

Buy Hair at Auction?

At any rate, you seem to be getting rid of it on auction-sale principles: "going, going, g-o-n-e!" Stop the auction with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It certainly checks falling hair; no mistake about this. It acts as a regular medicine; makes the scalp healthy. Then you must have healthy hair, for it's nature's way.

The best kind of a testimonial—

Mrs. A. J. Halpin, of Crockett, Calif., sister of the late Chas. T. Thompson, who came here a few weeks ago, to look after the interests of her deceased brother, received a telegram last Saturday that she was wanted at home, and she left for Crockett on Monday morning's southern stage.

Walter Banister and Mr. Raker, nephew of Judge Raker of Alturas, came up from there first of the week. They will spend a few days at Paisley, where Mr. Banister will visit his parents, before returning to Alturas. Walter has just finished a commercial course in the high school at Alturas.

The people of the north end of town ought to have some kind of fire protection; they are taxpayers, and are entitled to the same protection that is accorded taxpayers in any other section of the town. They pay their proportion of the expense of protection, such as buying hose, etc. In case of a fire in the north end of town, a building would burn down before the hose cart could be taken there. There is not enough hose to reach from the last fire plug to the furthest house in the north end. What I would like to ask, and I believe my neighbors will join in the request, is that one or two fire plugs be placed in the north end of town, and sufficient hose placed there to reach to the remotest dwelling inside the city limits.

The hose to be left there for use in case of fire.
