Dick Kingsley last week went out to Warner canyon with the clothing and provisions donated to the family living up there, who are in almost destitute circumstances, on account of the illness of the husband and father of the family. They came here from Harney valley only a few weeks ago, and scarcely any one knew of their condition until they were out of provisions. The family were happily surprised at the interest taken in their welfare by strangers, and said they had never met better people than those of Lakeview.
Chas. E. Moore, writing from Oakland Calif. says after calling attention to the check enclosed: "We enjoy reading the paper, as it is like a letter from home. We are living in Oakland at present, and like it very well, and have met so many Goose Lake people that it hardly seems like being among strangers. Are having some rain and cool weather. "Grandpa and Grandma" Bernard surprised us with a short visit, also Johnny Duckworth, who is stopping with us yet, and Farnum and Lillie Harris live within one block of us, so we have good company. With kind regards to all inquiring friends, I am etc."

SUMMONS
In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Lake.
Ruby Harvey and Dick J. Wilcox, as Executors of the Estate of William Harvey Deceased, Plaintiffs, vs.
J. S. Field, Julia Field, Orlie Chandler, George E. Chandler and Andrew McCullen, Defendants.
Suits to foreclose a mortgage.

To J. S. Field, Julia Field and Andrew McCullen, the above named defendants IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON: You and each of you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled court and cause on or before the 31st day of January, 1907, said date being the last day of the time prescribed in the order for publication or summons made herein, and if you fail so to appear or answer, for want thereof, the plaintiffs will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in said complaint, which is: That the plaintiffs take a decree against you, the defendants, J. S. Field and Julia Field, foreclosing a mortgage on real property, executed by you on December 1d, 1900, in favor of plaintiff's testator, William Harvey; to recover the money due and owing on said mortgage, to-wit: The sum of Nine Hundred and Thirty-four dollars and seventeen cents, together with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent. per annum from June 25th, 1902, and $200 attorney's fees and costs of suit; for an order of sale of the lands and premises retained and existing as security in said mortgage, and described as follows, to-wit: Commencing at the South-east corner of Block "O", in the West Addition to the Town of Lakeview, in Lake County, State of Oregon, according to the plat thereof, filed in the office of the County Clerk of the County and State aforesaid, on the 20th day of July, 1878; Thence running North along the Eastern Boundary line of said Block "O," One Hundred and Seventy-three feet; thence at right angles running West One Hundred and Forty feet; thence at right angles running North One Hundred and two feet; thence at right angles running West One Hundred and Forty feet, to the West boundary line of Block "N", in said West Addition; thence South along the West boundary lines of said Blocks "N" and "O", Two Hundred and Seventy-five feet to the South-west corner of said Block "O"; thence East along the South boundary line of said Block "O" Two Hundred and Eighty feet, to the place of beginning.

WEEKLY WEATHER REPORT.
Below we give a report of the weather recorded by the Government weather bureau station at The Examiner Office. This report is changed each week, and if our readers wish to keep a yearly record of weather conditions for future reference, cut out the report along the black line and paste it in a scrap book one week after another. This record will be taken on Tuesday to end each week and begin on Wednesday for the next week. Government Weather Bureau Station at Lakeview, Oregon.

Timber Land Notice.
United States Land Office, Lakeview, Oregon, Dec., 16, 1906.
Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled, "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, Harry W. Crawford, of Klamath Falls, county of Klamath, State of Oregon, has filed in this office his sworn statement No. 3308 for the purchase of the NW 1/4 of Section No. 19 in Township No. 35 S., Range No. 17 E., W. M. and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before County Clerk of Klamath Co., at his official place of business at Klamath Falls, Oregon, on Tuesday, the 5th day of March, 1907.
Frank Johnson, Lynn Lowe, D. W. Russell and Jesse Gravens, all of Klamath Falls, Oregon.
Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 5th day of March, 1907.

ROYAL Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE
Healthful cream of tartar, derived solely from grapes, refined to absolute purity, is the active principle of every pound of Royal Baking Powder.
Hence it is that Royal Baking Powder renders the food remarkable both for its fine flavor and healthfulness.
No alum, no phosphate— which are the principal elements of the so-called cheap baking powders and which are derived from bones, rock and sulphuric acid.
