What the American People Want to Know.

By HERMAN J. RIDGWAY, Publisher of Everybody's Magazine.

THE biography of unrest is the history of PROGRESS—yesterday an idea, today a custom, tomorrow more.

A hundred years ago the unrest was political. THE UNREST OF SOCIETY TODAY IS CAUSED BY THE INEQUALITIES AND EVILS THAT GROW OUT OF THE CONCENTRATION OF WEALTH. THE RESTLESS MEMBERS OF SOCIETY SAY, "WE WANT TO KNOW HOW A FEW MEN MAKE SUCH HUGE FORTUNES WHILE THE VAST MAJORITY OF US ARE STRUGGLING TO KEEP SOUL AND BODY TOGETHER."

We want to know why the Wall street game is not played ON THE LEVEL, so that a man can invest his savings with some assurance that he will at least get back the principal.

We want to know what right the few have to borrow our savings to build railroads, take our grants of public land along the tracks and then, instead of letting us share in their prosperity by reducing passenger and freight rates, POUR WATER INTO THE CAPITAL AND COMPEL US TO PAY INTEREST ON DOUBLE OR QUADRUPLE THE ORIGINAL CAPITALIZATION. Not only that, but we want to know why they make SPECIAL RATES TO SIDE PARTNERS, enabling them to kill off competitors, with the result that many of the actual necessities of life are put almost beyond our reach. Not only that, but why in some instances where monopoly exists THE QUALITY OF FOOD AND SUPPLIES IS INFERIOR TO WHAT IT WAS BEFORE MONOPOLY, leaving us the choice of taking the inferior article or going without—not only that, but why when we pay so high a toll for travel we must risk our lives in tinder box coaches running on imitation steel rails.

We want to know why our subways and trolleys and gas plants should make some men millionaires and at the same time give the multitude such execrable service.

We want to know why the enormous reserves in the insurance companies should be available to this group or that group of financiers for gambling purposes.

WHY ARE LITTLE CHILDREN WORKING IN OUR MILLS WHEN THEY OUGHT TO BE IN SCHOOL? WHY MUST WOMEN TOIL IN OUR FACTORIES WHEN THEY OUGHT TO BE REARING A HEALTHY RACE?

Why are there sweatshops and slums? What or who is responsible for so many strikes and lockouts and boycotts?

Why should one hundred thousand families scrimp and slave in order that ONE family may have a paradise of parks and palaces, more money than is good for it, more than it can possibly spend?

THESE ARE SOME OF THE QUESTIONS THE RESTLESS PART OF SOCIETY IS ASKING. THIS IS THE SOCIAL UNREST OF OUR TIME.

"WON'T YOU SIT DOWN?"

Strange, isn't it, that he hesitates? —Bradley in Chicago News.

WELCOME!
