3600 head of sheep from C. W. Withers, purchased under contract entered into last fall between Mr. Withers and McKendree and D. J. Wilcox. Mr.

wool crop is encouraging. He does not believe the price of wool will be so good this year as last, neither will sheep bring as much. The McKendree and Wilcox sheep will be sheared at the Warner canyon corral about the middle of this month.

Some, in reading the program for the High Mass, Easter, given in the paper this week, may think it strange that the word "Solo" is given, sung by two young ladies, but those who are acquainted with the Mass will understand. The Solo's are part of the mass, just as you would give a name to any other song, but in order to make it easier for the girls, Miss Snelling had the solo's sung as duets, but this did not give the privilege of changing the name.
