WILL KILL STATEMENT NO. 1

The people can do nothing at the election next Monday more dangerous than to vote for the initiative bill instructing representatives and senators in the Legislative Assembly to elect the Candidates for United States Senator receiving the highest number of votes at the general election. Statement No. 1, as it is, is as far as the people can go safely in that direction. A good thing, by its abuse, is rendered as odious as it were erroneous in principle. Sure as the state attempts by law, to destroy the power of the Legislature to elect whom it will, United States Senator, as provided by the Constitution of the United States, they will lose the whole principle of Statement No. 1 and the power which they now have, of placing members of the legislature under moral obligations to elect to the United States Senate, the man of the people's choice. You cannot bring them under legal obligations to do it. The constitution of both the State and the United States provide that the Legislature shall elect Senators. An election in which the electors are without the power to choose, is not an election. Would you take part in the election on the first, if you were instructed for whom you should vote, leaving you without choice? Would you respect a law which took away the right to choose from yourself. The right of the Legislature to choose whom they will elect, is as absolute, under the constitution, as is your own right to choose who you shall vote for members of the Legislature.

By signing Statement No. 1 Candidates for the Legislature and for United States Senator may bring themselves under obligations, morally, to do YOUR will, but you cannot, by law, destroy freedom of voters in the Legislature when electing a United States Senator, any more than you may lawfully take away the electors right of free choice next Monday. Whenever the people pass this bill, Statement No. 1 is doomed. For this very reason. All the old bosses who are put out of a job by Statement No. 1, hope you will vote 326 X Yes. Lake County voter, don't do that. Vote 327 X No, and save the principle of Statement No. 1, which is moderate, reasonable, right. While the legislature is asked to sign Statement No. 1, he may refuse or sign as suits him, and you can do as you like, vote for him, or against him. That ends it. This bill attempts to compel him to do what, by signing the statement he freely binds himself to do. The bill would naturally supersede Statement No. 1. Legislators would refuse to obey the law, the Courts would hold it and the whole principle unconstitutional, and you would lose all.

While it is left voluntary with candidates to sign or not, and having signed, being free to break their promise if they will, the question cannot come before the Courts, and the people hold a very affective means of getting their bill. Be wise. It is better never to attempt to much.

 Vote 327 X No, and save Statement No. 1, or 326 X Yes—and lose it.

NOT SINCERE

Governor Chamberlain has heretofore been thought a sincere man, but, he dishonors himself in his silly declaration of non-partisanship. He has no political connections at variance with the democratic party, and is known by all voters to be trying to sneak into the Senate by that specious pretense of non-partisanship. We had believed the Governor an open fighter, plainly disclosing his purposes. Now we see him as a candidate willing to take office under false pretense.

Mr. Chamberlain has never held an office to which he was not nominated by the democratic party. He is now the nominee of that party for Senator. He is loyally supported by every voter of that party. He firmly upholds the doctrines of that party, and in the Senate, as he has in every other station of life, would be found standing for all its policies, including the un-american doctrine of tariff for revenue and against protection.

A vote on any question, in the United States Senate, is always with one party or the other. A donkey could accomplish as much in that body as a man who would not vote with a party. A Senator cannot vote otherwise. Mr. Chamberlain is a Democrat. He WILL vote with that party. The protective tariff on wool will have to be fought over in the next Congress, the republican party fighting for it, the democratic party fighting against it.

The democratic party has always been for free wool. How will Geo. F. Chamberlain vote on that question, if in Congress. He dares not say he will vote with the republicans. Then he WILL vote with his party for free wool.

A vote for Cake is safe.

THE EXAMINER'S WORK

No newspaper in the state, that we have seen, and we have watched many of them, has taken up the initiative and referendum measures as they are to appear on the ballot and reasoned out their points as The Examiner has done, except the Portland Daily Oregonian, which paper just recently, has taken up the discussion of the measure. The Oregonian holds exactly the same views on the measures as does The Examiner. The Examiner has studied every one of the measures, one by one, and has had legal advice upon them, as well as sound reasoning, and our conclusions were arrived at after careful and painstaking study. If any in Lake county has not given every measure a careful study from which he is able to draw a different conclusion, we feel that he will be safe in voting upon them as they are marked on the sample ballot published on an inside page of The Examiner this week.

