WEEKLY WEATHER REPORT.

Below we give a report of the weather as recorded by the Government weather bureau station at The Examiner Office. This report is changed each week, and if our readers wish to keep a yearly record of weather conditions for future reference, cut out the report along the black line and paste it in a scrap book one week after another. This record will be taken on Tuesday to end each week and begin on Wednesday for the next week Government Weather Bureau Station at Lakeview, Oregon.

Educates for success in a short time and at small expense, and sends each student to a position as soon as competent. Quality is our motto, and reputation for thorough work brings us over 100 calls per month for office help. Individual instruction insures rapid progress. We teach the loose leaf, the card index, the voucher and other modern methods of bookkeeping. Chartier is our shorthand; easy, rapid, legible. Beautiful catalogue, business forms and penmanship free—write today. References: any merchant, any bank, any newspaper in Portland.

Bill Carter was over from the West Side Monday. He has finished thrashing and had a thousand bushels of grain on his little ranch.
J. F. Clarkson, who has been sick for a long time, started for Shovel Creek Tuesday afternoon to try the hot springs at that place.
J. Frankl returned from Logan, Utah, last Sunday evening, where he has been visiting his family since leaving Lakeview a few weeks ago.

Owing to the overcrowded condition of the primary department of our school the School Board has decided to receive no beginners after October 7th.
Denis O'Conner, who has been at Tule Lake for two years with C. E. Sherlock's sheep, came over to town this week. He will return in a day or two.
