

Help! Help! I'm Falling

Thus cried the hair. And a kind neighbor came to the rescue with a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor. The hair was saved! This was because Ayer's Hair Vigor is a regular hair medicine. Falling hair is caused by a germ, and this medicine completely destroys these germs. Then the healthy scalp gives rich, healthy hair.

Mr. Higby, the special agent of the general land office, who has been in Lakeview for the past two weeks, left for his headquarters at Portland, Monday morning. Mr. Higby came here on a general tour of the land offices of the state, and owing to the big rush that was coming on at this office at the opening of the reserve, the general land office notified him to remain here till the rush was over.

Ike Kent, who has been tending bar at the hotel for the past several months, left Tuesday morning, in company with S. B. Chandler, for Roseburg, where Mr. Kent goes to see about perfecting a patent on a new-fangled monkey wrench which he invented. He expects to make arrangements to have the wrench manufactured, and put on the market. At least this is the excuse given by Ike for the trip. Mr. Kent has had a constant correspondent at Roseburg for some time, and it is believed by some that there is no "monkey" business about it, and that he will bring back a wife with him, when he returns in a couple of weeks.

In order that no misunderstanding will be had or any one misled as a result of the two land decisions, published in The Examiner, one last week and one the week before, as the latter one had no date printed, we will state that the decision published in our issue of Oct. 24 was a later decision than the one published on Oct. 31.

Had we known when the first decision was received at the office we should have been very glad to have published it when it first came, but we did not learn of its existence until after we had published the later one. The date the decision published on Oct. 31, was rendered by the department was August 8, while the one published on Oct. 24 was rendered in September.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O.

Death of Jean Tonningesen.

Died:—November 1st, 1907, Miss Jean Tonningesen, Aged twenty years, ten months and fifteen days. Born at Fort Bidwell, California.

"God touched her with His finger and she slept".
The sudden death of Jean Tonningesen, was a shock to every home in Lakeview. Just a short three weeks before, she returned to her home, with happy greetings to her many friends, and was the picture of bright healthy girlhood. When she was suddenly taken ill, with inflammatory rheumatism which at the last went to her heart, no one dreamed of the sad ending, and even now we can scarcely realize that the young life has gone out, from earth.

Death is sad at all times, but when a young girl, just in the bloom of youth, with a life full of rich promises is taken, it is doubly so. Jean was beloved by all for her sweet disposition, and kindly manner. She was a quiet, thoughtful girl, a true friend, and her devotion to those she loved would make a bright chapter in any life. Nothing but the thought of the loving Hand that has removed her can reconcile us to her absence. While she has gone from the scenes, the conflicts, the sorrows and pleasures of life, she will still live in the hearts of those who knew her best. She was a kind and loving daughter, and her devotion to the family circle had no limit. Her future was full of promise, and we dare not ask why she was taken from us in her bloom, unless, as flowers are picked before the frost finds them that we may not witness their decay. It is sad, to see one so well equipped for life taken so unexpectedly. Many aching hearts tell of her popularity. On passing along the streets, the day of her death, men, women and children were met, with weeping eyes. This was her home; here she played as a child, developed into beautiful girlhood. In this, dearest of all places to her, it seems she returned to die.

The funeral services took place at the Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. A. J. Armstrong officiated and paid a loving tribute to her memory. The church was crowded to the doors with sorrowing friends, and not an eye was dry. Strong men, when passing the casket for a last look at the sweet young face, broke down and wept bitterly.

The Altar was a mass of beautiful flowers, and the casket was completely covered with floral offerings. The services at the grave were under the auspices of the Rebekahs, the deceased being one of them. The pall bearers were: George Boone, A. Storkman, Eph. Miller, Frank Morine, Harry Heryford, and Bert Snyder, all dear young friends, and carrying her tenderly, and with weeping eyes. The honorary pall bearers were schoolmates of Jean, and their hearts seemed almost breaking as they followed their dear friend to the grave. They were all in pure white. These - chums and schoolmates, who welcomed her so eagerly, and now followed her to her last resting place were: Marie Paxton, May Snider, Lulu McKendree, Josie Storkman, Nell Simpson, Genie Snelling.

To the sorrowing family we extend our heartfelt sympathy. To the father, whose life has been bound up in his little motherless children, this breaking of the circle seems a cruel thing, but God knows best. He who "has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows" will comfort and sustain. The four sisters, Carrie, (who is now Mrs. Manning of Spokane Wash,) Fannie, Annie and Isla, and one brother Carl, will miss her sorely, and our hearts go out to them in their bitter grief. Their mother died about six years ago. It can well be said of dear Jean "None knew her but to love her".

"Then fell upon the home a sudden gloom,
A shadow on those features fair and thin,
And softly, from that hushed and darkened room,
Two angels issued, where but one went in."

Jonas King says that his ru naway episode in Camas prairie two weeks ago just cost him $25. He thinks he got off very lucky.

A Significant Prayer.
"May the Lord help you make Buckin's Arinca Salve known to all," writes J. G. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. It quickly took the pain out of a felon for me and cured it in a wonderfully short time." Best on earth for sores, burns and wounds. 25c. at Lee Beall's drug store.

Make It Yourself.

There is so much Rheumatism here in our neighborhood now that the following advice by an eminent authority, who writes for readers of a large Eastern daily paper, will be highly appreciated by those who suffer:

Get from any pharmacy one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon, three ounces of Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Shake these well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime; also drink plenty of water.

It is claimed that there are few victims of this dread and torturous disease who will fail to find ready relief in this simple home-made mixture, and in most cases a permanent cure is the result.

This simple recipe is said to strengthen and cleanse the eliminative tissues of the Kidneys so that they can filter and strain from the blood and system the poisons, acids and waste matter, which causes not only Rheumatism, but numerous other diseases. Every man or woman here who feels that their kidneys are not healthy and active, or who suffers from any urinary trouble whatever, should not hesitate to make up this mixture, as it is certain to do much good, and may save you from much misery and suffering after while.

Our home druggists say they will either supply the ingredients or mix the prescription ready to take if our readers ask them.

William H. Johnson, for many years a resident of Lake county, passed through Lakeview Tuesday on his way to Alturas, where he has located. Mr. Johnson has purchased the blacksmith shop in Alturas, and says he now owns the only shop in that town, and while he has a monopoly, he has put the price of blacksmith work down to the very lowest possible figure. He has conducted shops at Paisley and at Silver Lake and is said to be a good workman. We wish Mr. Johnson success in his new home.

There was quite an epidemic of grip in town last week, as a result of the continued inclement weather, but no serious cases were reported that we have heard of, and all are on the mend or have entirely recovered with the coming of fine weather again.