Dr. Clarence True-Wilson On Woman Suffrage

"The question is not whether the women have a right to vote, but it is whether we have a right to compel them to vote at the dictation of a very small minority of their own number. It is certain the vast majority of our women do not wish the ballot. The laws for the protection of women are improving steadily with the years and every interest of hers is as well safeguarded as that of any man. If you wish to protect the rights of women, ask yourself today, does my wife want to vote, does my sister, does my mother claim it to be her privilege? If they do not, what right have you to compel them to do it by the ballot? But it is said we need the ballot of women to aid us in government. But is it expedient? Will society be improved by the granting of the ballot to women? Will the better element of women come to the front as political workers and fill our offices, or will the worse? Which is the better element of women? The quiet and unassuming queens of our homes, our mothers, sisters, wives and sweethearts, or will politics be controlled by the club-women? This is not an untried experiment. Four states have given the ballot to women unconditionally, and after 30 years of women's voting politics has not arrived at the moral standard of our own state, in Wyoming, Colorado, Idaho or Utah. But you say, "There are not as many women as men in Wyoming." Yes, but in Utah women are plentiful that seven or eight of them club together and keep one husband between them, and with this numerous company they have not closed the saloons, or closed the brothels, or prevented gambling dens, or purified politics. Indeed, there are no four states in our Union where politics is so corrupt as in the four states where women vote. It is a sad picture where a man, for the sake of office, sells his integrity, but it is a sadder, and a common sight, in the states where women vote, to see women sell their virtue for offices. I can give specific incidents with names, places and dates, where women, desiring to be assistant county clerks, etc., are sent from the candidates office to the political boss to there offer her all at the shrine of a man, who, but for politics, would not be allowed to enter her home. In every woman's suffrage state, the proverb has had a double emphasis that "Politics make strange companions." If you wish to prevent such conditions in Oregon, vote "No" on the woman suffrage amendment on June 1st."

Gratifying Dispatches

Corvallis, May 17.—"Sentiment in favor of the re-election of Congressman W. C. Hawley is so nearly unanimous that there can scarcely be said to be a Congressional campaign in progress," said Chairman C. V. Johnson, of the First District Committee, today. The people of this district, regardless of party lines, appreciate the fact that Hawley is "making good" at Washington. They recognize in him a man of high intellectual attainments, tireless industry and rare oratorical ability. The Republicans of the district were so well satisfied with their representative that they re-nominated him without opposition.

"It has been gratifying to the people of this district to read in the news dispatches from time to time that by his earnestness, his sincerity and his devotion to duty, Hawley has made a favorable impression in Washington. Though the unwritten rules forbid a new Congressman to thrust himself forward, we are glad to learn that Hawley has made many warm friends in the House of Representatives and that during his first session he had opportunity, in discussing the Oregon and California land grant resolution, to demonstrate his ability as an effective public speaker."

"Here in Oregon we know Hawley as a man fitted both by native talents and by education for the work of a statesman. All his life he has kept himself well informed upon all public questions. We are justified, therefore, in believing that he will soon attain a position of influence in the House of Representatives. We all understand that it takes time for any man to rise to leadership and we expect to keep Hawley in Washington until he has had a chance to work his way to the top."

"Hawley's persistent efforts for the cancellation of the railroad land grant, his systematic work in behalf of a government appropriation for free locks at Oregon City, his advocacy of river and harbor improvements, and his attitude in favor of tariff revision while maintaining the protective principle, have met the hearty approval of the people of his district. This satisfactory public record, together with the personal esteem in which he is held because of his high moral character, his genial disposition and his intellectual attainments, make it a pleasure for the people of his district to vote for him regardless of party lines."

Cake Is the Man

Just now there appears to be a little doubt but that it is Senator Cake of Oregon. Once the campaign started it was speedily seen that the oft-boasted personal popularity of George the Governor was not so almighty stout as it once was. Various things that some folks have known about our executive have come to light, and a lot of folks are today doubtful if George was such a whale of a man after all.

The nearer Oregon makes it unanimous for Cake the better for Oregon. One place where party politics counts is in the upper house of Congress, were the majority party gets what it wants and the minority sits tight and waits. Oregon wants a lot of things from Congress; it can get them through a democratic senator.

Between the men personally the issue is not draw; it is not a personal campaign; it is Mr. Cake would not be on the defensive.

It is also remembered that Cake was one of the Republicans who had the nerve to stand on a Statement No. 1 platform when it looked as though that meant defeat; he stood for the popular election of the United States Senator whether it profited him or not; Chamberlain has stood for it because it was his sole chance of ever landing the place.

The vast difference between being good because you hope it will pay, and because it is right, represents the difference between the stand of Mr. Chamberlain and Mr. Cake.

Not a "Japanese Spy"

Lakeview Oregon, May 22nd, 1908.
 To the Editor, Lake County Examiner:
 I noticed an article in the Klamath Express a few days ago, which had for its headline, "Japanese Spy in Town", and it contained a brief outline of my military career.

In answer to this article I would like to state that I was discharged from the Service of the United States Army on April 24th and my discharge was Honorable with character Excellent. The cause of my discharge was given as "Special Order, 90 Paragraph 13 War Department". There were no further orders or reason why I should be discharged. The San Francisco Chronicle published on April 30 and May 1st, wrote their suppositions as to the cause of my discharge intimating that the cause was that I was trying to sell the secret Explosives D, a high Explosive used in the interior of projectile used only by the U. S. Government, to Japan.

Therefore, as the cause of my discharge is only on the work on the part of the papers I do not see any reason why I should be branded as an outcast and traitor in the eyes of the Citizens of the United States.

I served my Country as a Soldier during the trouble in the Philippines, exposing my life for my country's cause. I am as true an American as ever lived and just because I am an Expert in High Explosives and a linguist having lived 18 years in Japan, I see no reason why I should be made to appear as a traitor to my flag. So I demand the Klamath Express to retract their Statement.

Respectfully
 Jack Treadwell,
 Soldier of 21st U. S. Infantry and 70th Coast Artillery Corps, Lakeview Oregon.
