacked boots and is a deaf mute and an idot. The baby dreamt of the $100 still far away. One day a big, red-faced American, who boarded in the hotel at the corner, sat prince is unusually bright and has never had a day's illness in his 22 months of existence, though many down in Angelino's chair to have his boots blacked, and read the paper while Angelino worked. All at once papers have often reported him as being in an extremely critical condition. Czarevitch Alexis, as he is officially the big, fat American began to laugh and then roar. Angelino looked up in surprise and gazed at him.

"That beats all," said the American fortunes of Russia during the war aloud. "Binnick going to mar y. Ha, ha. He's old enough to eat hay."

Angelino being interested in anything Russian government has passed, the Russian government has passed, the that related to marriage, asked in his broken way what was the cause of infant who will some day succeed to the merriment. The customer pointed the throne of the Russian government, has thriven in adversity. The accompanying portrait was taken at the Russian Palace at the express wish of nick, that keeps the paint store. And the Empress, he's going to get married. You know old Binnick?"

Fond Memories.

A hard-headed old Pittsburgh manufacturer who made his fortune, as he expresses it, "with his coat off," was induced by his daughters to accompany them to a Wagner concert, the first he had ever attended. The next day he happened to meet an acquaintance who had seen him the night before, who asked:

last night, Mr. Brown?"

"Ah, summer days in the country, girl in a lawn dress, birds singing and all that?"

boller shop in Scranton."-Success.

money or not. On Sunday he visited Nina, who noticed his abstraction and asked the reason. Angelino would be the River of the River of

LINGERIE FASHIONS IN LEAD.

Privolous Coats of All Sorts Which are Considered Just the Thing. By MARTHA DEAN.

Lingerie fashions have quite taken the world of fashion by storm and made the craft of the dress cleaner an important business of the day. It is due largely to the evolution of the original "tub" frock into most elaborate creations. Everything in the wardrobe may belong to this class except, perhaps, footwear and gloves.

The little French girl is finding her unlike Angelino, she sought an ex-planation from her employer, who was one of the Italian consular officials, He told her that in America people to handiwork at the top of the scale just now, though little good it does her for it is the modiste, her employer, who get married must h ve licenses, and that to get licenses they must apply profits by the fashion for hand em-broidery. Handwork is the keynote of A short time afterward Nina, who had studied and asl d questions, and learned that marriage licenses could being made by hand so that sewing lish and French Garden;" Haw-machines play little part in the making of a gown. This means, to be sure. Thoreau's "Walden." There is also be had at the great building by the railroad station, by any one old enough that fashionable gowns cost moneyto marry who could convince the Government that all w a right, arrayed lingeric blouses alone selling at $40 herself in her most precious goods and and up when hand-made. With the raiment, all from Genoa, and with a thin materials in use, machine sewing friend who spoke English she went to the City Hall; and there she at length is often out of the question.

Among the materials provided for lingerie frocks are handkerchief linen, izing her and Angelino to be joined in batiste, embroidered Swisses, cotton chiffon voiles, and a host of others, Nina went back to her employer's while for trimming the Irish crochet house and her mistress and those others who saw her observed that she was radiant, but very mient and very and Valenciennes laces are still most little documents. popular. Besides these there are the thoughtful all that day.

It was late the evening that there came a timid knock at the back gate, and Nina, whose hear could not keep still, sent one of the other servants to open it. A flicke, ng gas jet shed its uncertain vellow light over the rear Venetian lace galloons, the embroidered Swiss galloons, insertion and medallions, Irish crochet motives that may be bought separately, and a great variety of embroidered linen novelties

which may be had to trim these gowns. One of the most attractive uses to which these laces have been put is for the making of the little jackets of all sorts which are to garnish summer frocks and lingerle walsts on nice occasions during the summ r. These little jackets are for the most part of much abbreviated Eton length with flowing sleeves terminating above the elbow, or in long box or Pony shape. Such There was a sudden pressure at her garments of lace and embroidery are heart, as if it would .urst. But in an very dressy little affairs costing any instant she regained her self-control where from $8 to $100, while some very dressy little affairs costing anysimpler ones of lawn and Valenciennes come as low as $2.25. The latter may be tubbed like the lingerie blouse while the finer lace ones require the more careful handling of the expert cleaner.

