A Waiting Part.
 One of my friends has a playhouse in her back yard, where all the children of the neighborhood delight to gather.
 One day she went out to see what a crowd of them were doing and found they were playing at "keeping house" very happily, with one exception, her own five-year-old son, who was sitting afar off, rather homesomely, holding a large rag doll.
 "What's the matter, Sydney?" she inquired. "Won't the others play with you?"
 "Oh, I'm playing," he replied. "I'm the stork, but they ain't quite ready for the baby yet!"—Woman's Home Companion.

 Mr. Spider (the agent for the Insects' Prudential)—Why not?
