Do the People Trust Roosevelt?

The Republicans naturally decided that their plea for control in the House of Representatives of the next legislative Congress should be based upon what the party has accomplished during the administration of Mr. Roosevelt, and since the President has himself inspired all the important work, both of the Congress and the Departments, it was concluded to place before the country, clearly, what they had achieved through the cooperation of his cabinet and the Congress, making it plain that the Republicans in Congress were following the President's leadership, and would continue to do so, so that the real question to be determined should be, do the people trust Mr. Roosevelt, and approve what he has done?

The Democratic party, having accomplished nothing, having accepted nothing but to obstruct, opens its side of the campaign by applying to Mr. Roosevelt vile epithets, descriptive of men without character or virtuous principles, the lowest of low politicians that the President should be called a "Faker and Four-flusher" will astonish the entire country in its excessiveness of intemperance, as applied to Mr. Roosevelt, and Democrats will be as prompt to resent this abuse as Republicans.

This same Democratic politician, declares that the people, "Democrats and Republicans alike, seem to have got it in to their crops, that he, Mr. Roosevelt, is working honestly and consistently in their interests. The people do believe this of the President. The world believe it, and while it might be made to appear that the president made some small mistakes, the country will resent this implication of dishonorable motives to the man who, above all others in the history of our country, has been hated by evil doers, and feared by those who would administer the government dishonestly.

More Fanatics Coming.

Dispatches from the East announce that some wretches known as "Aadmites" are on the eve of departure from Oklahoma to the Pacific Coast. This is a sect of religionists who are seeking for an Eden wherein they may live nude, as our first parents are represented to have lived.

We forewarn these people that, while there may be places on this Coast where the climate might be favorable to such a life, the temper of our people may not be so tolerant. The destroying contagion of Holy Rollerism was promptly stamped out on this Coast, and the people are not likely to receive any more kindly this new lot of criminals by whom our peace is threatened.

Praise and Slander.

Newspapers and politicians have said so much in defense of bad men, and so much that is known to be slanderous of good men, that the people have ceased to take them seriously. The elector will not be convinced that the only man in the country who has fought for the people against the trusts, and who has successful, is "In collusion with them".

The Democratic campaign managers in this declaration have undertaken to advise the people on that subject about which they themselves are well informed that the President is the friend of the people.

In an opinion handed down by Chief Justice Bean, of the Supreme Court recently, the decree of Judge W. R. Ellis, of the Circuit Court for Umatilla county is upheld, and the act of the Legislature of 1905, to tax all foreign sheep coming into the state of Oregon for the purpose of pasturage or being driven through the state is held void, because the tax is not uniform or levied according to value. The court holds that the revenue collected under this act cannot be construed as a license because no special privileges are granted nor does the failure to pay the tax render the pasturage of sheep in the state illegal but that the law is essentially a revenue one and invalid. This decision is in the case of W. P. Reser, respondent, vs. Umatilla county, appellant.

From Our Exchanges.

Klamath Falls Herald.
Tom Stephens is a veritable "Johnny on the spot" when it comes to getting in on the ground floor in lucky enterprises. When out in Modoc county, Cal., a year ago he located some claims near Fort Bidwell, and last week the claim adjoining one of his was sold for $50,000. Mr. Stephens left for the new strike yesterday, to look after his interests there. In a letter received from his partner it is stated that many prominent mining men of the coast are now there, and that all pronounce the outlook to be very promising and that it will equal Nevada in her balmy days.

Mining World.

Minerals containing gold are rare, there being only a half dozen, the tellurides. There are 40 known minerals containing silver; 11 minerals contain mercury, and 100 minerals carry copper; upwards of 85 lead, 22 zinc, 41 cobalt and nickel, and upwards of 90 are known to contain iron. The mining term "horse" means a mass of country rock between the inclosing walls of a vein. To constitute a "horse" it is necessary that the walls average about the mass below and at both sides, but the greatest known "horses" do not converge overhead, the two walls coming to the surface or in some instances, 1,000 feet apart.

A miner's inch is the quantity of the water delivered through each square inch of opening, and which varies from 1.4 to 1.7 cubic feet of water per minute. The custom among engineers is to take 1.5 cubic feet of water per minute as the equivalent of an inch. For illustration: 1000 miners' inches of water, (52 cubic feet per second) is about the quantity which would be carried by an ordinary wooden flume 30 inches wide, flowing 18 inches deep, if the flume had a fall of 1 inch per box of 12 feet (36 feet per mile), this giving a stream velocity of 6.7 feet per second.

Tellurium occurs native, mostly in granular masses. Its color is tinwhite, hardness 2 to metallic luster and is rather brittle. It occurs in Colorado. There are a number of ores called gold-tellurides; the ores of Cripple Creek and a few other localities in the United States being mainly tellurides.

The most important ores are sylvanite, which is silver white, with brilliant metallic luster, and steelgray to silver white, streak; calaverite, bronze yellow, streak yellowish gray; krennerite, silver-white to brass yellow; petzite, steel-gray to ironblack; nagayagite, leadgray.

(Bidwell Gold Nugget)

The past two weeks have witnessed a great rush to the new gold strike northeast of Lakeview. Many were there from Tonopah and Goldfield. Many of the late arrivals went on to Lost Cabin. Geo. H. Nixon and Geo. Wingfield, the two Nevada mining millionaires, have located claims in the Lost Cabin district.

