LAKEVIEW, OREGON, JULY 25, 1907

Anarchist Conference

Anarchist groups all over Europe have issued a secret summons to their comrades in different countries to send delegates to an international congress to be held at Amsterdam from August 28 to 31 to promote the attainment of anarchism among all civilized nations.

Great importance is attributed in anarchistic circles to the congress. John Turner of London and Monette of Paris will speak on the necessity of permeating trades unions with anarchistic doctrines.

Jasper Jennings, who was convicted of the murder of his father two years ago and sent to the penitentiary and afterwards returned to Grants Pass to await a new trial, has proven to be a desirable prisoner.

There has been rumors afloat in the West where new National forests have been created that the government would advance the grazing fees next year.

The Telegraphers' strike in San Francisco and Oakland has been settled after one month out.

France and Japan are said to have entered into an agreement which is termed a kind of Asiatic Monroe doctrine over a vast region, which for a while threatened to be the center of the world policy.

San Francisco traveling men who visit Lakeview regard a conflict between the United States and Japan as far remote.
