Lakeview has been taxed to its utmost capacity the past week to furnish a daily sensation for the entertainment of our visitors.

Last week J. K. Banister passed through town with 50 head of stock cattle, which he had purchased from A. M. Smith, of Pine Creek.

Everett Whetstone, of Bly came over from there last week, to form in line in front of the land office to secure filing on a homestead.

The O'Malley Sisters show was well patronized, and they gave a good performance. The O'Malley Sisters are always welcome to Lakeview.

I am agent for the Sacramento Bee, the best daily paper on the Coast. Wm. Wallace, at the Furniture Store. 33-11

Frank H. Marion, the timber cruiser of Laidlaw, Oregon, who has been cruising in Northern Lake county for the past year, arrived in Lakeview Monday.

Mr. C. A. Jensen, a typo, who has been employed on the Klamath Falls papers, spent the past two weeks in Lakeview and indulged in the line-up at the land office.

A stranger remarked to an Examiner reporter a few days ago that Lakeview was the best town he had ever been in; that it supplied something sensational everyday.

Si Henderson, who has a band of sheep on the desert for the winter, returned to camp first of this week, after spending several days in town preparing the family for the winter.

Ed. Tatro brought in a load of fine cabbage Tuesday, and sold it out. Out of the load he picked one and left it with The Examiner office on exhibition. It weighs 24 pounds, trimmed.

The Overland Banking Realty Co. invite all persons passing through Reno to call and see their display of products of the soil. Both mineral and vegetable. Also to invest in good dirt. 43-11

It would be a task beyond our capacity to give all the names of visitors to Lakeview since our last issue, so numerous have they been, but to say that they were all here, would not miss it much.

LOST:--Ladies' small gold watch, with piece of chain attached. Either in Lakeview or between the Venator ranch and town. Finder please return to the Examiner Office and receive reward of $10.

Forest Rangers Musgrave and Leavitt have returned from Roseburg where they went to attend a meeting of the forest rangers of the state. Mr. Leavitt was honored at the meeting by being elected chairman.

Quite a number of strangers have remarked since being in Lakeview, "I have always heard that this was a dry country, but I find that the impression given out is not true. Why I don't see why you want irrigation here."

Mr. H. C. Fleming, the Pine Creek fruit grower, last Saturday brought a few samples of apples up from his ranch that simply can't be beaten in any country. The fruit is on exhibit at the office of Drenkel & Paine, real estate dealers.

Mrs. L. N. Kelsay and little son Lestou, were the guests for a few days of Mrs. J. Simmons of this city, on their way to Paisley to visit Mrs. Kelsay's mother. Mrs. Nettie Sherlock, Les is working in Portland, where they have been residing for some time.

T. F. Stanley, of Paisley, has them all "skinned" for big turnips. He sent to The Examiner office this week two of the largest turnips we have ever seen. One measures 51 inches around and weighs 31 pounds, and the other measures 42 inches around and weighs 24 1/2 pounds.

Harry Riggs came in from Warner Tuesday with 6,000 pounds of salt. While coming down the Warner canyon, he jumped off the wagon, and his foot caught on the brake, throwing him under the wagon, and the wheels passed over his leg. It was a miracle that his leg was not cut off.

J. S. McLaughlin, who has been at Aumsville, Oregon, for the past two or three years, returned to Lake county last week. His family, however, will not come till next spring.

Mr. McLaughlin drove three head of full blood Jersey heifers and a Jersey bull home with him, and will raise some fine milk cows.

Miss Wright, of Silver Lake, who drew straws for a timber claim, in the Sican country, and had every assurance of getting a clear filing, was disappointed when she came to the land office to learn that a woman under age of twenty-one could not file on a homestead, and after making extensive improvements on the place and residing there for a month, had to give it up.

OUR FACULTY IS STRONGER THAN EVER

We have just secured the services of two high-salaried, practical, men, as well as leading business educators, from the East. We leave no stone unturned. We are now giving you the best that money can procure.

H. W. BEHNKE, PRES. SEND FOR CATALOGUE L. M. WALKER, PRIN.

Mr. W. C. Neff, head forest ranger for the Goose Lake National Forest, received the news last week that he had fallen heir to a large estate. His great uncle, in New York died recently, leaving an estate amounting to $300,000 in cash and a large amount of property. Mr. Neff does not know yet just how much his share of the estate will be. His address has unknown to the administrators of the estate, until recently, but now that he has been located, the estate will be settled up and each heir receive his portion. Mr. Neff's share will amount to a neat little fortune.

E. H. Loftus, the Windy Hollow mining man, came over from there last week enroute to his California home, where his family resides. Mr. Loftus will spend the winter in California, returning here in the spring to work his mines. He looks for some thing doing there in the next year, and from the prospects that come from there now, no one doubts his prophecies.

Mr. A. A. Hibbard, the Reno man, said these were by far the largest turnips he ever saw, and he wanted one to take to Reno to put on exhibit in the Overland Banking Realty Co. Lake county will be surprised to see the effect of such an exhibit as Mr. Hibbard is preparing from this country. Thousands of people pass through Reno every week coming West to look for home and see the exhibits at the Overland.
