A Sunday Wedding

A quiet wedding, but beautiful and impressive, was relebrated at the home of Mrs. Charlton, on last Sunday at 1 P. M., in this city. Miss Nora the pretty and accomplished daughter was united in marriage to Mr. Otto Greber of a Lakeview, a young man of excellent habits, moral and upright, and comes from one of our excellent German families. The guests consisted of the parents, relatives, and a few friends of the bride and groom. The ceremony was performed by Eld. W. A. Hopkins of the Baptist church in a few well chosen words in a very impressive way. The attendants were Mr. Herman Greber, a brother of the groom and

No one was burt, but there was a badly scared lot of people there during the shock, that came at inter-vals of 2:58, 3:08 and 3:50 o'clock.

A Fairly Good Show

The Big Novelty Road Co. gave a vaudeville entertainment here Satur. day night. For the character of the show the work was all right. Earl is pretty good as a Dutch comme-dian, and Tip Piedger not at all bad as a black face artist. The illustrated songs and moving picture were very good. They will be here later with an entire new show.

Jealous ol i Portaind ! Here comes the Telegram with an account of an 8 foot snake dug up in that city by some workmen in excavating for a building. His snakeship was stuffed and is to become a permanent exhibit amonng the great things of that city, all this, too, just because Lakeview had on exhibition a 5 foot rattler! Well, anyhow, Lakeview's snake was a genuine rattlesnake, while the one Portland blows about is nothing but an ordinary blow snake! So there!

A New Cherry

A man named Kalich, near Portland, has originated a new cherry, which he has named "Kalich's Giant Cherry". The variety is said to be a cross between the Bing and Lambert. It is larger than either, and has the shape of the Lamert while the color is signed to the plaintiff herein on the between the two-darker than the Lambert and lighter than the Bing. The Giant is expected to be a valuable addition to the cherry family for the reason among others that on account of its other advantages it ripens at this time, when the other leading varities are about gone.
