Dutch lunch at the Brewery Saloon. Mrs. M. Messner and daughter, and son, Jake Messner, and Mrs. Vogel, all of South Warner, were here last Saturday as witnesses in the Barry-Cronin trial, remaining here until Tuesday.

Frank Rogers came over from Plush last Friday to meet a brother and brother-in-law who arrived here Wednesday evening on the Southern stage. He had not seen his brother for about five years.

Mr. S. V. Rehart, in his letter to The Examiner which we publish this week, says that he does not know just when he will return to the Coast. He is in Illinois and is having a good time. Read his letter.

George Jammertol left first of the week, for California, where he will spend the winter. He does not know just yet where he will hold up but thinks somewhere in the Bay country. He will be back here in the Spring.

J. Wendell, who has conducted the Lakeview meat market for over four years, sold his butcher business to M. Bode, first of the week. Mr. Wendell and family will start for San Francisco Monday, where they will spend the winter. It is to be hoped that they will return to Lake county.

J. L. Hampton and wife passed through Lakeview Monday on their return to their home at Paisley, after having spent several days in Pine Creek, where they went to attend the bedside and last illness of Mrs. Hampton's mother, Mrs. Pollett, who was buried at the State Line town last week.

Eugene Wirth, S. F. Shambress, Chas. A. Benner and Miss LaDu, all of Mosinee, Wis., arrived here last week, looking for some of Lake county's fine timber land. Two of the party secured claims on the west side of the lake, over in Modoc county, while the others went north to look for claims.

John Scott and family came down from Paisley last week where they have resided for many years. On their way to California, where they expect to make their future home. It is hoped that Mr. and Mrs. Scott will decide to return to Lake county, as the county does not care to lose such good citizens.

Ira G. Moshier, who recently sold all his land on the West Side, was in town last Saturday. He says he will go to San Francisco soon, to remain with his mother this winter. She is 90 years old and Mr. Moshier says she needs his attention the rest of her life. He will return to Lake county, as he says this place is good enough for him.

George Henry, the baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. George Stanley, of this place, died on November the 14th, and was buried in the I. O. O. F. Cemetery on the 15th, from the Methodist Church, services by Rev. Armstrong, pastor. The little baby was one month and twenty-three days old. The sympathy of the community is with the bereaved parents.

Mr. J. M. Layman, the Bidwell mining man, has gone to Los Angeles to spend the winter. The Alturas Plaidealer says that J. T. Bonner of Alturas will manage Mr. Layman's mining business during his absence. Mr. Bonner has been in county office for many years, and having been "left at home" in the recent election, will seek new fields.

H. P. Enquist left last Sunday, for a three months' visit in his native country, Sweden, where he goes to visit his parents. Pete has been in Lake county about twelve years, and worked steadily, and deserves a vacation. During that time he has accumulated a small fortune of over $25,000 and aims to spend some of it taking it easy for a few months.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Healthful cream of tartar, derived solely from grapes, refined to absolute purity, is the active principle of every pound of Royal Baking Powder.

Hence it is that Royal Baking Powder renders the food remarkable both for its fine flavor and healthfulness.

No alum, no phosphate— which are the principal elements of the so-called cheap baking powders and which are derived from bones, rock and sulphuric acid.

Adam Marquart, a former resident of this county, writes The Examiner from Downey, Calif., near Los Angeles, that he has bought a small ranch there. He says he will return here as soon as he gets his business matters fixed up there. Mr. Marquart remembered The Examiner with a two-dollar post office order, and asked to be remembered to all his friends in Lake county.

C. E. Sherlock and family expect to start for lower California Tuesday. They aim to arrive at their destination before the first of the year, so that the boys can start in school at the beginning of the January term. They will not go to San Francisco to stay, as they think, owing to the April catastrophe, the schools there will be crowded with home pupils and no room for outsiders.

In a letter dated Nov. 15th received from Mr. J. Frankl, who is now in San Francisco, he wrote: "Yesterday I attended the funeral services of an old townsman of ours, Mr. Tom Wingfield. His widow and daughter Mrs. Campbell, and son George, were the members of his family present. Of the Lakeview contingent those present were—Judge Brattain wife and children, Walter Sherlock and wife and myself. The remains were laid at rest in Cypress Lawn Cemetery San Mateo County. His age was 60 years."
