Desert Land Final Proof.
United States Land Office, Lakeview, Oregon, August 14, 1906. Notice is hereby given that Arthur L. Highfill, of Plush, Lake Co., Oregon, has filed notice of intention to make proof on his desert land claim No. 475, for the NE 1/4 SW 1/4, SE 1/4 NW 1/4, Sec. 3, T. 35 S., R. 26 E., W. M. before Register at Lakeview, Oregon, on Friday, the 21st day of September, 1906. He names the following witnesses to prove the complete irrigation and reclamation of said land: Steve Young, Edward E. Bond, Nolen E. Curry, of Plush, Oregon, and William Smock, of Lakeview, Oregon.
J. N. Watson, Register.

UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE, LAKEVIEW, OREGON, August 20, 1906. Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, William T. Barrett, of Bly, county of Klamath, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 1287, for the purchase of the NW 1/4 SW 1/4, N. E. SW 1/4, SW 1/4 SW 1/4 of Section 20, in Township No. 35 S., Range 17 E., W. M. and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before Register at Lakeview, Oregon, on Thursday, the 8th day of November, 1906. He names as witnesses: S. C. Hamaker, Albert Walker, Walker Pollard and J. P. Parker, all of Bly, Oregon. Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 1st day of November, 1906.
J. N. Watson, Register.

Cozy Homes.
The discovery of a new wick principle—so effective and yet so simple that it's a wonder no one thought of it before—has so revolutionized the manufacture of oil heaters and lamps that explosive smoke and smell, caused by imperfect wick arrangement, may safely be regarded as things of the past.
This new wick attachment is to be found on the Perfection Oil Heater, advertised in the Examiner by the Standard Oil Co.

COMPOUND INTEREST
The trouble with most advertisers is that they expect immediate returns of large proportions. One prominent advertiser illustrates the principle of advertising in this way:
"The money expended for advertising is the same as if placed at interest. The profits from the advertising are virtually the interest on the investment."
"The sums spent for advertising are properly chargeable to capital account because the resulting good will is something that has value, which, if the advertising has been properly done, can usually be sold for the face value of the investment."
"The rate of interest is determined by the skill with which the investment is made."
"Just as the quickest way to increase invested wealth is by compounding the interest, just so the quickest way to realize results from advertising is to compound the returns."—Advertising Experience.

Advertisers get good returns on the amount invested in our columns. We reach the people.

Not Extravagant.
Mr. Meany—It's something dreadful. My wife is always asking me for money. It's money, money, money, all the time.
Mr. Japson—Why, whatever does she do with all this money?
Mr. Meany—Oh, I don't know. I haven't given her any yet.

The Bargain Sale.
Mabel—These bargain sales are going to be the death of me yet. I went into a store the other day where they were having a sale on preserves.
Maude—Well, let's know the worst and have it over. Did you preserve your presence of mind?
Mabel—I almost got crushed in the jam.—Woman's Home Companion.

The Common Way.
"Professor," asked the young man, "what's the best way to learn book-keeping?"
"Huh," growled the old professor, whose friends were depleting his library, "just acquire the habit of borrowing them."—Houston Post.

Amende Honorable.
"No, sir," declared Bragg, "I owe nothing to any man."
"Oh, yes, you do," retorted Wise.
"No, sir."
"Oh, yes, you owe an apology to every man who has to listen to you blow."—Philadelphia Press.

The World.
They tell us in our childhood days The world is round, and we With youthful heedlessness, accept The doctrine easily.
When we are grown to man's estate We are so overwrought With constant struggling we've no time To give its shape a thought.
At last, when we approach the end And see how small a lot Of stuff we've gathered as compared With what some folks have got, What we were told comes back, and we Are quite prepared to swear Whatever other shape it has, It surely isn't square.
—W. J. Lampton in Judge.

As the Modern Young Man Would Put It

"I have just joined an antiskissing club," said the beautiful girl.
"Why, do you believe kissing is dangerous?" asked the modern man.
"It depends on what you mean by dangerous. If you mean to ask me whether I am afraid of microbes, I can say that I am not. I believe a great deal of this microbe and germ talk is absolutely ridiculous. As far as catching microbes is concerned, I shouldn't hesitate for a moment to—"
"To permit that sweet mouth of yours to be kissed by the right man," he suggested.
"Well, if you want to put it that way you may," she returned.
"But I wouldn't put it just that way. May I show you how I would put it?"
"I am waiting for you to do so."

