A POLITICAL MACHINIST

The Silver Lake Leader in its issue that place, under the guise of moving to be held on April 17th, 1908. the county seat, by deveting almost its entire space to a tirade of abuse of the county judge. The feeling but a cloak to hide the ambitions of the Leader to build up a political ma chine so that the "hungry" may te fed at the expense of the taxpayers of the county, and if the present judge could only be displaced, how easy it might be for its editor and the other agitators to formulate such a policy and then select the public officers to carry out the program. We wonder if Mr. Holder would not like to be the county judge himself, and then select his co-owners of the Leader to till the remainder of the county offices. But let us assure Mr. Holder that no such policy shall ever be a part of the affairs of this county, for the reason that the citizenship of Lake county is much too intelligent and too indepen | can voters of Lake county that I am

Mr. Holder must be very innocent if he does not know that the governor of Oregon has at his command $10,000, provided by the legislature of the state, for just such emerpermits any county judge in the state cratic Party at the Primary election to 1908. to offer a reward for any purpose, as be held on April 17th, 1908. all expenditures of public money, over which the county has any jurisdiction, must first be authorized by the county commissoners and the county judge while attending to county business. The county Judge did all that he could under the law, and if he had acted in any other way than that in which he did, the people could, and would have repudiated his actions and retused to pay the reward, if it had been earned. He called a special session of the county court to consider the matter of a reward. But the Lea der finds fault that the court did not meet at once, but the law says that commissioners must be given at least ten days' notice before a special term can be convened. It would be quite useless to follow up each silly excuse that the Leader mentions in order to abuse the County Judge, because every one can see the motive. Mr. Holin Sherman county."
