A Hair Dressing

Nearly every one likes a fine hair dressing. Something to make the hair more manageable; to keep it from being too rough, or from splitting at the ends. Something, too, that will feed the hair at the same time, a regular hair-food. Well-fed hair will be strong, and will remain where it belongs—on the head, not on the comb!

C. F. Shepherd.

C. F. Shepherd, the old reliable piano dealer of Ashland, arrived here Saturday evening from Siskiyou county where he did a good business in his line.

In these days when corrupt and crooked piano agents abound in the land it gives us special pleasure to recommend a man to the public whose integrity is unimpeachable, who is a gentleman in every sense of the word and whose representations can be relied upon absolutely.

If you think of purchasing a piano see Mr. Shepherd; if you have friends or acquaintances who are contemplating buying pianos recommend Mr. Shepherd to them. You can do this conscientiously knowing they will be treated right.—Klamath Falls Express

Owing to the fact that a number of irresponsible agents for piano houses have been traveling through the country, and some of them now confined in jail for embezzlement, and others have been found to be leading a life which unfits any person for dealing with the public, Mr. C. F. Shepherd, of Ashland, a perfectly reliable and honest man, a ways on the square and of an unapproachable character, has secured letters of recommendation from his friends, such men as A. McCullen, president of one of the Ashland banks and well known in Lakeview, and other prominent men, to show the public that he is not one of those kind of piano dealers whose character and manner of doing business will not bear inspection. Mr. Shepherd is in Lake county now, with his two sons, on their annual trip.

Timber Land Deal.

Walter Cambridge and A. G. Duhme, were visitors to Alturas this week. Mr. Duhme is looking over the county with the view to purchasing a body of timber land somewhere. Mr. Duhme desires the timber for saw-mill purposes. He has been looking over the timber lands of Henry Stephens and Eli Rice in Pandango Valley, with the result that a contract has already been entered into to purchase these holdings. Mr. Duhme was in Alturas for the purpose of reviewing the land titles.

These holdings include several hundred acres of the finest timber lands to be found in Modoc county, and are so situated that a large part of the lumber supply of the county must necessarily come from them. This body of timber is particularly handy to quite an extensive area in Goose Lake and Surprise Valleys.—Modoc Republican.

Success results from two things—opportunity and preparedness.
