Secretary Hitchcock has withdrawn his acceptance of the resignation of Michael T. Nolan as Register of the Dalles Land Office and ordered a thorough investigation of the office, particularly with a view to ascertaining the facts regarding charges made by Nolan against Madison A. Modley, Nolan's statement that accompanied his resignation and which at first was set aside without action, had been reconsidered and presents a situation that, in the opinion of the President, cannot be ignored. Either the Register or the Receiver of the office has been guilty of conduct that warrants dismissal.

At all events, the office is not big enough to hold both Nolan and Miss Lang, the Receiver and it has been deemed advisable, before taking any action whatever to ascertain whose is at fault.—Oregonian.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O.

HIS GREAT SERVICE.

An illustration of the Generosity of the Elder Dumas.

Dumas pere when manager of the Theatre Historique was continually studying the influence of the temperature on the sale of tickets—at least, he seemed to do so. In fact, this seeming interest in the showing of the thermometer was, like so many other acts of his, nothing but an expression of that proverbial kindness of his heart.

One day Dumas happened to meet an old friend whom he had not seen for thirty years. "Where are you going to dine tonight?" he asked the friend.

"Tonight I shall dine nowhere," was the answer.

"Oh, no," said Dumas; "you are mistaken. You will dine with me." He led the friend into his house and gave him the upper place at his table. The poor man had not had such a dinner for a long time, and Dumas when retiring into his study room after the coffee said, "It is a matter of course that I expect you tomorrow at the same time."

The friend came the next day, and the day after this, and so on for ten years up to his death. One day, however, he told Dumas that as he was eating bread he did not earn this arrangement could not continue. "If I am not able honestly to earn my meals I shall not come again. Tell me in what way I can be of service to you."

Dumas thought a moment; then he said: "You can do me a great favor. You may go to the new bridge every day and take the temperature by Chevalier's thermometer. The temperature, you must know, is of great moment in the matter of the sale of tickets. Could you do this?"

The poor fellow answered affirmatively and from that time on reported to Dumas every day. "At noon the thermometer showed so and so many degrees in the shade." And Dumas, who of course did not care in the least about the temperature, replied with the same regularity: "I am very much obliged. If you only knew what service you are doing me!"—Harper's Weekly.

THE GOLDEN RULE OF THE

Three things to be—pure, just and honest.
Three things to live—courage, affection and gentleness.
Three things to govern—temper, tongue and conduct.
Three things for which to fight—honor, home and country.
Three things to cherish—the true, the beautiful and the good.
Three things about which to think—life, death and eternity.
Three things to commend—thrift, industry and promptness.
Three things to despise—cruelty, arrogance and ingratitude.
Three things to love—the wise, the virtuous and the innocent.
Three things for which to wish—health, friends and contentment.
Three things to admire—dignity, gracefulness and intellectual power.
Three things to attain—goodness of heart, integrity of purpose and cheerfulness of disposition.—Leadership.

Pugnacity of Rats.
A glove manufacturer took from a cabinet a handsome pair of brown gloves. "These gloves are made of ratskin," he said. "They look well at first glance, but examine them carefully. Look into the skin. The skin though soft and fine, revealed on close examination a great many cuts and scars and scratches. None of them went quite through. Nevertheless their effect was to weaken the gloves greatly. "Those cuts and scars," said the manufacturer, "are what rat skin out of glovemaking. You never get skin without them; hence you can't turn the damaged skin into a good glove. Rats fight so much that they become at an early age a mass of scars. Their torn hides are of no use to commerce."

London's First Balloon Ascent.
When Lunardi made the first balloon ascent from London in 1784 he had for fellow passengers a cat, a dog and a pigeon. Such was the excitement caused by this ascent that a jury, deliberating on the fate of a criminal, returned a hasty verdict of acquittal in order not to miss the spectacle, while King George III. broke up a meeting of his council to watch the progress of the balloon. It was in the following year, 1785, that an adventurous Dublin undergraduate, Mr. Maguire, made a balloon ascent and was actually knighted by the Lord Lieutenant for his courage.

Don't Be a Sensitive Plant.
The sensitive plant is found in the church. The pastor has a difficult time keeping him in humor to do church work. The sensitive plant is found in political circles. The candidates must handle him with gloves. The sensitive plant is found in all avenues of human activity. Most generally he is a nuisance. Don't be one.—Columbia Herald.

An Awful Realization.
First Tramp (shuddering with terror and clasping his companion's arm)—Say, Ike, look at wot that there sign says, I wisht ye would! Second Tramp—Wot sign, Aleck? First Tramp—W'y, that there sign on de big brick buildin'. It says "Iron works." Ike, an' w'e've got iron in our blood! I wonder if w'e wotkin' now.—Chicago News.

A Craven's Haven.
Mrs. Hicks (relating burglar scare)—Yes, I heard a noise and got up, and there under the bed I saw a man's leg. Mrs. Wicks—Mersey! The burglar's "No; my husband's. He had heard the noise too."—Boston Transcript.
