FEED AND LIVERY STABLE

SOUTH LAKEVIEW.

C. S. LOVELESS, PROPRIETOR.

I propose to offer the public a stopping place where their horses will be fed and cared for as they would be cared for at home.

I will also keep a team and rig to hire.

We Wish to Announce to the TRAVELER

That he can be as well accommodated at the MAMMOTH LIVERY STABLES in Lakeview as he can at any stable in the State. It is our intention to always have on hand a good supply of the best hay and grain to be bought in the market. We also keep a force of experienced hostlers and careful drivers, who will always be ready to wait on our customers.

Geo. M. Jones was down from Paisley first of the week.

Mr. Long, agent for D. W. Earl & Co., was in town this week.

A. P. Koser, a West Side farmer, was over to town last Saturday.

"Col." Star was in town a few days ago after supplies for a sheep camp.

W. B. Bernard, the sawmill man, was down from the new mill Sunday.

Joe Payne was in from the Edler camps a few days during the past week.

W. H. Benefiel was down from the sheep camp last Friday and went to Warner.

Bert Mulkey was up from the Thurston ranch Sunday, where he is putting up hay.

The best and newest washing machine, the "1904," at E. N. Jaquish's furniture store.

W. A. Massingill and family went out to Deep creek Monday for a couple of weeks outing.

We understand the new mill on Camp Creek will start up the latter part of this week.

O. A. Hastings, formerly of this city, is now at Airdrie Alta, Canada, in the stock business.

Try a "1904" washing machine, the very latest and the best made, at Jaquish's furniture store.

Elmer McCulley came over from Warner last week. He will remain on this side for a few months.

FOR SALE—two fine building lots in Walters' Addition. Enquire of Frank Hutchins, Lakeview. 26-4t

F. M. Miller went to Warner Monday. Johnson says to finish putting up the hay on the 7T ranch.

B. Mendall, representing Bissinger & Co., of Reno, Nev. spent several days in this city during the past week.

Chester Avery came down from the Jones ranch, near Paisley, last Sunday, after a load of grain for the ranch.

Thos. Anderson, the pioneer stockman of Warner valley arrived here last Thursday from San Francisco on his way to Warner.

H. A. Brattain and Clifford Johnson came down from Paisley Sunday after some haying machinery for the Brattain stock ranch.

Mrs. R. G. Adams of Paisley passed through this city first of the week enroute to Bidwell, where she goes to visit relatives. She visited her sister here, Mrs. Pete Post.

Geo. M. Jones and Miss Anna Jones came down from Paisley Sunday. Mr. Jones to buy some grain and Miss Jones to visit with relatives and friends here for a while.

D. H. Grove came over from Cedarville a few days ago. He was investigating the mutton market with a view to buying a band. He had made no purchases when last seen.

E. Rice has some views of the Santa Rosa ruins. Mr. Rice was in the furniture business at time of the earthquake and his store was shattered down and the contents burned.

A. Bieber has received a book of views of San Francisco taken after the earthquake. The book also contains a descriptive write-up of America's greatest earthquake and fire.

Win. W. Brown, the Wagon tire stock man came down to Lakeview last week on business. Mr. Brown sold 81 head of horses to L. W. McGrew for $80 per head, 12 head to Cecil and 5 head to Frank Barnes.

wanted:—Gentleman or Lady with good reference, to travel by rail or with rig, for a firm of $250,000.00 capital. Salary $1072.00 per year and expenses; salary paid weekly and expenses advanced. Address, with stamp, Jos. A. Alexander, Lakeview, Oregon. May-31-6mos.

Judge H. L. Benson and his son-in-law, Mr. Briggs, paid this city a visit last week. The Judge was here on a little matter pertaining to his office as circuit Judge, but not to hold a session of circuit court as stated by the Klamath Falls Republican. Mr. Briggs is interested in a condensed cream factory in California, and was here in the interests of his company.

Isador Sara has purchased the band of sheep owned by O. W. Jacobs of Adel. Mr. Sara is gathering his different bands together and will be on the trail in a few days.

The manufacturers of J. H. Cutter whiskey have placed a stock of that famous old brand on sale at the Hotel Lakeview Bar. The J. H. Cutter whiskey is the purest and best whiskey made; none better. 27-4t

The session of the Grand Lodge A. O. U. W. closed in Portland last Thursday. It was said to be a very busy session. W. B. Snider represented the Lodge of this place and A. M. Gallagher represented the Pine Creek Lodge.

Mrs. Ruby Harvey and two sons, Willie and Joe, arrived Tuesday evening from Oakland. They were expected nearly a week ago, but on account of one of the boys being ill she was delayed in her arrival. Mrs. Harvey will remain here indefinitely.

Mr. John Kelley, of the Booth-Kelley Lumber Co., arrived here this week to look over the company's lands in this section of country. Mr. Kelley and Mr. W. H. Shirk, the company's agent, went out yesterday on a tour of inspection, to see some of the timber lands.

Clarence Snider, who has been taking a medical course in a Portland school returned to Lakeview last Thursday with his mother for his vacation. Miss Mae Snider stopped at Klamath Falls to visit with friends at that place for a short time. Clarence had the mumps while at Ashland.

Any one wishing to put in wood on their account with The Examiner may do so, if they will either bring the wood at once, or notify us that they will do so, before we order our winter's supply. Full loads will be taken, and cash paid for all over the amount of the bill. 4t

J. W. Maxwell, J. S. Fuller and Frank Olwell went over to Sprague river last week on a prospecting trip, returning Saturday evening. They did not report any rich strikes, but brought back a sample of the best they found, which was a 2 oz. vial of sulfate of iron, which is believed to carry a quantity of gold and silver. They have not had it assayed, and do not appear very much excited over their discovery.

We are in receipt of No. 1 Vol. 1 of the Bidwell Gold Nugget, the new paper started at Bidwell by The Nugget Publishing Co., with R. L. Sloss as editor. The Nugget has every appearance of starting off on the right track. It is well gotten up and full of news, as was expected by all who know Mr. Sloss. The Nugget bows to the public in stately form, and may the crown that decks its initial number never lose its brilliancy.

Mrs. M. Whorton was up from Pine Creek this week.

Dorothy Bieber went out camping with Bernice Massingill and her parents.

Mrs. Tuggles who spent a year in Lakeview, has returned here to reside.

It is said that fish are quite numerous in Honey Creek, at Plush. W. W. Freeberg caught 40 there last Sunday.

Mrs. Harvey, Joe Harvey of San Francisco, and D. J. Wilcox are the administrators of the estate of the late William Harvey.

We see by the Bidwell Gold Nugget that C. H. Dunlap has located at Bidwell, and is putting up a building for a jewelry store.

Ex-County Stock Inspector J. E. Clarkson has been quite busy, since his term of office expired, in the veterinary and surgery line.

"Doc." Malloy has been quite busy the past several days inspecting and passing traveling bands of sheep into Modoc county, California.

Chas. Tonningsen returned from Spokane Tuesday. His daughter Annie, who has been at Ontario for a year, came home with him.

Commissioner Heryford was in town Monday morning, presumably trying to stir up another session of county court to last through haying.

We are informed that Judge Benson will undergo an operation for rupture in a short time, in fact as soon as he has rested up from his trip to Lakeview.

It is conceded that "Dad" Heryford and F. M. Miller can put up more hay in one day—in the back office of the bank—than any two men in the county.

I want to buy a good farm and stock ranch in Lake county. Anyone having a ranch to sell might strike a trade by addressing, Edsall Cobb, Luning, Nevada. 27-3t
