COMPOUND INTEREST

The trouble with most advertisers is that they expect immediate returns of large proportions. One prominent advertiser illustrates the principle of advertising in this way:

"The money expended for advertising is the same as if placed at interest. The profits from the advertising are virtually the interest on the investment."

"The sums spent for advertising are properly chargeable to capital account because the resulting good will is something that has value, which, if the advertising has been properly done, can usually be sold for the face value of the investment."

"Just as the quickest way to increase invested wealth is by compounding the interest, just so the quickest way to realize results from advertising is to compound the returns."—Advertising Experience.

Advertisers get good returns on the amount invested in our columns. We reach the people.

SNAPSHOTS OF FASHION.

Materials and Colors That Will Be Worn in the Fall—Striped Effects.
In the fall the colors worn will be dark ones. Tans and grays have outlived their popularity and will be superseded by somber colors, principally dark green.
Plain effects will be most in evidence, and if any stripes, checks or plaids are worn they will be dressiest in herringbone weaves. The only exception to this rule will be the Scotch effects, which will be worn to some extent, but not by those who endeavor to keep strictly up to date.
The popular stripes of the autumn will be of the invariable variety and set against a dark background.
Broadcloth in somber colors will hold its own, as will also serges, worsted knittings, velvets, velveteens and corduroys. Chiffon panamas and voiles will also be much affected, but collonnes will not be so much used.

One button silk gloves for men are shown. They come in black, tan and gray and are much more comfortable for wear in hot weather than the heavy kid.
Bow ties, stocks and belts of linen in shades to match the fancy hose are affected by many women. The parrot green tie, belt and hose worn with white canvas pumps made one woman's simple costume of white linen appear gay.
The gown in the cut is fashioned of rose linen, with hand embroidery done in white. The chemisette is of inserted tucking.

AUTO TOGGERY.

A New Motor Veil—Coat Trimming and Dainty Traveling Bag.
It is no longer a question of an auto coat, but is one of "auto coats" with the woman who motors. For the long tour the leather coat remains a favorite even in summer if the ride is not taken in a very hot climate. For hot days there are coats of various waterproofed fabrics such as Scotch serge and melton, which are as smart and very effective in protecting the motorist from the sun's rays as the old-fashioned motor coat. These are made in a variety of styles, some with a wide collar and some with a high collar. The latter is especially smart in the double-breasted and buttoned variety. The former is especially smart in the buttoned variety.

drooped down over the hat, with the center in exactly the center of the crown and the ends brought forward and knotted coquettishly on the left side.
The auto bag is a great convenience to every woman who motors. This is a sort of giant pocketbook, and it really has enough fittings in the toilet line to last over several days' stay. These bags are to be had ready fitted or may have adjustable fittings that slip into any bag of the right size.
The coat illustrated is a modified kimono style. There are plaits both back and front which provide abundant fullness and long, graceful lines, while there are the characteristic sleeves cut in one with the coat.

Woman's Right to Her Own Career.

By Mrs. STUYVESANT FISH, New York Society Leader.

I CERTAINLY disagree MOST EMPHATICALLY with any one who makes the assertion that girls should take positions of servants rather than enter the business world with man. Nothing can ever convince me that woman's brain is inferior to man's. It is my belief that nature intended woman to be man's EQUAL.

To say that women have no place in business or the professions, or to say that they should abandon every ambition except that of becoming wives and housekeepers, implies that the feminine brain is inferior to the masculine. I shall never admit that, for I do not believe it. Woman is wholly man's equal mentally. THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN HER MIND AND HIS IS SIMPLY A DIFFERENCE IN QUALITY. Woman has the intuitive quality, man the rational. That is all. She certainly has as much right to a business or intellectual career as he has.

I would rather be a great actress or writer or artist than have all the wealth and social position I could command, because the woman with a profession has achieved something—she lives a life of GROWTH AND POWER.

IT IS ALL A MISTAKE—THE TRADITION THAT KEEPS WOMAN DOWN AND INSISTS SHE IS ABLE TO FILL ONLY ONE PLACE. THAT OF THE DOMESTIC, THE HOUSEKEEPER. IT IS A GREAT MISTAKE TO INSIST THAT MARRIAGE IS THE END AND AIM OF EXISTENCE.

