LAND OFFICE BLOCK

LAKEVIEW, OREGON

Final Proof Notice

Land Office at Lakeview, Oregon, June 11 1907.

Notice is hereby given that D. B. Conrad, of Klamath County Oregon, has filed notice of his intention to make final five year proof in support of his claim, viz: Homestead Entry No. 2202 made Sept. 7, 1900, for the S 1/2, N 1/2 Section 24, Township 34 S, Range 15 E, W. M., and that said proof will be made before Register and Receiver, at Lakeview Oregon, on 25th day of July, 1907. He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon, and cultivation of, the land, viz: J. B. McDonald, John Elder, G. W. Goolley, H. A. Brattain, all of Paisley Oregon. J. N. Watson, Register.

Remarkable Rescue.

That truth is stranger than fiction, has once more been demonstrated in the little town of Fedora, Tenn., the residence of C. V. Pepper. He writes: "I was in bed, entirely disabled with hemorrhages of the lungs and throat. Doctors failed to help me, and all hope had fled when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Then instant relief came. The coughing soon ceased; the bleeding diminished rapidly, and in three weeks I was able to go to work." Guaranteed cures for coughs and colds. 50c. and $1.00 at Lee Bealls drug store, trial bottle free.

Bad Harvey arrived last Saturday from Madeline with S. O. Cressler's automobile. The machine was unloaded Sunday at Mr. Cressler's residence, amidst a crowd of spectators. When the choo choo wagon was put in tune Sam took several spins about town, giving those who desired a ride. The machine is a Buick, one of the best made. It cost Sam about $1400 in San Francisco. It is a 22 horse power machine.

The time comes every summer in Lakeview, when the married men must either wear all the clothes they have or hide the surplus to prevent their wives from trading them to the Yanjux Indian for baskets. That time has arrived this season a little early, and if the men don't get their eyes open they will find themselves without clothes some day, and a stack of Indian Baskets in the corner of the parlor.