Many of these jackets are so elaborporch and talked, or rather Nina ate as to beggar description and espe-talked, for Angelino was silent and thoughtful. At last a too, became which would seem to be as important as the out-of-door wrap by its frequent At length Angelino unfolded her arms and with a deep sigh arew the saper from his pocket. "Do not gowns. This garment runs the whole gowns. This garment runs the whole gamut of possible shapes. It is made usually without sleeves and resembles a jacket only in having armholes. In Angelino slowly unfolded the paper and at length found the little list at the bottom. He laid it out on his hand before Nina. "There," he said, "there it is, read, my Nina."

"But short-waisted gowns which suggest the modes of the Empire, these little jackets often act as garnishment for girdle and waist and usually fasten at the back. They are made of silk daintily embroidered with metal and for what am I to blame you, my the short-waisted gowns which sug-child?" gest the modes of the Empire, these "But," protested she sweetly. "You and silk and bordered with velvet and know, my babe, that I cannot read the lace. Shoulders are broad but not exaggerated. Many of the Etons, bol-You can read this," said Angelino. eros and short, hip-length jackets are made up of frills, plaited or shirred; "Your name," she said, "and mine. lapels straight or falling into ripples; embroidery, buttons, bows and lace all gathered into a harmonious and captivating whole. Then, too, there are little mantels of nameless variety and shape that just cover the shoulders, reaching barely to the elbow and mostly of cloth, for wear with smart silk gowns. Dressy cloth costumes demand jackets of silk.

Bents Carnegie's Spelling. "Saylil," exclaimed the girl at the handkerchief counter. "Wotsmatter now?" asked the girl at the ribbon counter. "Aintchoogittin nuftoet?"

"Wojjaskin thatfur?"

"Yooralookinkina thin." "Aintneether."

"Yartoo. Betterficksher back hair. Scummin down.

"Quitcherrubberin. Mine jeroan biz."

'Saylil.' "Saycherseff."

"Jevvergitcherforchun told?" "Yeh-wunsertwice. Ever gitchoors?

"Yeh. Ootole juh?" "Erdkitsmith sayinso. Cumtroo?" 'Notchett.'

"Thinkitwill?" "Lykaznot, Leschoone fit does."

"Sayjen, Juno Kittenbills keepin-cumpny? "Awka moff."

"Troo sima stannineer."

"Howjeerit?" "Sallright. Yooleerabout it soonuff.

Sayjen, canchooketch on—"
"Say, there, you girls." interrupted the floorwalker, "Go back to your customers."

HINTS FOR YOUNG GARDENERS

Boston Public Library Trustees Issue a Valuable Free Pamphlet. For the purpose of assisting amateur gardeners, and especially boys and girls who, at this season begin to feel an interest in plants and flowers, the trustees of the Boston Public Library have printed a little book for free distribution. It is called " A Brief List of Books About Gardening." Its contents are classified under the heads of "The Making and Care of a Garden," magazines that are to be seen in the li-brary which are devoted especially to gardens: a collection of books containing descriptions by famous writers such as Homer's "Greek Garden," from "The Odyssey;" Pliny's "Tusculan lingerie fashions, all costly garments Garden;" Sir Francis Bacon's "Enga list of books which give information about school gardens, outdoor art, agriculture for beginner., "nature study" and publications of the United States Department of Agriculture. Most of the publications of the department can be had free upon application to Secretary Wilson at Washington, and several of the school garden series very interesting and attractive

Washington No Place To Die.

