Desert Land Final Proof.
United States Land Office, Lakeview, Oregon, July 24, 1906. Notice is hereby given that A. Gustave Enquist of Plush, Oregon, has filed notice of intention to make proof on his desert-land claim No. 485, for the SE $\frac{1}{4}$ SE $\frac{1}{4}$ Sec. 17 Tp. 35 S. R. 20 E. W. M. before Register and Receiver at Lakeview, Oregon, on Monday the 10th day of September, 1906. He names the following witnesses to prove the complete irrigation and reclamation of said land: S. W. Young, Arthur Higdon, E. E. Northing and F. B. Mulkey all of Plush, Oregon.
J. N. Watson, Register.

Lakeview And Vicinity

Mr. S. T. Colvin was down from the ranch last Tuesday.

W. G. Spencer and wife were over from Cottonwood last Saturday.

Mrs. Roy Shirk left Tuesday morning for San Francisco on a month's visit.

Wm. Metzker and W. F. Petree started for Ashland Monday after a load of peaches and grapes.

T. E. Bernard took the gold fever and started for Coyote Hills last Saturday.

D. H. Groves, the Surprise Valley farmer and sheepman, was in our city first of the week.

B. Mendall, agent for Bissinger & Co., of Reno and San Francisco, was in Lakeview first of the week.

This city is filling up again since the exodus to the mines a couple of weeks ago, and all the talk is "the mines."

L. P. Klippel and wife came down from Summer Lake last week. Mrs. Klippel remaining here and Lannis returning home Friday.

Steve Crowder, who has been working on the Corporation ranch in Warner, has built a livery stable in Bidwell and moved to that place.

Leo, Hasel and a number of others who located claims in the Coyote Hills mining district early in the excitement, returned to the district last week.

WOOD. I will take orders for wood to be delivered any time after August 15th, to be cut out of large pine trees any length.

31-1m Mrs. Rosa McDaniels.

Gordon Garrett, Filat Vernon, J. W. Harvey and Elmer Harvey returned from Madeline the latter part of last week with loads of freight for Lakeview merchants.

"Uncle" S. O. Pease came down from Summer Lake last week and remained several days, returning home Tuesday of this week, for the purpose of having his ears treated.

W. M. Harvey left Tuesday for the eastern part of the county, where he will endeavor to buy up about 100 head of horses to take to market. He has 15 head here that he will take.

Hay for sale. I have quite a lot of good hay for sale on the slash at 85 per ton measured at the stack, or $2.50 per ton delivered. Enquire of T. B. Metzker or M. E. Musgrave. W. M. Harvey.

C. E. Sherlock purchased about 1700 head of sheep at Silver Lake, paying $3.10 per head for them. Mr. Sherlock and Phil Lynch are buying lambs together, and have succeeded in buying several bands.

Mrs. A. S. Down was in The Examiner office one day last week and subscribed for the paper to be sent to her daughter, Mrs. Homer Pollard. Mrs. Down informed us that Mr. and Mrs. Pollard were living in Sacramento, where Mr. Pollard is working for an electrical company, and doing well.

Any one wishing to put in wood on their account with The Examiner may do so, if they will either bring the wood at once, or notify us that they will do so, before we order our winter's supply. Full loads will be taken, and cash paid for all over the amount of the bill.

That it pays to advertise in the Lake County Examiner was demonstrated last week when Wm. Schauer lost a coat with some valuable papers in the pockets, and placed an ad in The Examiner on Thursday and the coat was brought to this office on Saturday, by Mrs. Rosa McDaniels of Camas Prairie.

Wanted—Gentleman or Lady with good references, to travel by rail or with rig for a term of $250,000.00 capital. Salary $1072.00 per year and expenses; salary paid weekly and expenses advanced. Address, with stamp, Jos. A. Alexander, Lakeview, Oregon. May-31-6mos.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Hubble, of Eugene, who have been visiting Mrs. Hubble's brothers, A. A. and B. W. Farrow, for a couple of weeks past, were in Lakeview last Thursday. Mr. Hubble was, up to a few months ago, conducting a city transfer business in Eugene, and is taking a rest from business and looking over the country. He was considerably interested in the new gold strike near Plush. He saw some of the rock mortared and panned out, and said it beat anything he ever saw for gold. They expect to return to Eugene in a week or so.

For Sale. One 4-horse wagon, one buggy and harness and one good milk cow. For particulars apply to J. P. Duckworth, Lakeview, Oregon. 31-1m Joe Dewey says the Coyote Hills mines are so rich that one goes to sleep at night and wakes up next morning with gold fillings in their teeth.

WANTED:—Cook at Pine Creek. Lady preferred. Position steady and work easy. Address, Lake Hotel, New Pine Creek, Oregon. 27tf

Mrs. W. M. Harvey intended to go to Adel Monday to visit Mrs. C. B. Parker, but on account of the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Storkman, she postponed her trip.

The manufacturers of J. H. Cutter whiskey have placed a stock of that famous old brand on sale at the Hotel Lakeview Bar. The J. H. Cutter whiskey is the purest and best whiskey made; none better.

It is said that Col. Light while at the Coyote Hills mines last week slept out on his claim one night to keep it from being jumped, and when he woke up the next morning his pants assayed 4 ozs. of gold to the pound and his whiskers were $30 net.

If "Billy" Massingill never makes a cent out of his mining venture he will have as a souvenir a nickname that will likely stick to him like cold moccasins till he is as big as Goliath. Many newcomers to the mining district know him only as "Jasper."

