Rehart writes The Examiner from Chicago to send his paper to him at Oak Park, 329, Superior St., a suburb of Chicago. The Misses Dobkins, two of Paisley's fair young ladies, spent a few days in Lakeview last week, the guests of Mrs. Warner Snider. Mrs. P. M. Miller entertained a few old-time friends of Miss Marie McMellon, informally last Thursday afternoon in her honor. Lee Beall has been seriously ill with typhoid fever for the past two weeks and is yet in a serious condition. John Blair is nursing him. Miss Marie McMellon, of Klamath Falls, once a Lakeview girl, visited this city several days last week. Her many friends here were pleased to meet her. On Friday December 6th, the Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. Church will give a Bazar. Every one invited to assist in making the affair a success. Remember the date. 1f EVERYBODY IS INVITED to the Opening of Mrs. Neilson's New Store, "THE LA MODE", Saturday, November 9th, 1907. The ideal store for Women and Children. Philip Lynch starts today for Old Ireland, for a six months' visit and business trip. He will sail from New York on November 16, on the Cunard liner, Lusitania, the fastest steamer afloat. The Overland Banking Realty Co. invite all persons passing through Reno to call and see their display of products of the soil. Both mineral and vegetable. Also to invest in good dirt. 43-1f W. Y. Miller and family, who have been here from Paisley on a visit for a week past, went to Pine Creek last Sunday to pay that burg a visit. They returned to their home at Paisley Tuesday. The Examiner is in receipt of a season ticket to the great horse show to be given in Portland this month. However, we are not prepared to attend, and wouldn't look in place in a horse show, anyway. E. L. Rains made a trip to Alturas, this week after a load of flour. He brought back some of the finest cider that we have ever dropped our lip over for some time from S. J. Duttons place at Davis Creek. There was no South mail yesterday morning, when two days mail should have arrived. We understand that the engine tipped off the track near Lakeview, thus delaying the south mails. The letter mail is about all the people here care about any more, as all papers coming from the south are old and stale by the time they reach Lakeview, anyway. J. Wendell and family departed Monday for the lower country, where they go to seek a new location. Mr. Wendell has done well here and made many friends during his five or six year's residence in the town. He will be back here in about three months in case he gets a fling on the track of timber land which he made application for last week. Mr. Asmus Tonningsen went to Bly Tuesday to meet Mrs. A. W. Manning, who is here for a visit for a few weeks with her father, Mr. Chas. Tonningsen, and family. Mrs. Manning's home is in Spokane Washington. She started for Lakeview immediately upon receipt of the telegram telling her of her sister, Jean's death, but could not reach here in time for the funeral. J. F. Salcido, an old newspaper man, of Klamath county, spent yesterday in Lakeview, from the railroad surveying camp in Drews valley. He says the surveyors are camped where Drews creek leaves the valley, and will come down the creek through the "Tick Ridge" country. They will be in Lakeview in about ten days. Mr. Salcido established the Bonanza Bulletin. Yes, its "The La Mode" that's attracting so much attention just now. Opening Day, Saturday, Nov. 9th, 1907. Easy Natural, Graceful, Perfect fitting are the Corsets shown at "The La Mode". 1

A. P. Konzer came to town yesterday from the West Side, with a load of vegetables. He left a sample of his fine potatoes at this office, also a large carrot, which is a wonder, not only for its size but for its peculiar shape.

Funny, how many people go on "fishing trips" these days; rather cold, and then too, they go to such queer places to fish. But if they are like us, they can catch as many fish in the sage brush or timber, as in the water.

T. M. Peters, who has been employed as stenographer for L. E. Conn for some months, and M. Moore, who has been in The Examiner office the past summer, left for Portland yesterday. The boys will go East after a short stay in Portland.

I want YOU to visit my new store "The La Mode", because I know you will appreciate the pains I have taken in selecting my NEW STOCK.

Anna M. Neilson.

Clayton Kissell and L. S. Ascoug, who have been in Lake county for a month past for timber land, departed for their home at Colorado City yesterday morning. They made flings on 100 acres each of timber land in the Drews valley mountains.

Dr. J. S. Dewey went to Reno last week to investigate the bargains offered by the Overland Banking Realty Co., in real estate between Reno and Sparks, advertised in The Examiner. If Dr. Dewey is suited he will likely invest in some of this property.

C. E. Campbell and wife and Mrs. Wingfield, mother of Mrs. Campbell, left for Auburn, Calif., last week, where they will make their future home. Mr. Campbell has resided at Paisley for many years, and that community loses a substantial citizen when he leaves it.

Geo. Cooley, proprietor of the Pioneer Saloon at Paisley, came down from there Tuesday to take out a liquor license at the present term of county court.