He gently placed one hand against the back of her splendidly poised head, placed the fingers of his other hand very tenderly under her pretty chin, then with a deft movement which, as far as she was concerned, was absolutely painless, tilted her face upward and, bending forward, completed the process with an ease and a naturalness that left her with absolutely no cause for criticism. After it was all over he asked:
"Would you tell me now why you joined the antiskissing club?"
"Because—because," she sighed, "there's such a thrill, you know, about doing anything that would get you into trouble if it were found out, and then it gave me a chance to introduce the subject too. How was it that you would put it?"—Chicago Record-Herald.

A Confession.
"Would you mind telling the court," asked the examining attorney, "where and when you laid the foundations of this structure of graft that has overshadowed your life?"
The once famous man who had been mercilessly exposed and must now pay the penalty for his misdeeds lifted his haggard face and replied:
"I will tell you, in the hope that it may serve as a warning to the young—to the very young. My first step in graft was when, as a boy of six or seven, I compelled my big sister's admirer to bribe me to leave the parlor by giving me pennies and nickels and dimes. Step by step I can trace my downfall from that evil time."—Judge.

A Bad Case of Sabbath Breaking.
On a recent Monday morning the pastor of a church in Virginia was the recipient of a basket of strawberries brought to him by a little girl of the parish.
"Thank you very much, my dear," said the minister. "These berries are as fine as any I've ever seen. I hope, however, that you did not gather them yesterday, the Sabbath."
"No, sir," replied the child; "I pulled 'em early this mornin', but they was a-growin' all day yesterday."—Harper's Weekly.

To Republicans.
We are anxious to have every Republican in close touch, and working in harmony with the Republican National Congressional Committee in favor of the election of a Republican Congress.
The Congressional campaign must be based on the administrative and legislative record of the party, and, that being so, Theodore Roosevelt's personality must be a central figure and his achievements a central thought in the campaign.
We desire to maintain the work of this campaign with popular subscription of One Dollar each from Republicans. To each subscriber we will send the Republican National campaign Text Book and all documents issued by the Committee.
Help us achieve a great victory.
James S. Sherman, Chairman.

Notice to students and parents.
Owing to the continued warm spell, I have decided to make Monday Sept. 10th the opening day of the Lakeview Business College instead of August 27th, as advertised some weeks ago. I have employed a competent instructor, and satisfaction is guaranteed. I would be glad to hear from any one who contemplates attending, and will furnish full information upon application. Until further notice, address G. F. Bigley, Alturas, Calif.

The Farmer's Wife
Is very careful about her churn. She scalds it thoroughly after using, and gives it a sun bath to sweeten it. She knows that if her churn is sour it will taint the butter that is made in it. The stomach is a churn. In the stomach and digestive and nutritive tracts are performed processes which are almost exactly like the churning of butter. Is it not apparent then that if this stomach-churn is foul it makes foul all which is put into it?
The evil of a foul stomach is not alone the bad taste in the mouth and the foul breath caused by it, but the corruption of the pure current of blood and the dissemination of disease throughout the body. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery moves the sour and foul stomach sweet, does for the stomach what the washing and sun bath do for the churn—absolutely removes every tainting or corrupting element. In this way it cures blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings, sores, or open eating ulcers and all humors or diseases arising from bad blood. If you have bitter, nasty, foul taste in your mouth, coated tongue, foul breath, are weak and easily tired, feel depressed and despondent, have frequent headaches, dizzy attacks, gnawing or distress in stomach, constipated or irregular bowels, sour or bitter risings after eating and poor appetite, these symptoms, or any combination of them, indicate that you are suffering from biliousness, torpid or lazy liver with the usual accompanying indigestion, or dyspepsia and their attendant derangements.
The best agents known to medical science for the cure of the above symptoms and conditions, as attested by the writings of leading teachers and practitioners of all the several schools of medical practice, have been skillfully and harmoniously combined in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. That this is absolutely true will be readily proven to your satisfaction if you will but mail a postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a free copy of his booklet of extracts from the standard medical authorities, giving the names of all the ingredients entering into his world-famed medicines and showing what the most eminent medical men of the age say of them.