While in Washington on her last visit Sarab Fernhardt commented upon the tendency to run the nation's capital in the puritan blue law fashion that has gone out of style nearly everywhere else. She said that in many respects Washington is more beautiful than Paris. "But," said Sarah, "why do you make of your beautiful capital a country village? You have no amusements here—no gardens, no places where the workingmen can go on Sunday or in the evenings. At midnight everything is closed. It is then that Paris wakes. I would rather not die in Washington. It is not a place for even so hilarious

The Bear and Thesis, ships used in the Greely polar relief expedition, are still in the service of the United States as revenue cutters.

"They say Mrs. Krankley makes regular dolls of her daughters. "Well, it's true. She fairly staffs them with breakfast food.

nor we do the largest watch node of wanches every week, sainer C. O. D., embject to a cent deposit in advance. A GENUINE 21 JEWELED 375 $50.00 GOLD WATCH. GUARANTEED FOR 25 YEARS

SENT ON APPROVAL STRAIGHT LEGS

Our stylish and easy Forms give the legs perfect shape. The iroteers hang straight and trim. Fot on or off in a moment, tropossible to detect, itexpendere, durable give style, finish and comfort. We send them on trial. Write for brist, Write for photo-il-justrated book and proofs mailed free and senied. ALISON CO., Dept. He, Buffalo, N. Y. PETTICOATAND CORSET

E. D. LORIMER & CO., M 546 Broadway, New York

$3.78 BUYS A Railroadman's WATCH. A vest

PALISADE PATTERNS.

A MODISH SHIRT BLOUSE.

The trend of fashion is toward the tailor made with its elegant simplicity of lines, and the elect of society will find the tailor a most important factor from now on. Everything except evening and house gowns must have the smart, neat finish of this master artist. Here is one of the latest modes in a separate shirt blouse which is a stunning example of the new mode. Crash or linen may serve as material and the bottom adornment be used or not. A fanciful yoke appears in front and or not. A fanciful yoke appears in front and back, continuing along the closing in stole fashion. A small applied pocket lends a jaunty air decidedly smart. White flancel, linen, taffetas or broadcloth, as well as any other plain material which possesses the qualities necessary to tailoring may some. For the medium steers

8 yas	8 yards of 36-inch goods are needed.  6484—Sizes, 32 to 42 inches bust measure.
	LISADE PATTERN CO., 17 Battery Place, New York City. For 10 cents enclosed please send patte 6434 to the following address:
SIZ	B
NA	de
ADI	DRESS
CIT	Y and STATE

Number 6434

PRICE, 10 CENTS EACH.

SEND NO MONEY—WE PAY THE FREIGHT

We will gladly send you as a present one of our Beautiful Dinner Sets, guaranteed full size, for family use, high-grade porcelain (no cheap imitation), floral design, chaste and pretty with edges traced in gold, the kind that is all the rage in fashionable New York, if you will help us introduce our Standard Baking Powder, Teas, Coffees, Spices, Flavoring Extracts. Scaps and Tollet Articles, All our goods are pure—no trash; they have been tried and tested by experts and give satisfaction. We want your influence and help and you do not need to send us a cent of your money. Other firms may have tried to convince you that their offers were liberal but we know that our offers, goods and premiums are better than any there you have ever seen, because they have been put alongside of ours and have been declared so by competent judges, by people who know. We can easily prove this to you if you will drop us a line, just a postal card if you like, so that we can send you a full description of our plans and many other really valuable things which you may keep for yourself, no matter whether you ever do a cent's worth of business with us, or not. You will be paid over and over again for your little trouble.

WE WILL SEND YOU ALMOST ANYTHING ELSE YOU WANT such as Lamps, Furniture, Silverware, Curtains, Trunks—in fact there is no reason why you should not completely furnish your house or clothe yourself without a cent of expense, by helping us "o introduce the "Curweil Plan" of doing business.

We want to be fair and square with you and if after you receive the Dinner Set, you find it is not exactly as represented, you may keep it and not do another thing for us. That's the kind of people we are.