The Loftus claim in the Lost Cabin district has a splendid showing, but there is no development yet in the camp that would warrant one saying positively what there is in sight, or what there may be. In quite a number of places on the surface and also in a few small assessment holes, you can pan free gold from the rock. The topography of the country resembles the district around the Goldfield country. The geological conditions of the country are very much the same as Tonopah. The general formation in the Lost Cabin district is porphyry, lime an iron. The formation is pretty well covered, excepting in some places. There are several large porphyry dykes protruding and considerable outcroppings. The general trend in most of the dykes, and outcrops is north and south. There are also a few running east and west. The country near there is well mineralized and is very easy to travel over, being rolling and very little under brush to bother. The country is well located but there certainly is other very good territory there that needs prospecting.

Water and timber in abundance are found from two to six miles distant. The Tonopah and Goldfield men believe it will be a second Tonopah. We hope this district, as well as all others surrounding the Bidwell district will prove to be good. It all helps the country generally, and especially Modoc and Lake counties. The more strikes that are made, the stronger it proves the fact that we are in one of the greatest mineral bearing zones in the United States, and the outside world is fast finding it out.

Silver Lake Oregonian.

Tuesday evening H. C. Ellis of the Bend and W. E. Guerin jr. of the Columbus, Ohio, proprietors of the Deschutes Telephone Co., arrived in Silver Lake, accompanied by E. F. Balfour and P. L. Tompkins of Bend, and yesterday interviewed our business men concerning a telephone line from this place to Bend. This line, if constructed, would give Silver Lake telephone connection with Prineville, The Dalles, Shaniko, Portland and all northern points and would greatly facilitate business transactions with the outside world. Mr. Ellis spoke encouragingly of the proposition and says the line will be built if enough support can be obtained to make it a paying adventure.

ANNUAL COUNTY

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

Never before in the history of Lake county have we been favored with the presence of three of the leading educators of the state. This alone is sufficient guarantee that the institute will be successful. The program of the institute will consist of lectures by these distinguished gentlemen hence the usual order of business to which we have been accustomed will be somewhat changed.

Beginning at 9 o'clock each day Pres. Campbell will address the meeting. After a few minutes intermission Pres. Ressler will address the institute. Then after another short intermission Prof. Ackerman will take charge of the institute for an hour.

This will be the order of business every half day during the two days session of the institute. The subject of each lecture will be selected by the speaker as he may deem most fit for the occasion. Addresses will be made in the evening at 7:30.

As our institute will convene for only two days I hope the general public will make an extra effort to attend during the day. Let all attend and show that the people of Lakeview are interested in educational work. J. Q. Willis, Co. Sup't.

NO TWO MEN ARE ALIKE

There may be a hundred men in this city who have arms the same length as yours—but there is not one other man in the whole county who is the same as yourself in all other proportions. It is simply an impossibility to get a perfect fitting suit by buying ready-to-wear clothes.

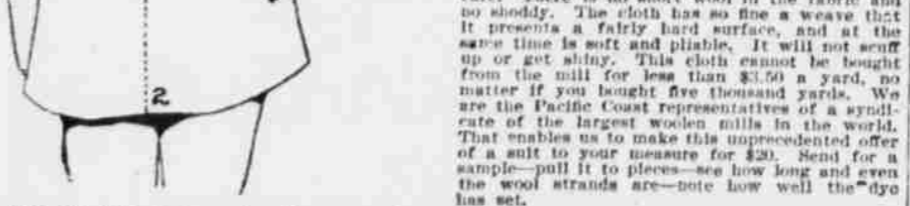

We will make a suit to your measure for $20. You pay that much, or nearly that much for every hand-me-down suit you buy.

Custom-made clothes—store clothes—are turned out by the thousand. They are cut and sewed by machinery.

That is why you have bought suits heretofore that lost their look of newness before you had worn them half a day.

We will make a suit to your measure—for your exclusive wear—that will fit you because it was built for you, and no one else—for $20. We guarantee the cloth to be an all-wool cloth—the cloth is new and vigorous—just of the latest—latest patterns—hand-made—every seam hand-sewed with silk-lined with imported Venetian cloth.

The background of the pattern is a deep gray, with an almost imperceptible overline or check. The color of this fabric does not show at all, does not wrinkle and has taken the dye so well that the garment looks like new until it is all worn out. The wool used in weaving this garment was selected with unusual care. There is no short wool in the fabric and it presents a fairly hard surface, and of the same time is soft and pliable. It will not wear up or get shaggy. This cloth cannot be bought from the mill for less than $1.50 a yard, no matter if you bought five thousand yards. We use the Pacific Coast representatives of a syndicate of the largest woolen mills in the world. That enables us to make this unprecedented offer of a suit to your measure for $20. Send for a sample—pull it to pieces—see how long and even the wool strands are—note how well the dye has set.

Fill out this coupon and mail to us and we will send you a sample of the cloth. We guarantee that the sample is actually cut from the very bolt of cloth from which we make the suit. When you visit Portland, come in and verify this or any assertion we make. If you wish, ask some Portland friend to tell you about the reputation and standing of the Columbia Woolen Mills Co.

It is the simplest thing in the world to have some friend take your measure. We will send you a tape measure free, and instructions how to take a measure for a suit of clothes. Be sure and send for this sample. If you get a suit from this offer, you will be wearing a garment the pattern of which local dealers cannot possibly get in stock before another year. The pattern of our $20 suit will be sold next year as the latest (by other tailors).