That is all wrong. A girl should be taught first to develop the best in herself—her mind. It rests with the individual woman entirely. I firmly believe that a woman may become anything she wills to become. I believe that the great force, the one eternal energy which we call God, is at the command of every human being. Any woman who has it in her to progress can by summoning God to her aid RISE TO ANY HEIGHT she desires in this world.

Understand me, I do not at all approve the masculine woman. But I do think woman should insist upon following her own leading as to a career.

WOMAN IS EVERY BIT AS ABLE TO SHINE IN THE ARTS AND PROFESSIONS AND IN BUSINESS AS MAN. THE REASON SHE HAS NOT DONE IT IN THE PAST IS THAT SHE PERMITTED MAN TO PRESCRIBE HER LIFE FOR HER. SHE HAS BEEN SUBSERVIENT TO HIM. NOW SHE MUST FREE HERSELF.

Display by Rich Causes Envy and Hatred.

By ROSE PASTOR STOKES, New York Sociologist.

OSTENTATION ROUSES THE SENSE OF OPPRESSION AMONG THOSE WHO KNOW THEMSELVES DESPOILED and causes that feeling on the part of many who are poor which leads them as the rich to regard adornment and the means for its enjoyment as MORE IMPORTANT THAN HONEST LIFE, thus leading many also to be guided rather by desire for gratification and indulgence than by consideration of what is just and fair and advantageous to all concerned and separating the individual from the social whole, developing selfishness and laying the foundation for later bitterness and ill will.

Squalid tenements are often the property of ostentatious people, who have taken no part in creating the incomes they spend in IDLE AND LUXURIOUS LIVING. The fact that of each day's or month's wages ONE THIRD must be handed over regularly to the agents of those who live in luxury and splendor at the cost of others is responsible probably for more bitter class feeling than all other causes combined.

Absentee landlords living on the fashionable streets of our cities, who through counsel or through taxpayers' associations oppose all legislation that is in the interest of COMMON DECENCY FOR THE WORKERS, and absentee stockholders living in luxury on incomes acquired by appropriating without productive service a large share of the wealth which the workers CREATE have a vastly larger influence in creating bitterness and the ignoble type of class feeling through apparent indifference to the wrongs and rights of their fellow beings than have all the demagogues together.

When people read of big donations to some popular charities by a powerful financier or by some fashionable woman in society who through MONOPOLY OF SOME OF THE NECESSARY MEANS OF LIFE taxes the people almost beyond endurance feeling becomes intensified.

IN THE GREAT MAJORITY OF INSTANCES THE GIVING AND TAKING OF CHARITY BETWEEN RICH AND POOR ARE NOT ONLY HARMFUL, BUT DANGEROUS, AS BOTH SIDES ARE TOO EASILY SATISFIED BY SUCH MEANS AND BLINDED TO THE INJUSTICE UNDERLYING THE NECESSITY FOR CHARITY OF THIS SORT.

More Transportation Facilities Imperatively Needed.

By Chairman MARTIN A. KNAPP of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

NOTHING seems to me more important at the present time, nothing has so much to do with our national prosperity in the immediate future, as to provide with the least possible delay A VERY GREAT INCREASE IN OUR TRANSPORTATION FACILITIES. The profitable output of the farm, the forest and the factory is measured by the ability to move the product promptly and cheaply from producer to consumer. Upon an increase of profitable production depends our CONTINUED ADVANCE in material wealth, and that increased production must in turn depend upon enlarged facilities for their distribution.

The needs of the country in this regard are growing with astonishing rapidity. They have OUTGROWN the carrying capacity of our railroads. The surplus from current operations is entirely inadequate to supply our present necessities.

AN IMMENSE AMOUNT OF FRESH CAPITAL MUST BE INVESTED IN RAILWAY IMPROVEMENTS IN ORDER THAT OUR INTERNAL COMMERCE MAY DEVELOP AND OUR PROSPERITY ABIDE.
