To the Farmers of Lake County. We are now making up our fall list for publication, and desire to call your attention to this fact, for the reason that we want to write up your property and send it out, in order to get it into the market before the purchasers commence coming. We are still having numerous inquiries for lands in this section and are in touch with buyers for all kinds of real estate. Owing to the stringency of the money market for the past ninety days we have been somewhat handicapped and could not make the sales that we would have made otherwise but from the present outlook, money matters will be easier very soon, and consequently buyers will be in the market for land. Now should you have land for sale, we invite you to call on us and find our methods of selling real estate and you will be convinced at once that we can find you a buyer for your land. Don't forget the location, Cogburn residence, two blocks west of Post & King's saloon. Pacific Land Co. W. S. McKinsey, supt. of the Nev Cal. NEW PINE CREEK

Report of the Mines--Pretty Wedding--Mining Road. The Schavers and Bassler lease is making great progress at their mine which they leased from the Fern Logging and Mining Co. They are sucking ore now and will soon have a real brick to send out. The new stamp mill of Grigsby and Jansson was started on Monday of this week. There is plenty of work for them to do, and results will show for themselves that those gentlemen are plucers in a rich field. A very pretty wedding occurred at Davis Creek last Sunday when Miss Cora Dell Berry was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. H. Kirkpatrick by the Rev. J. H. Howard. Both of the contracting parties are well known in Goose Lake Valley, the present Mrs. Kirkpatrick having been a teacher for several years in Modoc County. She was a graduate of the Chico Normal School. They will make their home at Davis Creek, and the best wishes of their many friends are with them. Mr. Oliver Briles acted as best man, Mrs. Briles, a sister of the bride, was matron, and another sister, Mrs. B. E. Guillian played the wedding march. The flower girls were, Misses Erma Morrison, Bessie Linville, Marvel Roy, Gussie Henderson and Maud Wolf. The ushers were, Carroll Morrison, Guy Wolf, Willis Crowder and Elmer Lee. The ushers were, Willie and Elmer Roberts, and the ring was carried in by Willard Morrison. Saturday night a meeting of those who had subscribed to a fund for building the road to the Hoag Mining District was held, and though the Forest Service did not appropriate as much as the petition called for, it was decided to pay the subscriptions anyway as there will be enough to build a road that will do for this summer, and the Forest Service will improve and make it permanent next year, especially since the signers show a puelle spirit that is commendable to say the least. Now that the stamp mill is running, and so many people are working in the mines, this road is a very important thing to everyone in Goose Lake Valley. The road is already surveyed so that work will be commenced next week. Haying has begun in earnest, and while the yield is not so heavy as it has been, the quality is better than usual. Joins the Examiner Force. Klamath Herald, 17: F. W. Riggs, who has for several months been connected with the papers of this city, has accepted a position on The Examiner at Lakeview and will leave for there in the morning. He is an able man in his line and the Lakeview paper is fortunate in securing his services.
