My Hair Ran Away

Don't have a falling out with your hair. It might leave you! Then what? That would mean thin, scraggly, uneven, rough hair. Keep your hair at home! Fasten it tightly to your scalp! You can easily do it with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is something more than a simple hair dressing. It is a hair medicine, a hair tonic, a hair food.

Special Correspondence. After a most successful year's work the Adel School closed June 11th with a picnic at Sweeney's Grove. Lowell's immortal words, "O what is so rare as day in June?", seemed particularly appropriate, as the day was an ideal one for an outing. Long before noon merry parties might be seen wending their way up the canyon, occasionally stopping to permit some of their members to indulge in the sport which immortalized Isaak Walton.

A party soon gathered in the grove where games, swinging and social chat became the order of the day until about one o'clock, when the fishing parties began to arrive with their trout. And what a catch! Mrs.Pope, an amateur, distinguished berself by bringing in nine speckled beauties. Mrs. Routson brought in seventeen, Mr. Wakefield nine while others of repaired. Mr. Wakefield nine while others of the party brought in enough to make a grand total of fifty five. Soon every body was busy, preparing fish, making coffee, spreading tables, and making lemonade.

A bountiful dinner with fish enough and many to spare and which proved the ladies of Adel to be adepts in the 15 00 culinay art was in order and a happy 42 50 hour was spent by young and old around the tables.

The dinner over, a short program was rendered by the primary pupils of the school as follows:

Rec. A Little Gentleman, Erest Messner; Rec., A Speech for a Boy, Chss. Crump; Dialog, Bessie's Grand Sister Graduates, Florence Morris; Rec., When the Little Boy Ran Away, Hazel Givan Dialog, Old Times and and Dallas Givan; Rec., Little Orphant Annie, Vera Parker; Rec., Froggies at School, Esther Crump; Rec., 40 The Lady from Over the Rhine; Esther Cramp; Arithmetic Drill, School; Reading, Rock of Ages, Miss Crump;

Miss Beamis gave a few statistics of ence and this was enlivened by Mrs. Thos. Calderwood making snap shots others feeding Mrs. Givan and Mr. others feeding Mrs. Givan and Mr. aroo passed through Silver Lake Wible. It was generally regretted Sunday with 400 head of horses purthat a picture of Mesdames Wible, Routson, Pope, and Miss Wible crossing Deep Creek on horse back was not secured. No accidents were reported though Eddie Neasham while "cooning" an overhauging tree was only saved from a bath by extraordinary white belts and red sox and white agility; and Mr. Givan and party when returning, on account of some blue with the letters S. Geo. Emery was down from the ranch on Buck creek Monday. Mr. Emery has a cow that gave birth to triplet calves, recently. All are ap-parently healthy and doing well.

Many loads of lumber have passed through Silver Lake of late, going to the "desert" country to be used by the homesteaders in the construction of houses, barns . etc. The sawmili is taxed to its full capacity to supply the demand.

While at work up at Sears flat one day last week Forest Guards W. J.
Patterson and Earl Abbott found and killed a large female lynx and captured her brood of kittens, two in number, and brought them to town. They are now in the Rangers' office here and are growing fat on raw beef and sweet milk. The little "lynxlets" are about three times as large as house kittens of their age would be, and are getting very tame.

The Oregonian sagely remarks: Saloonkeepers forced out of business in dry countles can turn their premises into moving-picture theaters and continue to gather the money.

J. C. Basey, the new proprietor of the horse ranch stage station, was in the city on business early this week. Mr. Basey says there is lots of travel at present and business is good at the station.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McKune and daughter Myrtle and Miss Vida Chrisman left Tuesday for Klamath Falls to attend the Baptist Association meeting. Fred Stussy accompanied them to the Falls. Orin Thompson and another buck-
