Miss Laura Snelling, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Snelling, is assisting in the Mercantile store during the illness of Henry Funk.

C. W. Dent and family, of Adel were in town Tuesday. In addition to being county commissioner, Mr. Dent is one of the prominent stockmen of the county.

G. B. Wilcox of Red Bluff, Calif., arrived in town this week on his regular annual outing trip to the mountains north of Lakeview, where he has a big sheep ranch.

M. Sanders was in from his sheep camp on the Harvey place in the north end of this valley Tuesday. He reports a good lambing and is finishing shearing a good crop of wool.

M. C. Lewis, and wife, of Goldfield, Nevada, arrived in town on Tuesdays stage. Mr. Lewis is a carpenter. They are well pleased with our town and county and will locate here.

John Hewitt, of Tacoma, of the Hewitt Land Company, is in town. He is formulating a great immigration project for the West Side, of which full mention will be made later on.

C. Duvall, of West Virginia, and Chas. H. Isabel, of Aron, Ohio, are in town, leading a strenuous life looking for land. If they do not find what they want they will be hard to suit.

Several communications from out of town friends are in type, but have had to be delayed in publishing until our next issue, because of a rush of legal work that must be inserted.

E. E. Linville, of the Red Front Stables, went on a trip to Altura last week, and while in that vicinity his team ran away, throwing Elsie out and he received a severe injury to his leg.

Evidence of interest in this section is had every day in hotel arrivals from the outside and a constant procession of "movers" wagons, looking for new homes in this "The last and best West."

Ed. Lake, who has a homestead in Bly country, spent several days in Lakeview last week, returning to his home Tuesday. Mr. Lake has lost some surplus "fat" since "going on the farm."

This is a land of rain as well as of sunshine—two necessary adjuncts to well filled purses. A quarter of an inch of rain fell Sunday evening. More Monday, and it looks as though the end is not yet.

G. F. Arthur, of West Side, was in town Monday making final proof on a timber entry. He was accompanied by B. McCreary, one of the former's witnesses. We were pleased to meet both gentlemen.

Pete Enquist, the sheepman, returned to Lakeview last Friday from Santa Rosa, Calif., where he spent the winter. Mr. Enquist says times are pretty dull in California and there are many men out of work.

The new public library building is rapidly assuming shape, and will be handsome addition to the town. It will serve a most worthy purpose, and speaks well for the intellectuality of the people of Lakeview.

Mr. J. N. Jaquish, the cabinet maker, last week finished up a lot of picture frames, which are about as neat as any we have ever seen. Mr. Jaquish makes frames for sale, and does repair work of all kinds.

S. F. Ahlstrom reports shipment of several saddles this week to Nevada and California points. He has a large and growing trade in saddles extending all over the West—a distinction for Lakeview workmanship, and profitable to himself.

Chas. E. Rice Director of the Lakeview Citizens Band has been contracted for another year by the Businessmen of Lakeview at a salary of $100 per month. This is good news to the people of Lakeview. Mr. Rice is a success as band master.

The family of F. P. Cronemiller, arrived here from Klamath Falls, last Saturday, and are greatly pleased with their new home. They were surprised to find such a pretty little city, and such a busy one. We are glad to welcome them among us.

Photographer Here
Henry Wendt, photographer, who has a photo studio and candy factory at New Pine Creek, Oregon, is in Lakeview, with a photo tent, south of the Herald office.

Mr. Wendt will remain here until July 10, 1908. Photos taken from stamps, postals and all sizes up to 11X14. All work up to date.
Mr. Wendt expects to come to Lakeview once a year with a tent. 25-tf
