

It Quiets the Cough

This is one reason why Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is so valuable in consumption. It stops the wear and tear of useless coughing. But it does more—it controls the inflammation, quiets the fever, soothes, heals. Ask your doctor about this.

Mr. Ulas Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, of this place, who has been here on a visit for a few weeks, received a telegram Monday, calling him to his business at Woodland, Cal. Mr. Wallace is a trombonist of great ability, and had consented to help the Lakeview band out with its concert, which the band gave last evening, but his sudden call home made it impossible to do so, which was greatly regretted, as the trombone solo he was to have played was looked forward to with great interest.

When an eminent authority announced in the Scranton Pa. Times that he had found a new way to treat that dread American disease, Rheumatism, with just common everyday drugs found in any drug store, the physicians were slow indeed to attach much importance to his claim. This was only a few months ago. Today nearly every newspaper in the country, even the metropolitan dailies, is announcing it and the splendid results achieved. It is so simple that any one can prepare it at home at small cost. It is made up as follows: Get from any good prescription pharmacy Fluid Extract Dandelion, one half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bed time. These are all simple ingredients, making an absolutely harmless remedy at little cost.

Rheumatism, as every one knows, is a symptom of deranged kidneys. It is a condition produced by the failure of the kidneys to properly filter or strain from the blood the uric acid and other matter which if not eradicated, either in the urine or in the skin pores, remains in the blood, decomposes and forms about the joints and muscles, causing the untold suffering and deformity of rheumatism.

This prescription is said to be a splendid healing, cleansing and invigorating tonic to the kidneys, and gives almost immediate relief in all forms of bladder and urinary trouble and headache.

He also warns people in a leading New York paper against the discriminate use of many patent medicines.

MUCH THANKS.

She sat beside me at the play.
I knew her not at all,
But in a coy and careless way
She let her hatpins fall
Beneath the seat between my feet.
Of course I had to crawl.

And as I handed them to her
(Ah, happy finger touch!)
She said to me, she said, said she,
"Oh, thank you—very much!"

She stood beside me in the car,
And we were strangers quite,
I wasn't going very far,
And so I thought I might
Give up my seat to rest her feet.
(Now, wasn't that polite?)

As from the overhanging strap
She loosed her frantic clutch
She said to me, she said, said she,
"Oh, thank you—very much!"

She passed me on the avenue,
As promenaders pass,
Her dainty kerchief, dotted blue
And airy light as gas,
She dropped behind, I strove to find,
And found it for the lass.

And as I placed it in her hand,
Profaned with gutter smutch,
She said to me, she said, said she,
"Oh, thank you—very much!"

Now, this was not one woman lone,
But these were ladies three,
And many more from zone to zone
Have thus been served by me
And other men who're helpful when
They cannot help but be.

And ever thus we get their thanks
(It surely beats the Dutch),
They always say them this-a-way,
"Oh, thank you—very much!"

I hope some time before I go
To fill a tomb or urn,
The ladies may not thank me so—
For thanks I do not yearn.
Yet if they don't, stay dead I won't—
I surely shall return!

I shall return from out the pit,
And happy one may touch
My ghost and say, the same old way,
"Oh, thank you—very much!"
