

The question of selecting a store is too important to be decided without mature deliberation.

Buying your goods in the Right store means a great deal to you, whether you buy much or little.

So successfully has this store always met the most exacting requirements of other Customers, we feel justified in believing that it will meet yours Equally as well.

We make it a point to see that you are satisfied in every way with the goods we sell, and this insures your coming back. You'll always find Our prices as reasonable as we can make them.

LAND OFFICE BLOCK

LAKEVIEW, OREGON

United States Land Office, Lakeview, Oregon, June 27, 1907.
Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 8, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the states of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory," as extended to all the public land States by act of August 4, 1892, Elmer Harvey, of Lakeview, county of Lake, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement, No. 3735, for the purchase of the E1/2 SW1/4 of Section No. 28, in Township No. 33 S, Range No. 29 E W M, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before Register and Receiver at Lakeview Oregon, on Friday the 6th day of September, 1907.
He names as witnesses:
Dick J. Wilcox, Phil Mulkey, Tom Afford, and Nathan Wilcox all of Lakeview, Oregon.
Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 6th day of Sept., 1907.
J. N. Waldron, Register.

F. M. Chrisman came down from Silver Lake Tuesday.

The State Board has formally authorized the purchase of the Coleman, Miller, Simpson and adjoining tracts southeast of Salem as a site for the new home for the feeble minded. The farms aggregate 538 acres and will cost an average of about $75 an acre. The Board will be compelled to condemn one tract of 85 acres, as no agreement could be reached with the owner.

Two items published in The Examiner last week, that concerning Mr. Sherer at Silver Lake and the one about F. M. Marion of Laidlaw, should have been credited to The Silver Lake Oregonian, but some how the credit was overlooked. Excuse us, Bro.

The Examiner is coming out a little early this week in order to give the office force a day off, to celebrate the Fourth of July. Newspaper boys seldom have a holiday, unless the day happens to come in a convenient part of the week, so if a news item or two is overlooked please excuse us this time.
The Examiner has received a lot of fancy stationery, paper and envelopes to match, each lot of different color. This class of stationery is the very latest, and used quite extensively, by business men in the large cities. Those of our business men who wish to be up to date should take up the use of high-grade stationery.
The interior of the Ahlstrom harness shop has been undergoing some noticeable changes. A window has been cut in the south side of the building and a bench rigged up for Wm. Gunther. Mr. Ahlstrom is now working four men, besides what little he does himself.

WEEKLY WEATHER REPORT.

Below we give a report of the weather as recorded by the Government weather bureau station at The Examiner Office. This report is changed each week, and if our readers wish to keep a yearly record of weather conditions for future reference, cut out the report along the black line and paste it in a scrap book one week after another. This record will be taken on Tuesday to end each week and begin on Wednesday for the next week. Government Weather Bureau Station at Lakeview, Oregon.