Jeff Harrow, employed in the planing mill at this place, had a hand badly lacerated by being caught in the machinery Monday.—Alturas Plaindealer. (Jeff Harrow is a brother of Geo. D. Harrow of this city, one of the proprietors of Hotel Lakeview.)

A band of counterfeiters have been ousted from their nefarious profession and part of them placed under arrest. Their plant was found and quantities of the white metal from which, it is believed, several thousand one dollar pieces have been made by the gang. The dollars are dated 1882.

Mrs. Geo. Storkman was taken suddenly with erysipelas last Sunday evening, and within 20 minutes from the time she first felt her eye was afflicted, the eye was swollen shut and all one side of her face was swollen. A doctor was called and succeeded in preventing a further spread.

The show "the tun makers," at the opera house last Saturday night, was fairly well attended. The performance was good. Mr. Leys is a fine soloist, handling the slide trombone in a delightful manner, and won those who have an ear for brass music. They aimed to give the people a square deal, and furnished music for a social dance after the performance, which was highly appreciated by dancers.

Incident to the recent mining excitement near Plush, an amusing story is told which shows that even while the fever was the highest some of those most afflicted did not forget to crack their jokes. Jonas King was at the mines and went down to Plush where he phoned over to Pete Post, his partner in the saloon, one of the largest in Oregon. "Turn the saloon over to the Salvation Army and come to the mines, we're millionaires."

John Mulkey, one of the pioneers of this county, tells a story on John Jackson, one-time large cattle owner of this county, which shows the difference in the spirit on the ranges of this country in early days and now. Mr. Jackson and Mr. Mulkey were riding along on Drews creek, when they came upon Henry Morris and a man named Merita skinning a fat 4-year-old steer belonging to Jackson. They stopped a minute to see what was going on out there in the brush, and then rode on. Mr. Jackson remarking as they started, "well, boys, if you have more than you need, take a quarter down to Charley." Charley was the cook on the Jackson ranch.

Mining supplies at Ahlstrom Bros.

Several drummers arrived here this week.

Fresh candy just arrived at the Soda Works.

Lemons and oranges at the Soda Works.

C. M. Green the dry goods man, is in Lakeview.

Several emigrants are passing thru town these days.

Ahlstrom Bros. have a new supply of J. B. Stetson hats.

Wm. Schauer came up from Pine Creek Tuesday on business.

A. J. Scott came down from Paisley Monday to put himself under a doctor's care.

Anybody who wants a $5.00 set of Spectacles (two pair) for $1.05, apply to L. B. Whorton within the next 15 days. 32-4

Mr. Taylor the Pine Creek fruit grower, sent up a load of fine peaches Tuesday. The load was sold out in a half hour on the street.

Alex Robnett was up from Pine Creek Tuesday. He says nearly every body down his way are through haying, and heading has begun.

J. F. Snyder was in town from the West Side a few days ago. He stated heading had commenced, and that he would start his thresher in about two weeks.

A. L. Barnes came in from the Coyote Hills mines Tuesday. He says he has a good claim and can find plenty more like it. He will return to the mines today.

The Klamath Falls steam laundry, Grizzle Bros. marble works and a lodging house conducted by Slatter, were destroyed by fire last Wednesday, Aug. 18. Loss estimated at $10,000.

W. T. Garrett and wife came over from Bly last Sunday on business before the land office. Mr. Garrett says hay hands have been very scarce in his section and many ranchers have been so handicapped on account of the scarcity of labor that they have only fairly begun haying.

C. E. Sherlock has bought the following bunches of sheep, within the past week: From J. T. Flook, 1300 head; Leonard of Davis Creek, 500 head; McCauley, McKune and A. B. Schroder of Silver Lake, 1500 head. The price paid was $3.10 for wethers and $2.25 for lambs.

Watson Duffly and Jim George, too Yaiuax Indian* Policemen, passed through Lakeview Monday, on the trail of a white man who had appropriated a pair of wheels of a logging wagon at the Government sawmill on the reservation about ten days ago. The man was seen in Lakeview, also seen to pass through Pine Creek last Thursday. The Indian policemen were somewhat doubtful about their authority to arrest the man if found on the California side, but were informed here that they could do so, so they went on in search of the thief.

A. Y. Beach, former publisher of the Lake County Examiner, but who has been in a job office in Portland for two years past, arrived in our city on Tuesday morning's western stage for a short visit with his friends and to attend to some unsettled business. Mr. Beach was glad to be in his former home town; glad to look about him and observe the results of prosperity that has attended Lakeview since he left it; glad to recognize in every scene the foundations he helped to lay, and glad to remember that once this bright and prosperous little city was his home. Mr. Beach paid The Examiner office a call as soon as he had swallowed his breakfast. He said it was per ectly natural for him to "hit the old trail." He acknowledged, as frankly as a man likes to do, that The Examiner has maintained the high standard of usefulness it enjoyed when he was its publisher.

WEEKLY WEATHER REPORT.

Below we give a report of the weather as recorded by the Government weather bureau station at The Examiner Office. This report is changed each week, and if our readers wish to keep a yearly record of weather conditions for future reference, cut out the report along the black line and paste it in a scrap book one week after another. This record will be taken on Tuesday to end each week and begin on Wednesday for the next week. Government Weather Bureau Station at Lakeview, Oregon.
