HOMESTEADER IS DEFEATED
Decision of Lakeview Office is Reversed.

Actual Residence Not Proven

Homesteaders Must Reside Permanently Upon the Land or They Will Lose It.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has made a report favoring the decision of the former commissioner, Judge R. W. Portis of Lakeview. Judge Portis declared that many of the homesteads had been filed upon, and had been allowed to become actual and patented, and had been sold as homesteads, as if made by the present commissioner, and the Commissioner of the General Land Office has consistently refused to allow the homesteads to be patented.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has made a report favoring the decision of the former commissioner, Judge R. W. Portis of Lakeview. Judge Portis declared that many of the homesteads had been filed upon, and had been allowed to become actual and patented, and had been sold as homesteads, as if made by the present commissioner, and the Commissioner of the General Land Office has consistently refused to allow the homesteads to be patented.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has made a report favoring the decision of the former commissioner, Judge R. W. Portis of Lakeview. Judge Portis declared that many of the homesteads had been filed upon, and had been allowed to become actual and patented, and had been sold as homesteads, as if made by the present commissioner, and the Commissioner of the General Land Office has consistently refused to allow the homesteads to be patented.

PRIVATE CLAIMS OF MINERAL RIGHTS IN LAND

Shawnee City, Kan., Oct. 29

The Shawnee City Board of Commissioners has made a report favoring the decision of the former commissioner, Judge R. W. Portis of Lakeview. Judge Portis declared that many of the homesteads had been filed upon, and had been allowed to become actual and patented, and had been sold as homesteads, as if made by the present commissioner, and the Commissioner of the General Land Office has consistently refused to allow the homesteads to be patented.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has made a report favoring the decision of the former commissioner, Judge R. W. Portis of Lakeview. Judge Portis declared that many of the homesteads had been filed upon, and had been allowed to become actual and patented, and had been sold as homesteads, as if made by the present commissioner, and the Commissioner of the General Land Office has consistently refused to allow the homesteads to be patented.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has made a report favoring the decision of the former commissioner, Judge R. W. Portis of Lakeview. Judge Portis declared that many of the homesteads had been filed upon, and had been allowed to become actual and patented, and had been sold as homesteads, as if made by the present commissioner, and the Commissioner of the General Land Office has consistently refused to allow the homesteads to be patented.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has made a report favoring the decision of the former commissioner, Judge R. W. Portis of Lakeview. Judge Portis declared that many of the homesteads had been filed upon, and had been allowed to become actual and patented, and had been sold as homesteads, as if made by the present commissioner, and the Commissioner of the General Land Office has consistently refused to allow the homesteads to be patented.