What's the use of going to all the trouble to get up a Thanksgiving dinner, when you can go to Hotel Lakeview and get the very best that can be put on a table. M. Saunders came in from the desert east of Paisley Monday, where he has his sheep. He says the snow is about five inches deep out there. He drove his backs out. Mrs. Wade Snyder, of Lakeview, nee Nellie Bolton of this city, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bolton, on Terrace street.—Ashland Tidings. F. P. Light is authority for the statement that L. G. Thomas is soon to be married. No doubt Mr. Thomas will substantiate the report if the third party can be found. C. H. McKendree started for Seattle, Wash., last Friday on a business trip, presumably to consult with the people who are buying land in Lake County through Mr. McKendree. We understand that Mr. and Mrs. Barber, for some weeks residents of New Pine Creek, contemplate the establishment of a barbershop in Lakeview, to be conducted by Mrs. Barber. "Doc" Vernon, who had his hand cut off in the Cottonwood mill last spring, was up town from the ranch Tuesday. His wound has entirely healed up, but he says the cold weather effects it. The new barn being built by Miller & Arthur, is beginning to take shape. However, the main building will not be put up till spring, as timber and material cannot be had at this time of the year. W. M. Harvey and wife returned from California last Sunday, where Mr. Harvey took a band of horses. He sold the horses at Gridley. He says the market is not so good as it was a while back. He may buy up another bunch during the winter. J. E. Boone came in from Warner last week, to look after renting one of his homes here in town, and to visit his parents. Mr. Boone recently returned from the 60 ranch in Harney county, where he has been attending the rodeos for the JJ ranch in Warner. If this weather prevails for very long, we will be inclined to think that winter has come.—Pine Creek Miner. (Better get your thinking apparatus to working pretty soon, Bro. Koozer, or you will get the Spring fever, and not know what's the matter with you.)

queen away—horser ought to go in the road, I think.—Sketch.

Have You Noticed?
"I think Dick and Katharine will soon be married."
"Why, dear?"
"Well, I passed by the old porch last night and I heard her calling him pet names."
"Gracious! And was she calling him 'ducky' and 'dearest' and 'angel face'?"
"Well, I should say not. She was calling him 'dunce,' 'goose' and 'stupid.'"
"You don't mean it!"
"I do, and that is always a sure sign a girl is in love with a man."—Detroit Tribune.

Out of the Jam Jar.
"Wasn't you behind the pantry door when I came through, Johnny?"
"Yes'm."
"What's your finger doing in your mouth?"
"Nothin'."
"Did you get it jammed?"
"Yes'm—no, ma'am."
And having cleared all traces of the jam from the suspected digit he removed it from his mouth.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Bring'ng Results.
"Please, ma'am," pleaded the ragged little beggar, "gimme a penny?"
"Gracious, child!" exclaimed Mrs. Goodart, producing a nickel. "Are those the best shoes you've got?"
"Sure!" he replied, with professional pride. "Deys're de best I could git fur my business. Deys won't do a ting but bring de nickels out."—Philadelphia Press.

Doubly Forgetful.
Absentminded Man—Goodness, how forgetful I am. I came away this morning without kissing my wife!
Friend—I thought your wife was at the shore.
Absentminded Man—So she is. How forgetful I am!—New York Press.

Trouble.
"Portleigh took his fiancée out in his new automobile yesterday. When they returned the girl was alone at the steering wheel and Portleigh was walking behind."
"Lovers' quarrel, I presume."
"Oh, no. Portleigh was pushing the machine."—Judge.

Her Preference.
"Will you be my wife?" inquired the adherent of the simplified spelling forms. Then he added: "We haven't been able to improve the spelling of yes."
"I find 'no' much simpler," said the young woman.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Real Trouble.
Mrs. Whittle—I wish Mrs. Tellum wasn't always asking the price of everything.
Whittle—What harm does it do?
Mrs. Whittle—It's such a bore remembering what I've told her.—Detroit Free Press.

The Crime.
Dismukes—Oh, well, I can comfort myself with the thought that poverty is no crime.
Piggums—On the contrary, it must be a crime, because it is punishable by hard labor for life.—American Spectator.

Prudence.
"I am going to have my hands insured," said the eminent pianist.
"Don't do it," answered his manager. "Your hands do not constitute your most valuable asset. If your hair is insured"—Washington Post.

Must Be Handled Carefully.
Whatever may be the individual views as to the wisdom of any particular tariff schedule, or even of a protective tariff at all, nobody will deny that the mechanism is far too delicate to be handled without great care.—Boston Financial News.

DAILY WEATHER REPORT
Below we give a report of the weather as recorded by the Government weather bureau station at The Examiner Office. This report is changed each week, and if our readers wish to keep a yearly record of weather conditions for future reference, cut out the report along the black line and paste it in a scrap book one week after another. This record will be taken on Tuesday to end each week and begin on Wednesday for the next week. Government Weather Bureau Station at Lakeview, Oregon.

Royal Baking Powder

Absolutely Pure

DISTINCTIVELY A CREAM OF TARTAR BAKING POWDER

Royal does not contain an atom of phosphatic acid (which is the product of bones digested in sulphuric acid) or of alum (which is one-third sulphuric acid) substances adopted for other baking powders because of their cheapness.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Nothing to be Thankful For.
(Cedarville Record.)
With the hens on a strike, no butter to be had, no money, no clothes, no wood and tax paying time and a long winter "fornist" us we have been wondering what in thunder we could find to feel thankful for a week from next Thursday.
(You might, at least, be thankful that you are one year nearer the end of a miserable career, Bro. Stanley.)

New Opera House.
That Lakeview is to have an opera house is now a settled fact. The building will be erected on the hotel block, on Main street opposite The Examiner office, next spring. Four men with sufficient means have designated their willingness to invest money in the scheme.
No plans have yet been decided upon, but a good building two stories high will be put up.

To Heat Cold Rooms Quickly

Every house has its cold room. Abnormal weather conditions, inadequate stove or furnace heat often result in some particular part of the house being cold and cheerless. You can make home warm and cheerful with the

PERFECTION Oil Heater

(Equipped with Smokeless Device)

Carry it about from room to room. Turn wick high or low—there's no danger. Smokeless device prevents smoke and smell. Easy to operate as a lamp. All parts easily cleaned. Brass oil font beautifully embossed. Holds 4 quarts of oil and burns 9 hours. Gives intense heat. Two finishes—nickel and japan. Handsome, useful, reliable. Every heater warranted. If not at your dealer's write our nearest agency for descriptive circular.

The Rayo Lamp is the best lamp for all-round household use. Equipped with latest improved burner. Gives bright, steady light at lowest cost. Made of brass throughout and nickel plated. Suitable for any room and satisfactory. Every lamp warranted. Write to nearest agency if not at your dealer's.
