We are distressed to chronicle the very sad case of Mrs. R. T. Striplin, who was committed to the insane asylum last Thursday. The unfortunate woman and her family have the sincere sympathy of the entire community. Mrs. Striplin has been waiting on her mother for a long while, doing all in her power to relieve the suffering invalid, who has been very low for months with cancer. Mrs. Striplin went beyond the limit of her ability and finally collapsed. She was both physically and mentally wrecked, and not even rest and tender care could rally her. Thursday, after home treatment had failed, she was committed to the asylum, and the attendants of that institution are expected here any day, to convey her to Salem where it is believed and hoped she will recover and be able to return to her family.
