Go see Miller's Electric Wonderland and Moving Pictures at the opera house, on Friday and Saturday nights July 27th and 28th.

Bob Henkle was pitching hay all last week, and had not the hay run out, he would probably be at it yet, he is so fond of the sport.

We understand that Hugh Witzel has leased Jack Hampton's ranch in Summer Lake. Mr. Hampton will move his family to Paisley to be nearer school.

Joe Lane and Frank Light one day last week, at the summer resort he held, to their amazing horror, a monster water snake, and straightway sent to town for more snake bite medicine.

The most perfect satisfaction is given on money cheerfully refunded at the opera house on Friday and Saturday nights, when Prof. Miller's electric wonderland and moving picture show will be presented.

Clark Johnson of Paisley made a trip to Pine Creek the past week, returning home Tuesday. Clark says he is interested in gold, but we presume it is some Pine Creeker's golden haired daughter that is attracting him.

I. W. McGrew last week bought a bunch of horses from J. C. Dodson, numbering about 20 head, so we are informed. Mr. McGrew expects to start for California this week with about 100 head of horses to put on the market.

Ed. Mulkey, Modoc county's assessor, was in Lakeview this week for the purpose of buying some real estate in this county. He looked at Ed. Branch's place, and one or two others. He did not make any purchases, but expects to later on.

John Aviragnet came in from Camp De Storkman in Big Valley, Monday. John has been prospecting and located a couple of good claims. He returned Tuesday, having received considerable encouragement from the samples of ore he brought in.

Rev. Sanford Snyder of Lakeview and his son Rev. Fred W. Snyder of Paisley, accompanied by Mr. J. L. Clark and his son, left early Tuesday morning for an outing of a few days, they will probably go to twenty mile creek. Look out for fish stories when they return.

M. E. church services for Sunday, July 22, 11 a. m. preaching at Union School house, West Side, Lakeview, Sunday School at 10 a. m. Epworth League at 7 p. m. Preaching at 8 p. m. You are cordially invited to these services, special music. Sanford Snyder, Pastor.

Everyone who has occasion to cross the ditch just north of the school house complains about the bad condition of the crossing. The crossing on the next street below is worse, so the travel is compelled to run the chances of breaking their wagon every time they drive through that part of town. It would be well for the council to look into this matter and see that this place is put in better shape.

Judge Baker of Alturas has admitted the letters of testamentary in the estate of W. B. Whittemore, deceased of which W. H. Shirk and S. O. Cressler, president and cashier of the First National Bank of Lakeview, are executors, with bonds fixed at $575,000. It would be a difficult problem to secure such a large bond in this country, as the bondsmen would have to have property appraised at $1,140,000.

Phil Lynch came to town Monday. W. M. Harvey expects to finish haying on the slash this week, where they are camping.

J. C. Nywander and J. W. Harvey's freight teams arrived from the railroad Tuesday.

Born. In Paisley, Oregon, July 21, 1883, to the wife of Joe Bush, a girl. "While the mocking bird is singing in the trees."

Thos. Cloud filled an order for soda the past week for Alturas of about 120 dozen quart bottles. It is believed that the best soda can be made in Lakeview of any place on the coast, partly on account of the pure water.

The Cook Will contest case which has been pending in Modoc county a long time, was decided last week against the contestant. Miss Belle Pagnello, Mrs. Maggie Murdoch and Mrs. Mary Toney will inherit the estate.

Pat Murphy and Dennis Sullivan left Wednesday on a visit to the "Old Sod." The boys expect to return here this fall. "Top of the mornin' to ye lasses, and may the fair lasses ye Cork than a kiss on yer cheek that will have a blister to yer dyin' day."

We understand that Dan Graf has bought the Dr. A. A. Witham ranch at the north end of Summer Lake. This is one of the best stock ranches in that valley, being situated on the edge of the winter range and comestable at all times of the year, and cuts an abundance of hay.

Oliver Charlton came in from Blue joint Monday, where he has leased the Laird ranch. He moved his family out a few days ago, and they went over to the "P" ranch to visit with Mrs. Charlton's sister, Mrs. Wise, while Oliver finished moving his household effects out.

Reports come from Surprise valley that hay and grain crops are abundant there this year. The fruit crop will be light, however. Indications point to a fairly good fruit crop in Goose Lake and other Lake county valleys, and the hay will be immense and fairly good grain crops.

Dick Wilcox this week sold the A. McCullen ranch, known as the Salt Creek ranch, where the mountain road to Paisley leaves the stage road, 8 miles north of town. Wm. Smock was the purchaser, and $5 per acre was the price. The place consisted of something like 600 acres of meadow and pasture land.

We have received from the Associated Fanciers, 400 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia, Pa., a copy of their Dog Buyers' Guide. It contains a finely executed colored frontispiece; well drawn engravings of nearly every breed of dog, and all kinds of dog furnishing goods. We should judge that the book has cost a great deal more to produce than the price asked and we would advise all of our readers, who are interested in dogs to send for the book, which will be mailed on receipt of 15 cents in postage stamps.

Prof. A. D. Miller, manufacturer and inventor of moving pictures, will give two performances in the opera house on tomorrow (Friday) and Saturday nights, July 27th and 28th. Professor Miller is an artist in his particular line and our theatre going folk is promised his rare and delightful performance. The press in all the large cities speak in the very highest praise of Professor Miller's Electric Wonderland and as it is first class in every particular the opera house should be well patronized during the two evenings performances—Some 6000 feet of pictures will be given including the appalling disaster of San Francisco—Reserved seats on sale at Ahlstrom Bros.

Nearly half the residents of Lakeview are either out camping or contemplating early departure for the local summer resorts, where dawn and dew freshen and flush the landscape, incomparable to any earthly, innocent pleasure, where marvelous trunks yet moist, are ruddy as obelisks of Jasper, and the leaves blushing at the east, where the music in its interminable chains of melody linking earth and sky with its delicious magic. The countless little wood-birds are singing, and where rolls up from the meadows far below the fragrance of fresh cut grass and clover. And where the little rivulets with their veil of blue mist, and the grim, gaunt old palisades, as simable in their orient crown as old princesses out of the direct line of succession, over the royal cradle of hair apparent.
