Tattooing Collars Very Fashionable—A Novelty in Bags.

The woman who makes tattooing can have beautiful collars this winter. The narrow edging on stiff linen is beautiful. Vandyke patterns in tiny rings are pretty when attached to velvet bands.

A lace opera bag is a novelty. It is made by stitching lace butterflies.

THE LATEST SHIRT WAIST, 3316.

A pattern of this shirt waist may be had in seven sizes—from 32 to 42 inches bust measure. Send 10 cents to this office, giving number (3316) and bust measure, and the pattern will be promptly sent to you by mail.

Roses and shamrock leaves to a dull copper colored satin lining. The edge of the bag is bound with a copper colored fold and outlined with one inch lace ruff. The handle is made with gold chains and fastened at the waist with a gold fleur-de-lis pin.

Ribbon work is introduced on evening shoes. Orange blossoms made into rosettes are worn by brides, but it is prettier and newer to have the entire shoes covered with silver embroidery in orange blossom design.

What kind of shirt waists are worn? Is the first question which suggests itself to the feminine mind, for no matter what else may be in order, a goodly supply of these much used garments is absolutely essential. Seldom indeed is the occasion for which they cannot be made to serve, and of course it is always desirable to have as many different styles as possible. The waist illustrated is generally fashioned from wash material and is often trimmed with eyelet or French embroidery.

white osprey. This dressy hat completes one's costume if one is dressing for evening.

It is quite the style this season to wear natural flowers to match one's embroideries. One of the most fetching gowns worn at an evening affair was a white satin embroidered in gardenias. In the corsage was a bunch of the natural flowers, and the same blossoms appeared in the collar. Another young girl wore a frock embroidered in red flowers, while red roses were in her corsage and in her hair.

This stylish double breasted box coat, with or without cuffs, may be easily made at home. It requires but little fitting and will be serviceable for general wear. Broadcloth, serge or chevvyot in dark colors are the most desirable materials from which to make it.
