An Efficient Candidate.

Now that Mr. H. A. Brattain has consented to be a candidate for the nomination on the Republican ticket for Representative to the Legislature from the Twenty First Representative district, comprising Grant, Crook, Klamath and Lake counties it behooves every Republican to put himself to work to secure the nomination of Mr. Brattain.

Tries to Mislead.

The Silver Lake Oregonian editor would have the people believe, although he must surely know that the impressions he gives out are false, that because The Examiner gets the county printing it stands in with the "powers that be," as he calls everybody who happens to have a little more say in matters than he does.

That paper also finds fault with The Examiner for announcing that the Candidates' column was open to all candidates of all political parties—our contemporary purposely leaves out the word political, in quoting what The Examiner said—but, very well, Bro., we will let that go your way.

The Silver Lake Oregonian takes several drives at The Examiner last week, some of which are too silly for consideration. The editor of the Silver Lake Oregonian might be called a sore-head, if it were not impossible for him to be one.