You will be surprised to find how easy it is for you to take orders for these necessary household goods because we allow you to give free with every pound can of Baking Poweder a handsome T-lice Class Lemonado Set, a 10-quart high-grade gray ensured Granite Pall. a Horocoo Leather Cifcon Bible, a Carving Set in ease, or many other valuable presents. If you take orders for only ten of these packages you get a beautiful Dinner Set for yourself in addition. The goods and Premiums are all shipped at the same time and we pay freight charges. You may pay us after you collect the money.

NEW YORK THE GREATEST MARKET IN THE WORLD It is the key to the United States and our buyers are continually watching the Stean bargains and snape for our customers. We take advantage of the financial difficulties o when they get into trouble, we can advance the cash because we always have plenty of it has goods at our own price. So it is, we can make these wonderful offers to you. You aget all the benefit, as the success of our entire business depends upon our customers. We please and satisfy them at all times. Do not fail to write us today so we can tell you "Curwell plan" and send you all the things we spoke about.

THE CURWELL CO., "Garwell Sulfating." 124 E. 124th St., New York City

COR YOUNG MEN SEEKING OPPORTUNITY.

Investigate the grand possibilities there are in agriculture. Trained men for extension work are now in great demand. We can help you make your own future.

ADDRESS:

Winona Agricultural Institute, Winona Lake, Indiana.

born, it is the splendor and the glory of Texas.

House of Representatives. Few persons, who, on visits to the chaplain, fail to be impressed by her gentleness and dignity. With unfailing fidelity she accompanies her husyear after year she wears a simple gown of silk, with a black bonnet tied could tell him a lot That would save him a lot Of things he ought to know. -Kipling.

Colorado of an altitude of more than 10,000 feet.

to 80,000,000 gallons a day.

mopylae had its messenger of defeat: thought of Nina, and became patient and went back to work. And so when Nina arrived he had $49; and morethe Alamo had none!" Toxas is indeed fortunate that her over, he had learned that in America history, as all the world knows it and that is not much money. as it lives in the hearts of her own and However, he was overjoyed to see Nina again, and she was radiant when she saw him. She remained in her aff the American people, began with

THE OLD ALAMO.

and a score of later butcheries of utmost efforts and careful economy, he had at the Alamo. As a battle, the Alamo was a defeat. As an inspiration to brave deed and patriotic achievement for generations of Americans yet un-

WIFE LEADS BLIND CHAPLAIN.

One of the Touching Sights in the House of Representatives, see Mrs. Henry N. Couden, wife of the blind aloud. band to the door of the House, and after resigning him into the hands of a page she waits in the lobby until to the list of marriage licenses in the the end of his prayer. Then she accompanies him home. Mr. Couden seldom lingers in the House after his paper and said: prayer is finished, but few of the gislators, from the speaker down to the youngest recruit, fail to salute him and his gentle little wife. Mrs. Couden resembles a Dresden figure in her flowered silk and old-fashioned bonnet. She cares not for changing styles, but under her chin with flowered ribbons. The Wise Rudyard. If only myself could talk to myself As I knew him a year ago,

There are 407 mountain peaks in

It is computed that the amount of water wasted in New York amounts Nina, a hundred dollars?" he askel.

"A hundred dollars. Why, he's got a barrel of money—a barrel."
"How you know he get married h?" asked Angelino. And then the man whose boots were blacked explained that old Binnick's name was on the list of marriage licenses issued at the City Hall. "Then he get married," said Angel-

"I suppose you enjoyed the concert a fresh complication. What if his name were to appear in the paper be-fore he had $100? The thought caused "Yes; it took me back to the days of my youth," the old man said, with a reminiscent sigh.

'No, the days when I worked in a he must, money or no money.

So Angelino worked on and worried not a little over the possibility of his name appearing in the list of those doomed to marry whether they had money or not. On Sunday he visited