LAKEVIEW, OREGON, FEBRUARY 27, 1908

Last Sunday was a peach blossom of a day—a regular spring day. The sun shone bright and warm in a clear, blue sky, and everyone in town, and even people from the neighboring farms were out walking or riding, enjoying the beauties of a fine spring opening. To make the day more ideal, the band discoursed fine music, commencing in front of the band room, where one or two pieces were played, stopping in front of the Hotel Lakeview, and again in front of the Post office, and then to the band stand in the Court yard, where they played several pieces. The crowd that followed the band reminded one of a Fourth of July crowd. Later in the evening a crowd went to the ball ground to see the first ball game of the season.

Advocates of the Single Tax measure contend that the cities would pay 77 per cent of the tax under its provisions. They appeal to the laboring class for support of their measure, telling them that wages will be higher. That might be true, but the laborer would have to pay the excess in wages, and more too, in rent. Taxes on land would be so high that none but the capitalists could afford to own it. The capitalist would build houses for rent and the laborer would have to pay the price. Single tax is a hobby, of fanatical origin, and a humbug.

Forest rangers in the Toiyabe, Toquima and Monitor National Forests have been authorized by the Department to begin a crusade of extermination against the large bands of wild horses which inhabit those reserves. There are said to be 15,000 head of these wild horses, and that the damage done is immense.

General Stoessel who has been on trial in Russia for the surrender of Port Arthur to the Japanese, was, on the 27th, condemned to death for the offence. The military court recommended that the sentence be commuted to 10 years in prison and dismissal from the Russian army.

Light and Harrow have put a new fence around the Hotel back yard. They fenced the big pile of garbage out, so now it lies in the street. The line is drawn now, and who ever falls heir to the big rubbish pile should proceed to at once haul the unsightly thing away.

Senator Fulton in a two page article, refutes all the charges made against him by Henney. This is just what Senator Fulton's friends expected he would do, and he has made as good a showing, and a more reasonable one than Henney made.

Ten tons of dynamite exploded at the Hercules Powder works, 14 miles north of Berkeley on the 20th killing 4 white men and 24 chinamen. The shock fairly tore up the country and shook the entire Bay district like an earthquake.

Horace G. McKinley, the notorious Land man, who was allowed to take a trip to China after he was arrested in Oregon, has been brought back in charge of a Portland detective.

The single tax will drive the land out of the hands of the poor people into the hands of the rich who can afford to erect costly improvements upon it for high rent to the poor.

The substance of the argument in favor of the Single Tax measure is this: Tax land so high that only poor people can afford to own it.

Is property upon which there is a high tax inviting to the investor?
